One Dies, 14 Missing, 470 Safe In Cruise Ship Blaze

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A vicious fire raged uncontrolled through the cruise ship Viking Princess today driving the approximately 485 passengers and crew members from the Miami-based vessel.

The Coast Guard reported 470 were rescued, one was dead and some 14 were unaccounted for.

The survivors — including the ship's veteran Norwegian captain, chief officer and navigator —were plucked from the gently rolling Atlantic Ocean by three merchant vessels.

The $16 million Viking Princess was reported blazing fiercely, a towering column of smoke marking its death throes in the Windward Passage between Cuba and Haiti.

"All (survivors) are in good shape," a Coast Guard spokesman said.

The German freighter Cap Nort picked up 376 survivors and one body, the Liberian freighter Navigator rescued 81 and the Chunking Victory, a Nationalist Chinese merchant ship, saved 13 more.

Lt. David Carey, a Coast Guard public information officer, said:

The Coast Guard, Navy, U.S. Customs and the ship's booking agency agreed the Viking Princess carried 235 passengers, but figures on the crew varied from 248 to 260.

Carey said two ships were searching for other possible survivors in a 20-mile radius and the area was being crisscrossed by rescue planes.

The three ships carrying survivors were reported steaming for the U.S. Navy Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

The Viking Princess boasted 100 per cent air conditioning, two outdoor tiled swimming pools, a 275-seat theater, and plush dining facilities.

It has a total of 228 cabins on five decks providing accommodations for a possible 627 passengers. Each cabin has a private bath.

The 16-year-old ship has a displacement of 17,600 tons, a length of 536 feet and a 64-foot beam. Its twin screws are driven by diesel engines.

It was less than five months ago—on Nov. 13, 1965—that the 38-year-old cruise ship Yarmouth Castle burned and sank between Miami and Nassau with a loss of 90 lives, mostly passengers.

FLAMES, FOG AND HOSE — San Francisco's Mission district was the scene of a business block, five alarm fire this morning that called out 175 firemen and 45 pieces of equipment, skeining Mission Street with this fantastic coil of hose. It took firemen one-and-one-half hours to subdue the blaze; damage was estimated at $500,000 to $600,000. (AP Wirephoto)

Viet Nam Police Battle Anti-American Rioters

Terrorist Grenade Injures U.S. Troops

SAIGON (UPI)—A force of 2,000 police and rangers used clubs and tear gas early Saturday to break up an anti-government mob that turned on Americans in an outburst of bombing, shooting, grenade-throwing and terror.

A hand grenade possibly hurled by a Viet Cong terrorist exploded Friday night near the main gate of the Tan Son Nhut Air Base outside Saigon, wounding five Americans and two Vietnamese women. An American was reported shot and a number were beaten.

The government of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky sent in troops who blocked off a square mile around the Buddhist pagoda that was the center of the demonstration and subdued the mobs after an hours-long riot lit by bonfires of burning tires in the streets.

It was the fifth consecutive night of anti-American and anti-government rioting in Saigon—and the worst. It led to suspicions that Communist elements had infiltrated the mob to incite anti-Americanism.

MONKS LEAD

The youths led by Buddhist monks threw stones and Molotov cocktails at the police and soldiers who retaliated with clouds of tear gas that rolled like fog through the steaming streets and alleys of the tormented city.

The Americans and Vietnamese were at a soft drink stand near the heavily guarded airport when the grenade exploded. The injured were taken to the American 3rd Field Hospital for treatment. Moments later a homemade bomb exploded at the airport but caused no injuries.

WOUNDING TOLD

U.S. military police said an American was shot and wounded during the rioting which was taking a more open anti-American turn by the minute. He was rushed to a hospital for treatment. Extent of injuries and his identity were not immediately known.

The Buddhists were inflamed because government troops hurled hand grenades last night into their main Vien Hoa Dao pagoda in Saivon. The pagoda is sacred to all Vietnamese Buddhists and the act of desecration inflamed anti-government leaders anew.

About 100 rioters surrounded

Viet Warfare Ignores Civil Disturbances

SAIGON (UPI) —U.S. troops ignored a rising tide of anti-Americanism on the South Vietnamese home front and killed 44 Communists in two actions in the field, military spokesmen said today.

The U.S. Army's 1st Air Cavalry Division and the 101st Airborne Division "found, fixed and destroyed" the enemy in "Operation Lincoln" and "Operation Fillmore" yesterday, it was reported.

U.S. Navy and Air Force pilots, unaffected by the violent anti-government demonstrations on the ground, roared into the air and pounded Communist North Vietnamese highways, bridges, radar sites and military installations from the skies.

The airmen reported light to moderate flak in a total of 41 combat missions over the North. No losses were reported.

Giant B-52 bombers took off from Guam to hit suspect Viet Cong supply depots, a weapons factory and troop concentrations in South Viet Nam, concentrating on an area 65 miles southwest of the northern coastal port of Da Nang.

Da Nang was one of the spawning grounds for the recent wave of anti-government riots.

The spokesman said intelligence reports indicated the Communists moved strong rein-

Ross Flood Plan To Remain Same

I-J SPECIAL REPORT

SAN FRANCISCO — Ross Town Council got assurance from the Army Engineers today that it will be kept fully informed of Corte Madera Creek flood control plans affecting the town, but no retreat from insistence that the project be carried beyond Ross Creek or a concrete diversion wall be built at the town border.

The assurance — and reiteration of the alternatives—were given at a meeting at the district office of the Corps of Engineers, attended by Rep. Donald H. Clausen, R-First District, and arranged at request of Ross Mayor Frederick S. Allen.

It was left to the council to make its own decision as to whether Ross would join the project and allow construction of a concrete-lined channel extended into the town to above Ross Creek.

If Ross stays out, a diversion ditch would be built along the southern town limits.

Maj. John H. Kern, deputy district engineer, said the corps was willing to cooperate as much as possible with Ross. He said that already the board of supervisors had given a guarantee that the second phase of the creek flood control project would go forward.

He added that in his opinion, the most feasible improvement would be to extend the creek into Ross, but that this was a decision the town council would have to take.

Councilman Natalie Lewis said she was concerned that if the concrete channel went through Ross, the Corps of Engineers would go beyond the width already planned, and this would result in a loss of trees.

Kern said as far as he was concerned, the corps would have jurisdiction within the limit of the natural channel. Any damage outside that width would be repaired.

Also at the meeting were officials of Marin County, including Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen. Kettenhofen suggested that the work in Ross should be made a third phase of the project, in order to extend the time limit. Kern said the Hearing Set On Ending Arksite Leases

A public hearing on termination of arksite leases on state land along Corte Madera Creek was called by the State Lands Commission today for 7:30 p.m. on April 21 in the supervisors' chamber of the Marin County Civic Center.

The state seeks to cancel the leases to make way for the Corte Madera Creek Flood Control Project.

Marin County has requested the action, said F. J. Hortig, lands commission executive officer, in calling the public hearing.

He said the hearing "is to provide opportunity for local residents, arksite lessees, local and participating municipal, county, state and federal agencies to introduce into the record all elements of the situation, which will be reported to the State Lands Commission for consideration and appropriate action."

FCC Boss Turns In Resignation

Deputy press secretary Robert H. Fleming said at White House press headquarters here that Henry's resignation reached the White House earlier, but did not get to Johnson's desk until today.

Henry is expected to return to Tennessee to practice law.

It was learned that the FCC chairman told Johnson about six weeks ago he planned to leave the government.

Mission Area Fire Damage At $500,000

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A spectacular, five-alarm fire swept through three buildings in the Mission District early today, driving dozens of apartment dwellers from their homes and destroying an estimated $500,000 worth of property.

Three firemen were injured, one seriously.

Authorities said the fire, of undetermined origin, started in the W.B. Savage Co. salvage store at 21st and Mission streets.

Fanned by a strong breeze, the flames soon spread to a nearby building containing stores and offices as well as an adjacent apartment house.

Several roof fires also broke out on nearby buildings.

Lt. Clarence McGrath suffered back injuries when he fell through a skylight and dropped three stories. He was reported under intensive care at Mission Emergency Hospital. Two other

Marin City Riot Case Quintet Hears Charges

Five Marin City youths, accompanied by a bevy of attorneys, relatives, and others, appeared in Marin Municipal Court yesterday afternoon on charegs arising from a Monday night riot.

Judge Peter Allen Smith released three of them on their own recognizance after arraignment. Case of a fourth, Morison Smith, 17, of 307 Drake Avenue, was referred to juvenile court for certification there on a felony charge of assault on Sheriff's Deputy Fred Garrison.

The fifth case, that of James Otis Ames, 17, of 69 Cole Drive, had already been referred to the minor's court and Judge Smith only suspended municipal court proceedings.

Ames, whose arrest erupted in the brawl between an estimated 100 Marin City youths and some 28 officers, is charged with throwing a rock at a sheriff's car, and with two additional counts of obstructing officers in performance of their duties. All three counts are misdemeanors.

Both Ames and Smith were also ordered released by juevnile courts today pending further hearings.

Two adults, Phillip Craig Scott, 19, of 50 Cole Drive, and Edward Boon Green, 20, of 343 Drake Avenue, were arraigned on felony charges, Scott for two counts of assault—on Deputy Charles Prandi and on Deputy Carl Tim Wiese—and Green for assault on Deputy Garrison.

Claude B. Burton, 21, of 33 Cole Drive, was arraigned on two counts, obstructing Deputy Shine and obstructing Sgt. Edward Levine in performance of their duties.

Release of the adults on their own recognizance was over protest of Deputy Dist. Atty. Michael Dufficy, who asked $1,650 bail each for the felony cases, and $276 bail in the misdemeanor case.

Attorneys Benjamin Dreyfus, Richard Werthimer, and Robert D. Carrow, all defending the five suspects, convinced Judge Smith that bail was unneeded to assure further court appearances by their clients.

"These (cases) all grow out of a cry of social protest," said Dreyfus, contending they are "not criminal offenses and shouldn't be in a criminal court."

Carrow declared the suspects

Governor Tips Hat To Grange

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— Gov. Edmund G. Brown today joined in celebrating weeks dedicated to the patrons of husbandry, better known as "the Grange," and growers of artichokes.

Brown offered a salute to the California State Grange, which will join in observance of National Grange Week, April 17-23.

National Artichoke Week is April 14-23. Brown said these "delightful edible thistles" thrive in Monterey, San Mateo, Santa Cruz, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Marin and Sonoma counties.

Justice Hall Hiring Due Showdown

A showdown meeting before county supervisors on hiring of minorties in the Hall of Justice job under way at the Civic Center has been scheduled for 9 a.m. Tuesday.

Representatives of contractor Robert McKee have been "ordered" to attend, County Administrator Alan Bruce reported today.

Supervisors were told Tuesday that the contractor had not been living up to a clause in the contract calling for cooperation in hiring minorities.

Marjorie Ward, hired by the county to implement the contract, said she had five or six qualified Negro workers, but she could not get them taken on the jobs due both to union and employer resistance.

Invited to attend the session Tuesday are representatives of the Operating Engineers Union Local 3, the State Division of Apprenticeship Standards, the State Department of Employment, and the Building and Construction Trades Council.

Showers Threaten To Dampen Easter

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Easter holidays may be spoiled by rain, the weatherman said today, but temperatures should continue above normal.

A weak weather pattern causing the threat of rain in parts of Northern California was moving northeast, the forecast said.

Strikers Stop March To Pray

HOOD (AP)—A band of striking grape workers observed Good Friday today with roadside prayers, kneeling in the dust before scenes depicting Christ carrying the cross toward Calvary and crucifixion.

The workers, on the 23rd day of their 300 - mile march from Delano to Sacramento, worshiped at 14 "Stations of the Cross" —pictures representing events before, during and after the Crucifixion. The "Stations of the Cross' ceremony is widely observed in Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches.

The marchers spent the night in the rural hamlet of Hood in Sacramento County after learning yesterday that the big Di Giorgio Corp., largest employer in the Delano area, has offered to hold an election to see if its more than 1,000 workers want to be represented by the National Farm Workers Union.

The NFWA, an independent group that is staging the march, struck Di Giorgio and other Delano-area grape growers seven months ago, demanding recognition as a union along with higher wages and better working conditions.

Cesar Chavez, the Mexican-born former field worker who founded the NFWA, had little to say about the Di Giorgio action except that it did admit workers had a right to a union. Jack Ybarra, another NFWA official, said a vote now would give the choice to strikebreakers.

Gov. Brown responded to the Di Giorgio statement by instructing the State Conciliation Service to get in touch with all parties concerned. Di Giorgio requested that the service supervise the election.

On Wednesday, the strikers won an initial victory when Schenley Industries, the second biggest grower in Delano, agreed to recognize the NFWA and to negotiate with the union. It was the first such recognition of the union by any grower.

In Sacramento, preparations were underway for the weekend windup of the march.

In an abandoned Catholic church near the Sacramento River docks, a group of volunteers worked in a steaming kitchen preparing 600 enchiladas for the marchers, most of them Mexican-Americans.

In another room of the aging, weatherbeaten former church, volunteers packed cans of donated food, prepared posters and banners worded "Viva la Huelga!" ("Long Live the Strike!") and mimeographed copies of song sheets.

The march was to reach Freeport tonight, on the east bank of the Sacramento River. A rally in a farm field was planned.

Tomorrow, the marchers will cross the river into West Sacramento, gathering at Our Lady of Grace School, where they hope to attract some 1,000 supporters to another rally.

The march is to conclude Easter Sunday on the broad steps of the State Capitol.

Brezhnev Re-Elected General Secretary

MOSCOW (AP) — Leonid I. Brezhnev was re-elected unanimously today to head the Soviet Communist party as the party ended an 11-day congress which brought little change in policies or leadership.

Brezhnev announced to the closing Kremlin session of the party's 23rd congress that he had been chosen party general secretary, the most important job in the Soviet Union.

The congress changed the title from first secretary, which Brezhnev had been since the ouster of Nikita S. Khrushchev in October 1964. General secretary was Stalin's title.

The party's two kep groups, the Politburo that sets policy for the party and the Secretariat that carries it out, retained practically the same members as before the election earlier today by the Central Committee.

The nearly 5,000 delegates to the congress chose the Central Committee yesterday.

The politburo, the former Presidium which the congress reverted to its Stalin-era name, was reduced from 12 to 11 members by the retirement of former Soviet Presidefts Anastas I. Mikoyan and Nikolai M. Shvernik, and the addition of Arvid J. Pelshe, a leader of the Communist party in Latvia.

The order in which Brezhnev announced names of Politburo members after his own indicated their ranking, although nothing specific was said about relative importance within the new 11-man body.

Brezhnev named Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, President Nikolai V. Podgorny, party ideologist Mikhail A. Suslov, Gennady I. Voronov, Andrei P. Kirilenko, Alexander N. Shelepin, first deputy premiers Kirill T. Mazurov and Dimitry S. Polyansky, Pyotr Y. Shelest and Pelshe.

Pacific Telephone Asks $14.9 In Rate Increases

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pacific Telephone has asked the State Public Utilities Commission to allow rate increases totaling $14.9 million annually.

The higher rates would not effect basic telephone service except for semi-public coin phones.

Increases were necessary, company spokesmen said, because Pacific Telephone failed to earn its common stock dividend from November 1965 through February 1966, and did not realize the rate of return authorized by the PUC in all of 1965.

The change requested yesterday would increase new connection changes for businesses from $10 to $15 and for residences from $7 to $10.

Connection charges for extension phones and PBC stations would be $5 instead of $4.

Semi-public coin telephone customers presently pay rates of 75 cents to $4.30 with a guarantee of 18 to 35 cents a day. The guaranteed minimum would be eliminated by the new rates and customers would pay $4 to $7.55 amonth.

PBX customers would pay for the services they use, not for the items of equipment they use.

Youths Jam Beaches In Florida

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI) —A collegian in a Batman bathing suit summed it up:

He was one of 90,000 young American college students who began jamming Florida beaches today in the annual Eastertime influx.

The beaches in Fort Lauderdale and Daytona Beach were a panorama of beer cans, newly pink flesh and brightly colored bikinis. And from radios on the beach and motel windows folk-rock music blared.

But so far this year has been one of the quietest in the seven-year history of the Florida migration.

There was one incident of note yesterday. Students surged off the Fort Lauderdale beaches chanting "riot, riot." But police appeared so fast that the incident was over before it could even develop any steam. Only a half-dozen were arrested.

Things were different in years past. In the early '60s disorders were frequent and featured pitched bottle battles with police and firemen, mass arrests and angry protests from the citizenry.

The reasons for the improved deportment are partly community enlightenment and partly the profit motive.

Fort Lauderdale city officials have set up nightly dances, hootennannys and other entertainment to keep the youngsters busy and out of trouble.

Europe G.I.s Due In U.S.

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Army is opening new training centers at three of its major bases and bringing 15,000 soldiers with urgently needed skills home from Europe to hasten its Viet Nam buildup.

The three bases which will add training to their present responsibilities are Fort Bragg, N. C., Fort Campbell, Ky., and Fort Lewis, Wash., it was learned today.

Bragg and Campbell are the homes, respectively, of the 82nd and 101st Airborne Divisions, and their selection for training roles indicates a stepup in paratroop training.

It was learned also that the Air Force, in a speedup of it training, will cut basic training time from six weeks to four weeks and go on a six-day instead of a five-day week.

Both the Army and the Air Force have been authorized to increase their manpower beyond previous goals for June 30, 1966.

The withdrawal of 15,000 troops from Europe, officials said, will temporarily drop the U.S. strength there to about 210,000, but newly trained replacements will be sent to Europe by the end of December and the Army will be back up to 225,000 men.

Thai Admits To Police He Killed Yank Soldier

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Police said a young Thai was arrested today after he admitted killing an American soldier April 1 following an argument.

The soldier, Spec. 4/c Alexander B. Charlton, 26, of Berkeley, was found with his head smashed and an electric cord wrapped around his neck in an apartment house rented by the U. S. military.

An autopsy disclosed he died of strangulation.

Officials said Dong Suk Koingruak, about 27, was arrested in another house near the scene of murder.

When Dong returned to work today his employer notified police in compliance with official directive asking for information on all workers in the area who have been absent from the area since the murder was committed.

During questioning, police noticed Dong wearing a wristwatch similar to the one stolen from Charlton.

Under interrogation, police said Dong broke down and admitted he was visiting Charlton and killed the American soldier after they got into an argument. The nature of the argument was not known.

Doug claimed the argument led to a fight and Charlton hurled a lamp at Dong who smashed Charlton with a chair.

Dong said he later wrapped an electric cord around Charlton's neck and strangled him.

Can This Village Be Better?

By John Finn III

Can we make Mill Valley a better place to live?

The answer to the question is yes. It can be done. Let me make a short review. Mill Valley is a delightful village and I hope that it remains a village. The green hills were not produced by some candidate. They came from nature herself. Your own attractive garden is part and parcel of our village. But is it only the lovely green hills that we are talking about? Maybe we should talk about the hard green currency that makes the wheels move in a successful small town government.

It is a well known fact that Marin is now the highest in per household income of any county in the 14 Western states, and Mill Valley is right up there on top.

This is the climate that makes for a steady forward growth in our community. An exceptionally high educational level is the frosting on the cake. We are a discriminating people—and prove it by living in Mill Valley.

Strong civic leadership is needed to encourage local business to make the effort to increase retail sales.

From my background as a professional man in the matters of money, I would estimate the average gross gain in income per individual for the past ten years has been 10% per year, or a 100% gain since 1956.

To the retail operator we offer the buying power, the proximity of good schools at all levels, easy commuting for those who work in San Francisco, sporting facilities, a golf course, tennis courts, ocean sport fishing, a new and beautiful library, a community that has proximity to San Francisco, voted most popular city (see The Chronicle March 28) in the nation. Where else within 15 miles of downtown San Francisco can you find salmon going up stream to spawn?

Support me in my bid for a seat on the city council and I promise that I will use my best judgment in money matters to ease your tax burden and make our village a better place to live

Hydrogen Rocket Fizzles On Restart

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Space agency officials combed through bundles of data today in search of why a Centaur rocket failed to properly ignite a second time last night, causing a possible setback in the U.S. man-in-space program.

The failure showed that U.S. scientists have not yet proved they can tame liquid hydrogen fuel in space — a concept which this nation must realize before it can commit astronauts to go to the moon, send heavy payloads to the planets or soft-land instruments on the moon the year around.

As engineers wrestled with the problem, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration went ahead with plans today to launch an Orbiting Astronomical Observatory at 2:36 p.m. (EST). The shot has been postponed five times.

After a flawless countdown the problem-plagued Centaur — already more than three years behind schedule — thundered aloft from Cape Kennedy last night.

An Atlas booster successfully propelled the hydrogen-fueled Centaur upper stage 88 miles above the earth, where the Centaur's two engines burned for 325 seconds and placed it and a dummy Surveyor soft-lander moonship into a planned 100-mile-high parking orbit around the earth.

After a 25-minute coasting period in this orbit, Centaur was to have ignited a second time, burn 107 seconds and hurl the dummy spacecraft to a make-believe moon 236,000 miles from earth.

Instead, NASA said, apparently only one of Centaur's two 15,000-pound-thrust engines ignited. It only burned 17 seconds and kicked both the surveyor model and the Centaur into an oval-shaped orbit of 101 to 186 miles.

When U.S. astronauts fly to the moon, a much larger liquid-hydrogen rocket stage must coast from one to three orbits around the earth as the third stage of the Saturn 5 moon rocket.

The next unmanned launch of a Saturn 1B rocket from Cape Kennedy will carry a liquid-hydrogen stage into orbit about July 18 in another test of the concept.

A 1,730-pound Surveyor is scheduled to rocket aloft May 29 in an attempt to soft-land on the moon and relay pictures of the lunar surface to earth with only one burn of a Centaur rocket. Since the first Centaur ignition was apparently successful last night, NASA officials said they have no plans to delay the first Surveyor attempt.

Walter H. Gorman of Hayward told San Rafael police his hand power saw, worth about $100, had been stolen from a construction site where he had been working, at the end of Manuel T. Freitas Parkway.

Two Valljeo Policemen Killed; Dragnet Out

VALLEJO (UPI)— Two city police officers were shot and killed last night when they stopped an auto to issue a traffic citation.

The search for a suspect, identified by police as James E. Anderson, 23, Oakland, shifted early today to that city, about 20 miles to the south. Police said Anderson recently moved to Oakland from Vallejo.

The dead officers were patrolmen Calvin C. Thacker Jr., 36, and William Easson Jr., 31.

Two women and a man who allegedly were in the car with Anderson when it stopped were being questioned by police. Their names were withheld.

The first report of the slaying came from a witness who lives near the scene.

Anderson was identified as the suspect from fingerprints found on the hood of the patrol car. He was believed to be armed with a four-barrel "pepperbox" revolver.

Thacker is survived by his widow and four children. Easson was unmarried.

Atom Smasher Site Choice Due Before End Of Year

STOUGHTON, Wis. (UPI)—A decision where to build the world's largest atomic accelerator will be made before the end of the year, Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Glenn Seaborg said yesterday.

Seaborg and eight other AEC officials toured Wisconsin's proposed site on a cross country inspection of the six finalists competing for the $375 million machine. Earlier the group inspected a site at Ann Arbor, Mich.

The group today will look at a Weston, Ill., site. They will go to Denver, Colo., and Sacramento later before an inspection of a site in Brookhaven NY.

Zoning Administrator Hearings Reslated

Because of a change in schedule for the second planning commission meeting in April from the 18th to the 25th, the second April meeting of the zoning administrator has been changed.

The zoning administrator session which was scheduled for April 25 will be held instead on April 22, a Friday.

African Diplomat Balks U.N. Rhodesia Session

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The African president of the U.N. Security Council delayed compliance today with Britain's call for an urgent council meeting on Rhodesia while African members tried to agree on a strategy.

Despite a sit-in demonstration by 10 of the council's 15 members to force Ambassador Moussa Keo Keita of Mali to call a meeting last night, Keita said he could not do so because he was still holding consultations.

He indicated a session might not be called until Monday.

Britain requested the meeting yesterday afternoon to ask for U.N. authority to use force to enforce economic sanctions against the rebel white minority regime in Rhodesia.

Marin City Press Conference Called

Newspaper, radio and television representatives from throughout the Bay Area have been invited to a press conference in Marin City at 10:30 a.m. Monday.

Invitations were sent today in the form of telegrams over the signature of County Administrator Alan Bruce.

The conference, however, was largely arranged by Edward Moose, local representative of California Developers, Inc., developer of Marin City, and Donald O. Stutsman, executive director of the Marin County Housing Authority.

"It will be open to all questions," Moose said. "We want to cover the waterfront.

"We also want to show the other side of the picture, with representation from responsible public officials."

Both white and Negro residents of Marin City will be on hand to answer questions, Moose said.

Also invited to speak were Bruce, Chairman Byron W. Leydecker, of the county board of supervisors, Douglass Quiett of the county's community relations staff, and Stutsman.

Bruce said he did not authorize his signature on the telegram, but did not want to make an issue of it. "I accepted an invitation to speak," he said.

Two Bitten By Dogs

Two persons were bitten by dogs in separate incidents in Corte Madera yesterday, police reported.

James E. Riordan, 13, of 27 Lakeside Drive, Corte Madera, was bitten in the lower left leg as he delivered papers around 28 Tamal Vista Boulevard at 4:45 p.m. He said the dog was golden brown. Police have not found the animal.

Mrs. Jack Bahler of Altadena, Los Angeles County, was bitten by a dog owned by L. A. Martinich of 5 Monona Drive, Corte Madera. She said the animal charged up and bit her at Hickory Avenue and Walnut Avenue at 4:10 p.m., police reported.

ROSS

Army Engineers would look into the idea.

In answer to a question from Ross Councilman Roy Farrington Jones, Kern said plans affecting Ross would be sent to the council as they became available.

He said he felt no decision need be made by Ross until work was ready to begin.

Jones said: "It's like a stay of execution, until we can see the plans. I am delighted that we have this. It will give us time to evaluate. After all, we don't want to buy a pig in a poke."

Allen said he was pleased the meeting had achieved something concrete. "I get three or four calls a day asking what is going on," he reported.

Kettenhofen countered. "I got a telephone call yesterday asking me to exercise my influence to kill the project." He told Allen, "If you drag your feet, it will stop the funding but it will not stop the project."

Clausen said that although a delay beyond June 30 might not actually stop the funds, on that date the funds would become more vulnerable to being withdrawn. He said the international situation is such that he believed that several big projects were being reviewed with a view to diverting the money elsewhere.

Ross Councilman William P. McAndrew was absent.

Sanitary District Joins Sewer Study

Shocks Taken

Adam S. Vandemark of 55 Fairfax Street, Apt. 4, San Rafael, told police Wednesday two shock absorbers, worth $9.50 each, and a rear wheel were removed from his Honda motorcycle, parked in the carport of his home.

French Turn Out Beatnik-Type Scot Student

LONDON (UPI) —A young Scottish student had the distinction today of being the first person barred from France under new restrictions against beatniks.

Robert Reid, 20, said he tried to get off the cross-channel steamer at Calais Thursday with a guitar and a kit bag but was halted by customs agents who asked how much money he had and wasn't his hair a bit long on the sides.

When he could only show $25.48, the customs agents ordered him back aboard the ferry and sent him back to England.

Earlier this week French officials announced they would turn away tourists whose "untidy appearance, shaggy hair and general grubbiness present an undesirable spectacle."

Woman Arrested On Check Charge

Fern C. Liggatt, 19, of "all points," was arrested at a San Francisco motel yesterday on a warrant from San Rafael charging she had used worthless checks, signing another person's name to them.

According to police, four checks, the largest $200, were passed at San Rafael stores on Miss Liggatt's account at the Crocker-Citizens National Bank, but all were signed with the name Karen Lee Gilmore.

Drunken Driving Jail, Fine Set

David Edward Miller, 45, of 2 Crestview Drive, San Rafael, was sentenced to 20 days in county jail, fined $276, and placed on a year's probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving with a prior conviction.

He was arrested Dec. 26 on Lincoln Avenue by San Rafael police.

Mrs. May Crick Otis, 40, of 1457 Pastel Lane, Novato, was fined $166 and placed on 18 months probation for drunken driving. She was arrested March 11 on Highway 101 by California Highway Patrol.

Skinny Burglar Hits San Rafael Market

A burglar squeezed through a nine-by-16-inch hole at the rear of the Sun Valley Market, 2202 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, and took about $95 worth of liquor, cash and cigarettes, police discovered today.

Police said a wood panel covering a section of window which also contained an exhaust fan was removed to gain entry. The thief left by removing a hasp used to lock a rear door. Missing was a $1 bill, $20 in change, a case of bourbon, two cases of beer, four pints of rum and several cartons of cigarettes.

Driver Fined $56

Katherine Ruth Savoy, 21, of 221 Union Street, San Rafael, has been fined $56 and placed on a year's probation in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. She was arrested March 17 on Center Boulevard by San Anselmo police.

UNREST

two black limousines with two Americans in each and smashed them with rocks from point-blank range before the cars sped away to safety.

U.S. military police, warned that they were a special target of the increasingly anti-American Buddhists, stayed on the fringes of the mob to try to extricate trapped Americans. They had orders to run over the demonstrators if necessary to escape falling into their hands.

The battle erupted shortly after senior army officers of the 1st Corps at Da Nang denounced Premier Nguyen Cao Ky and Ky's air force sent two fighter planes swooping menacingly over their headquarters in a show of force.

The development further heightened the confrontation in the northern city between rebel army troops and loyalist forces still facing each other over barbed wire barricades.

The rioting became so feverish that anybody caught alone was in danger of becoming a victim. One Vietnamese even was jerked from his bicycle and pummeled and newsmen became targets for the first time.

UPI correspondent Martin Stuart-Fox watched as the frenzied students attacked the two Amercian vehicles and then turned over a Vietnamese national police jeep after sending its two occupants fleeing.

"The mob ran after them, but they escaped," Stuart-Foxsaid.

Only minutes before the outbreak in Saigon, U.S. MPs ordered an American office complex near the riot area evacuated and directed the workers to return to their billets.

Officials said intelligence reports indicated that a strong Communist element had entered the demonstrators and they were looking for Americans to attack. All Americans were ordered off the streets except the MPs who stayed on the fringes of the mob.

Their radio network crackled out the warning:

"All points, we have received information that the purpose of the demonstration will be to attack American personnel, especially military police.

"If you are in a static position and demonstrators approach location, fall back. If you are overrun, turn on red light and siren and drive over demonstrators."

The youths pulled plastic bags over their heads to ward off effects of the gas and stood their ground hurling rocks at the paratroopers. Trucks with 50-caliber machine guns moved into the area but were not used.

One American television cameraman was kicked by several demonstrators but not seriously hurt. For the second time in two days the rampaging youths attacked a United Press International photo car. About 50 youths surrounded the car and began trying to tip it over but a Buddhist monk appeared and urged them to leave it alone because it belonged to a news agency.

"You had better leave now," the monk told UPI photographer Dirck Halstead.

U.S. officials have tried to stay out of the political crisis, but the confrontation at Da Nang was so tense they decided to intervene to prevent a possible open clash between opposing Vietnamese military forces.

A U.S. helicopter was sent to the 1st Corps headquarters and settled directly in the paths of the low flying fighter planes.

The 1st Corps area includes the frontier with the Communist North and the officers' defection was a severe blow to Ky.

They signed a proclamation saying they had lost faith in the Ky government and charged it was "not interest in the welfare of the people."

Judge Smith scheduled plea entry for the adults for 1:30 p.m. next Friday.

Present in the courtroom besides several relatives of the defendants were Perry Howell, Congress of Racial Equality employment committee chairman in Marin City, and Walter Bremond, director of Marin County Community Relations Service. Richard H. Breiner, court-appointed attorney, was also present to represent Ames.

Ames was arrested Monday night. The others, charged Wednesday, surrendered voluntarily at the sheriff's office where they were booked yesterday just prior to the arraignment.

Three Youths Hear Charges On Marijuana

Three youths, arrested early yesterday on a tip from Petaluma officers, were arraigned in Marin Municipal Court today on a charge of possession of narcotics and marijuana.

Judge Peter Allen Smith scheded plea entries for 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Charged with possession of methadone hydrochloride and atropine sulfate, and possession of marijuana are Dennis Allen Thomas, 20, of 322 D Street, San Rafael; Michael Raymond Tauer, 18, of 53 Meadow Drive, Alto; and Marc Torvend Ford, 19, of no known address.

Ford and Thomas remained in county jail today in lieu of $1,500 bail each. Tauer was in jail in lieu of $825 bail.

Sheriff's officers said the trio was halted in a car on Highway 101 after Petaluma police said they were seen with a hypodermic needle.

Ford faces other felony charges of attempted grand theft, receiving stolen property, and using stolen credit cards to obtain automobile tires. Thomas was charged with statutory rape, but no information was filed in Marin Superior Court and the case was dismissed, rather than pending as was reported yesterday in the Independent-Journal.

Tauer recently served a 60-day county jail sentence for burglary in Marin County. He is on three years probation.

forcements into the area following a recent sweep by U.S. Marines.

One American plane was lost when a prop-driven Air Force Skyraider developed mechanical trouble and fell into Da Nang Harbor after the pilot bailed out. The spokesmen said the flyer suffered minor injuries but was rescued by a helicopter.

Other ground action was light. But the spokesmen said a company of the 101st smashed into a heavily fortified Viet Cong position near the coastal city of Tuy Hoa, about 240 miles from Saigon.

About 120 residents of nearby flats and apartments were ordered into the fog-chilled streets as the intense heat from the blaze blew windows out and started roofs smouldering.

The fire was brought under control after an hour and a half by 175 men and 45 pieces of equipment.

It gutted the Savage Co. building, and a three-story building containing the Majestic Furniture Co., the Bloom Clothing Co. and medical and dental offices. The apartment building and flats on two streets bordering the Mission Street block were damaged.

Wolfback Ridge Area Lot Sizes Clarified

Two acres of land on Wolfback Ridge above Highway 101 near the southern edge of the City of Sausalito are already zoned by the county at 20,000 square feet for single-family residences. Sausalito city planning commissioners Wednesday night, discussing "prezoning" changes on Sausalito's borders, proposed that present zoning be retained.

The Independent-Journal reported incorrectly in yestarday's edition that the planning commission proposed the two areas be rezoned at 6,000 square feet per unit. A public hearing on the subject will be held May 4.

Hit-Run Driver Kills A Sailor

OAKLAND (AP) — Steven Wernsman, 23, a sailor stationed at Treasure Island, was killed early today on the Nimitz Freeway by a hit-and-run driver.

He was en route from his Castro Valley home when his car stalled. He got out to look at the engine and was hit by a passing car.

He is survived by his widow, Paula.

English Teacher Given Leave On Fellowship

Albert Lavin, 11 Redwood Drive, Ross, supervisor of English for Tamalpais High School District, will leave the district for a year to teach at University of California at Berkeley on a James Lynch fellowship.

He is one of two Northern California high school teachers to receive the fellowship this year.

Before starting the teaching assignment in the fall, Lavin will attend the International Conference of Teachers of English at Dartmouth College, Hanover, N.H.

Only two other high school teachers are among the 48 American and British scholars invited to the conference, assigned the task of designing a new format the teaching of English in public schools.

Churches Plan Job Campaign

Episcopal churches in Marin will launch a campaign this weekend to drum up jobs for the unemployed in Marin City.

Rev. John D. Riley, dean of the Episcopal Church in Marin, has sent letters to the clergy of 13 Episcopal parishes.

"Will you please survey your own parish and ask those who have responsible positions in hiring to consider the needs of Marin City," Dean Riley wrote. "Miss Marjorie Ward of Marin County Employment Office will be working on Monday with a parishioner of St. Paul's, San Rafael, in advising us on specific skills. The list will be made available Easter Week.

"Perhaps the meaning of Easter itself can be realized when some of us can begin to lift the hopes of others and to give new life to a group of neighbors. A job could well be the beginning of Easter."

Sailboat Sinks, But Two Safe

Two Marin men swam 300 yards to shore yesterday after their 18-foot sailboat was swamped by a swell off Sausalito. The boat sank in 21 feet of water.

The two were John Ravizza, 22, of 224 Ricardo Road, Strawberry, and Robert G. Anderson, 22, of 205 Valley Street, Sausalito. They were sailing in a boat owned by Ravizza's brother, Edward, of 17 Barn Road, Strawberry.

The Coast Guard received a call from the Spinnaker Restaurant in Sausalito at 12:59 p.m. that the boat was sinking, and sent a cutter and helicopter, but by the time they arrived the men had reached shore. Ravizza went aboard the boat to make a report.

Sleepy Hollow Pool Hours Set

Sleepy Hollow's community swimming pool will be open weekends, starting with the three-day Memorial Day weekend, directors of the Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn. decided last night.

During summer vacation, the pool will be open daily until 6 p.m., and when school starts in the fall, the pool will be open weekends only again until October.

The board reiterated its offer of a $50 reward for information leading to conviction of vandals in the area. It also announced plans for a brunch at the clubhouse from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on May 1.

Soviets Given Jet Pilots' Bodies

BERLIN (AP) — A British army honor guard commanded by the highest-ranking British officer in Berlin delivered to the Russians Monday the bodies of two Soviet fliers who crashed in a West Berlin river.

The bodies were handed over after hours of wrangling between the two allies of World War II over what a British spokesman called arrangements, including who was to take part.

The plane, a twin-engine jet, crashed in the Havel River in the British sector Wednesday.

Brig. Alan Taylor, commander of the British brigade in Berlin, turned over the bodies to a Soviet general and an honor guard.

EDWARD L. HANCHETT

OBITUARIES

Edward L. Hanchett Dies At 53

Edward L. Hanchett, 53, longtime science teacher in Marin County public schools, died of a heart attack yesterday at his home in Mill Valley.

Tamalpais firemen administered resuscitation and closed chest heart massage at his home at 411 Spruce Street after being called at 11:42 a.m. However, he was dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital at 12:15 p.m. The coroner's office reported that he died of "apparent natural causes, a heart attack."

Hanchett, a teacher at San Jose Junior High School in the Novato Unified School District, some years ago was the subject of a long controversary over alleged Communist affiliations.

Hanchett entered school teaching in 1935 but left in 1950 in the uproar over the Levering Act, which required teachers to take an oath they were not and had not been for six years preceding members of any organizations advocating overthrow of the United States government. He refused to sign the oath.

He worked the next seven years as a carpenter, but in 1957, signing the loyalty oath. He was employed in the Dixie School District to teach at Mary E. Silveira School.

His past immediately caught up with him. He was summoned to appear before a House Un-American Activities Committee hearing in San Francisco, and refused to answer the committee's question as to Communist affiliation prior to 1951. He contended that answering might damage other persons he felt to be innocent.

The Dixie School District Board as a result voted on Oct. 22, 1957, to terminate his employment. Hanchett appealed, and received support from more than 400 parents in the district.

The board then placed him in charge of a special science project, ruling he should not be allowed to do classroom teaching. The project won wide notice in educational circles.

At the end of the school year, however, the Dixie board did not re-employ Hanchett for the next year, although Supt. Dennie B. Willis described him as "one of the ablest teachers I know in the field of science."

Meanwhile, the Dixie District had filed court action against Hanchett as result of his appeal of his dismissal. The case was dropped after Hanchett in the summer of 1958 was employed to teach in the San Jose School District (now part of the Novato Unified School District). He remained a teacher at San Jose Junior High School until his death, being given tenure in 1961.

Hanchett was a native of California, born in Saratoga, and had lived in Marin County for 14 years. He was graduated from San Francisco State College in 1935 with a bachelor of arts degree in education. He taught in San Francisco area schools from 1935 to 1950.

He is survived by his wife, Pearl Hanchett, a teacher at Loma Verde School also in the Novato district; a daughter, Mrs. Suzanne Regelson, now in India on a fellowship; a son, Marc Hanchett of Mill Valley; his parents, Mrs. Sibyl Schneller of Mill Valley and L. J. Hanchett of Washington; and two sisters, Barbara Chandler and Hilda Fourman of Mill Valley.

Funeral will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the memorial chapel of Russell and Gooch, 270 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley. Burial will be private.

L.A. WILKINSON

Lee A. Wilkinson of Petaluma, father of Robert Wilkinson of Novato, died yesterday at a Petaluma hospital after a long illness. He was 47.

Wilkinson lived in Petaluma about a year and was a member of the Carpenters Union in Petaluma. A native of Oklahoma, he came to California in 1942.

He is survived by his wife, Betty Winkinson, Petaluma; his son; two stepsons, Robbin Reedy and Ronald Reedy of Petaluma; two daughters, Mrs. Rosie Reid and Mrs. Janice Reid of Petaluma; three brothers, Everett Wilkinson of Hayward, Delbert Wilkinson of Lathrop and Richard Wilkinson of Denver, Colo.; a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Morse of Hayward, and five grandchildren.

Funeral will be held at 1 p.m. Monday at Pratt-Flierl Mortuary, 1044 C Street, Hayward. Burial will be in Lone Tree Cemetery, Hayward.

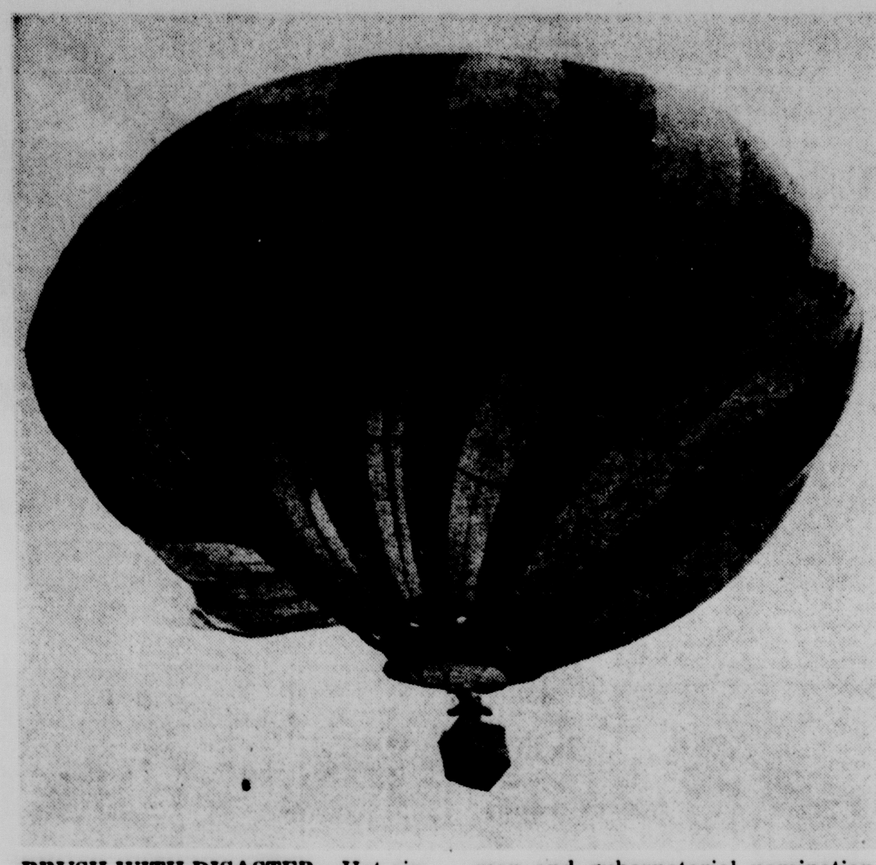
CRASH AFTERMATH—Balloonist William, 38, of Concord, is consoled by his wife Darlene, in Livermore Veterans Hospital today after suffering a broken vertebra when his hot-air craft ripped after rising about 250 feet on a record-seeking flight yesterday. (UPI Telephoto)



BRUSH WITH DISASTER—Hot air rushing from its torn sides, the 50-foot balloon bearing record-seeker William R. Berry begins to collapse yesterday near Livermore. Berry, now sponsored by Tiburon businessman and gubernatorial nomination candidate William Penn Patrick, had another hair-raising adventure two years ago, when his balloon's mooring rope dragged a Marin County youngster 3,000 feet into the sky. Dispute Over State Budget A Puzzle For Average Man

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Behind the legislature's money fight is a complicated argument over accounting principles that baffles the average man who sometimes has trouble figuring out his checkbook.

Republican and Democratic legislators are recessed for the weekend, home explaining the complex issues to their constituents. They'll be back Monday for a renewed attempt to pass Democratic Gov. Brown's $4.62 billion budget.

At the heart of the dispute is Brown's plan to avoid raising taxes in an election year, but to still show a paper gain of $243 million in the state's books next year.

But almost as important is another administration budget-balancing plan—borrowing money by floating new bond issues to pay for state construction.

First, let's take the plan to avoid a tax increase.

While it may puzzle the average man, accountants familiarly know it as the accrual system.

In its most simple terms, it means the state will take a new look at the way it enters tax receipts on the books.

Many of the tax receipts, including money from the cigarette tax and other big money makers, arrive in the state treasury after the June 30 end of the fiscal year—even though they were earned earlier.

Now, the state can't budget this money in its spending program. Under the accrual system, the money could be counted before it arrives. That's how a businessman does it—figuring unpaid bills as assets.

The state already figures its spending but not its income, on this basis, setting aside money to pay bills even if they don't arrive until after the fiscal year ends.

Assembly Minority Leader Robert T. Monagan, R - Tracy, told newsmen yesterday "we never said we were opposed to accrual."

He said the GOP just doesn't like the administration's method of doing it.

The Assembly Republicans are refusing to vote for the budget, in part, because the administration wants to exempt some $325 million in bank and corporation taxes from the system.

Unlike most state revenues, these bank and corporation taxes are paid a year in advance. Thus they can't be counted as expected revenue. They're already in the treasury.

Republicans say that if you're counting expected revenues from previously levied taxes as a plus in your books, you have to count taxes paid a year in advance as a minus.

But that minus would throw the governor's plan to avoid taxes out of balance.

"The state would sit here with $325 million for a full year that we can't use," said Roy Bell assistant director of finance.

Why doesn't the administration just change the method of collecting the bank and corporations tax, so that it's figured like everything else?

"Because the law is so constitutionally complex, that we couldn't draft the changes in this short budget session," said Bell.

Instead, the administration wants a simple legal change that, in effect, exempts the bank and corporations tax from the accrual system. It already has passed the Senate and will be heard Monday by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee.

The bonds are another complicating factor.

Including the 5.3 million square miles in Antarctica, there are about 57 million square miles of land on earth.

Bay Balloonist Survives 250-Foot Plunge After Hot Air Bag Tears

LIVERMORE (UPI) — An attempt by Concord balloonist William R. Berry, 38, to break the world altitude record ended in quick disaster yesterday when his hot air balloon ruptured at 250 feet.

The balloon plummeted him back to earth 400 yards from the takoff point, breaking Berry's back. He was reported in satisfactory condition today at Veterans Hospital at Livermore.

The current record is held by Don Piccard, who reached 15,600 feet in Southern California. Berry hoped for 25,000 feet.

Yesterday's flight was plagued with problems. High winds delayed the liftoff of the 79-foot balloon for two hours.

After the balloon, called City of San Francisco, split open and slammed to the ground, the fully conscious Berry told rescuers that he had gone up too fast so that the pressure from the hot air which powered the City of San Francisco burst its silk skin.

Berry, owner of a microfilm company, once described his hobby as "98 per cent fun and 2 per cent terror. He was the pilot of a balloon which soared from a field at Tennessee Valley, Marin County, in April, 1964, with Danny Nowell, 11, clinging to a rope dangling beneath it 3,000 feet above the ground.

Berry discovered the boy's plight and landed hurriedly. The boy escaped with minor injuries.

Four months later, Berry won a balloon race in which a competitor struck a power line and was killed. In December, 1964, Berry was piloting a World War II, P-51 Mustang fighter plane to Las Vegas when the landing gear failed to descend. Berry managed to knock it free in time for a safe landing.

KILLER'S ODYSSEY

Old Soldier Lives 44 Years Under Cloud

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — The fellows at an old soldiers' home in a Washington, D.C., regarded Harry Walker as a nice, quiet guy who was a crackerjack pinochle player.

There was nothing about Walker to suggest an agonizing past.

They knew he had served two hitches in the Army and occasionally he mentioned living in St. Louis where he worked as a trolley conductor.

On Oct. 22, 1964, while he was playing pinochle, Walker was tapped on the shoulder by detectives in the home's recreation room.

Then the truth came out. The soft-spoken card-player was, in fact, a fugitive from a four-decade-old murder rap. His nightmare revisited ended yesterday when he walked out of prison, his debt to society paid in full.

His name wasn't Harry Walker. Actually he was Leroy Dunlap, a fugitive for 44 years. He was wanted for the murder of Steven Bossos, a restaurant owner in Akron, Ohio. The slaying occurred in January, 1920.

Dunlap escaped from the Summit County Jail in Akron in 1920 while his first-degree murder trial was in progress.

The trial went on without him and he was convicted of murder without mercy. The sentence carried a death penalty.

After he escaped, Dunlap went to Rochester, N.Y., where he worked in a restaurant.

Then he enlisted in the Army, using the name Harry Walker, and served five years.

He worked as a trolley conductor between the two wars. He met a girl in St. Louis, fell in love and they were married. They had a son.

He re-enlisted in the Army in 1942, then switched to the Air Force and retired in 1958. He took up residence in the old soldiers' home.

For years, Leroy Dunlap was only a memory.

Then Denver police, cleaning out their files ran across a wanted message on Dunlap.

They contacted Akron police and learned he was still at liberty. Military fingerprint files showed Dunlap's prints matched those of Harry Walker.

Now 64, Dunlap was granted a new trial by Judge Stephen Colopy who accepted a guilty plea to first-degree manslaughter.

He plans to make his home with his son in Missouri.

IVY LEAGUE DATING

Coeds Return Barbs With New Booklet

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (UPI) —Beware, you Ivy Leaguers, the coeds of Smith and Mount Holyoke have struck back.

The gals—with a big assist from two sympathetic Amherst men—have come out with a 32-page booklet warning coeds what's in store for them when they date Ivy League men.

The booklet, titled "Where the Boys Are," is the barbed coed answer to the infamous Princeton woman's college guide published six months ago and titled, "Where the Girls Are."

Typical comments in the Princeton guide book to successful dating included:

"Always keep in mind that a Smithie is looking at you not only as her date but also as the man who may some day be footing the bills to send her daughter to Smith."

And of Mount Holyoke it said:

"The great hang-up for Holyoke girls is they all want to be Smithies."

The gals' version, which went on sale yesterday for $1 a copy, notes it was "compiled by the editors of the Smith College Sophian and the Mount Holyoke News," the student newspapers at the two very-very Massachusetts schools.

However, it was really the two Amherst students, J. Aaron Latham of Phoenix, Ariz., and Thomas G. Plate of Farmingdale, N.Y., who put it together after interviewing the gals for inside story on what big-time dating is really like.

The booklet contains such poison-pen portraits as:

The Princeton man: "Princeton is the only place in the world where when a boy and his date walk past a mirror, it's the boy who stops to comb his hair. Your date will spend the whole weekend worrying whether you might possibly look better than he does."

The Yale man: "When he looks deep into your eyes he'll be wondering what you'll look like as the wife of a corporation climber."

The Dartmouth man: "Take No-Doz along with you because if you ever get tired of dancing and sit down, it's all over."

Hitting a few non-Ivy League bases, the comments continue:

Wesleyan: "Take saltines because they never feed you."

Rutgers: "Don't talk about money; they don't have any."

Annapolis: "Before you've left you'll know what the poster has always known: Uncle Sam wants you."

In all, "Where the Boys Are" puts the heat on the men at 20 Eastern colleges and includes a Greek dictionary rating on fraternities, where to stay on a weekend, what to pack, alleys to avoid, and advice about the baited hook—disguised seduction ploys.

More Benefits To Be Asked By President

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson said today he will ask Congress next year to increase all Social Security benefits and to consider extending some medicare-type benefits to the very young.

Johnson, who flew here from his ranch home to sign a bill extending the signup period for the voluntary part of medicare for the elderly, made his announcement in a speech at the outdoor ceremony.

DENTAL SERVICE

Besides pledging to seek across-the-board boosts in Social Security payments to 21 million Americans, Johnson disclosed that Secretary of Welfare John W. Gardner has been ordered "to create plans for a new program to assist in financing dental service for young children."

Asserting that "medicare need not be just be for people over 65," the President said the dental aid would be for children under the age of 6.

White House sources said no decision had been made on whether the dental program would benefit all children or just those from low-income families.

EASTER HOLIDAY

The President, Mrs. Johnson and their two daughters, Lynda and Luci, are spending the Easter holiday at their ranch home 60 miles north of San Antonio.

The medicare legislation extends until May 31 the deadline for citizens 65 and older to sign up for voluntary $3-a-month insurance covering most doctor bills and some other medical expenses. About a million people failed to sign for the insurance before the original March 31 deadline.

Truck Hijackers Get $10,000 In Daylight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A truck driver hijacked of $10,000 worth of new women's clothing, was found bound and gagged today alongside Bayshore Freeway, near Candlestick Park.

In shock, driver Louis Corsiglia told Brisbane police that he was seized by five Negro men yesterday afternoon at Fifth and Jessie streets in San Francisco.

The 45-year-old San Francisco driver said his captors used tape to bind him, covered his eyes, then drove his truck behind brush fringing the freeway. They emptied his truck and drove away in an old car.

They left him in the brush and still tied. He crawled to the freeway, guided by the sound of passing vehicles. His eyes still were taped when highway patrolmen found him.

Corsiglia, for 14 years a driver for the A. & B. Garment Delivery Co., was on a regular pickup run collecting garments from manufacturers for delivery to retail houses.

Gil Gouveia, operations manager and superintendent of the delivery firm, said he had feared hijacking when the driver vanished. He recalled that four other truck hijackings of merchandise had occurred in the Los Angeles area in recent months.

Corsiglia's wrists were lacerated by the cord and his hands were swollen.

He told police two hijackers used pistols when they forced him into the back of his truck. One hijacker took the wheel while the others tied him up.

Federal Jobs Sought For Prisoners

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Service Commission urged today federal agencies to provide temporary employment to inmates of federal prisons participating in the Bureau of Prison's new work program.

"In view of President Johnson's call to "intensify our crime prevention and crime fighting at all levels of government," the commission said, "agencies are urged to cooperate with personnel of the federal Bureau of Prisons in meeting the objectives of the program."

The work - release program was authorized under the 1965 Prisoner Rehabilitation Act. Under it, selected inmates of federal penal and correctional institutions who are nearing the end of their sentences are permitted to take work furloughs.

Alameda Assessor's Trial Nearing End

OAKLAND (AP)—The bribery trial of Alameda County assessor Donald E. Feragen, now in its ninth week, will go to the jury Wednesday morning, Superior Court Judge Redmond C. Staats said today.

Feragen is charged with receiving approximately $14,000 from 1960 to 1965 from tax consultant James C. Tooke for giving assessment allowances to Tooke's industrial clients in Alameda County.

Firehouse Change Now Ruled Out

The Tiburon Fire Commission last night decided that, although it wants a new fire house, it will "leave things as they are for now."

The commission decided there is now no feasible site for a firehouse to replace the main one on Tiburon Boulevard, which is flooded occasionally during the winter, according to James P. Jenkins, secretary. He said the commission "hopes the city of Tiburon comes up with something" to solve the impasse.

The Tiburon Fire Commission also:

1. Appointed a committee of Fire Chief Frank J. Buscher, Kelly J. Wheeler and Jenkins to study wages for the upcoming budget. It decided that the eight paid men will get eight paid holidays next year. They now get none.

2. Deferred for further study a request by Fred G. Zelinsky that the department buy an auxiliary water pump for the main street area. The commission has thought that a larger water main is needed instead, Jenkins said.

Sunken Bomb Almost Traps Recovery Sub In Chute

PALOMARES BEACH, Spain (AP)—The commander of a U.S. task force disclosed today disaster almost overtook attempts to recover an H-bomb from the depths of the Mediterranean.

Missing since the crash of a nuclear bomber last Jan. 17, the one - megaton bomb was hauled up from 2,850 feet yesterday.

Silvery in color and about 10 feet long by 3 feet thick, the bomb rested on the deck of the recovery ship, the submarine rescue vessel Petrel. Reporters aboard the task force flagship, the cruise Albany, could see it from about 65 feet away.

Rear. Adm. William S. Guest, commander of the task force of about 3,000 men that recovered the H-bomb, told newsmen the CURV — an unmanned torpedo recovery vehicle — was the equipment used finally to tie up the bomb for delivery to the surface.

He disclosed that the effort almost ended in disaster on Wednesday when the CURV became entangled in the nuclear weapon's parachute.

It took two hours of maneuvering by the CURV controller on the deck of its mothership before the vehicle was freed.

Guest estimated the bombs weight at about eight tons. It appeared undamaged except for some dents at one end.

Guest said it would be returned to the United States immediately.

Base Quarters Work Starts

Work started this week on a new $316,600 bachelor officers quarters at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The contract was awarded jointly to De Narde Construction Co. and Martinelli Construction Co., both of San Francisco.

The new quarters will be adjacent to the main base family housing area. It will have 32 studio type rooms with kitchenettes, and eight two-room units with sharing kitchenettes. Completion is scheduled for December.

Sedan Stolen

Adolph T. Brill of San Francisco reported to Mill Valley police yesterday at 2:10 p.m. that his 1965 beige Volkswagen sedan was stolen while parked behind the Fleur de Lys Salon de Coiffure, 310 Miller Avenue.

OVERLOOKING GOOD FRIDAY CEREMONIES

This solid oak sculpture of Christ's body on the cross, displayed at the Holy Innocents' Episcopal Parish in Corte Madera, was added to the church two months ago. The image of Christ was a gift to the parish from a soldier, who brought it from Germany. Rev. Tod W. Ewald had the cross specially built. The inscription for the armless figure was written by Rev. Ewald after he viewed the figure of Christ without legs at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

POLITICAL BRIEFS

Reagan Headquarters Due To Open Monday

Ronald Reagan for Govenror headquarters will open Monday at 1417 Fourth Street in San Rafael, Marin chairman Paul Haerle announced today.

The headquarters staff will be headed by Mrs. Paul McCart of San Rafael. The office will be open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Literature, buttons and bumper strips will be available from Monday.

GOP PANEL

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, is chairman of the California Republican League's panel discussion on state issues, which will be held next Wednesday afternoon at Sir Francis Drake Hotel, San Francisco.

The discussions will be a preliminary to an endorsing convention on April 15 to 17.

Other Marinites who will participate are William Exline, who will preside at one of the panels, and George Collins of Ross, president of Conservation Associates, who will be one of the speakers.

CRA OFFICIAL

Mrs. Elizabeth Rowen of San Rafael was elected to two state posts at the California Republican Assembly convention in San Jose last weekend.

She was named CRA's First Congressional District director, and also assistant secretary of the statewide CRA organization.

"Within the next week, I'll have to decide which post to keep because I can't do justice to both," said Mrs. Rowen.

FOR WILLIAMS

Spencer Williams of San Jose, woh seeks the Republican nomination for state attorney general, today announced the appointment of E. Warren McGuire as his chairman for Marin County.

McGuire, an attorney, lives in Kentfield. He is former county counsel of Marin.

Sausalito Home Looting Reported

Loss of $400 worth of jewelry and other items in burglary of the home of Gordon C. Lau, 1 Ebbtide Avenue, Sausalito, was reported yesterday by sheriff's officers.

Lau told deputies the jewlery, clothing and a 12-gauge shotgun were taken during the past two weeks. No forced entry was evident.

Donald William Maltzahn, 330 Vista Grande, Greenbrae, told officers periodic intruders have taken small change from his home over the past 12 months. Means of entry was not learned.

Cat Group Will Install

Henry Siefer of San Anselmo will take office as president of the Marin County Cat Fanciers at the annual installation dinner at 7:30 p.m. today in Gregory's Restaurant, Corte Madera.

Outgoing president R. D. Layman of Corte Madera will present a check, representing profits from the group's February cat show, to Mel L. Morse, executive director of the Marin County Humane Society. The 14th annual show, held in Sausalito, was a benefit for the Humane Society's development fund.

Other officers to be installed are T. W. Carrithers, Walnut Creek, vice president; Layman, secretary, and Mrs. Arne Klonig, Kentfield, treasurer. To be seated as directors are Robert Cawley, San Rafael; Ray Price, Fairfax; Mrs. Paul DeMoss, Mill Valley; Miss Adrianne Miller, San Rafael, and Mrs. Spencer Smiley, San Rafael.

Neighborhood Hunts Try To Replace Novato Eggfest

Although Novato's traditional city-wide Easter egg hunt was canceled this year by the volunteer firemen, several neighborhood Easter egg hunts are scheduled for the city.

The volunteer firemen, who have held a city-wide event for more than 30 years, canceled this year for a lack of a suitable field.

Loma Verde Homeowners Assn. has scheduled a hunt for 10 a.m. tomorrow in the baseball field at the Loma Verde School. There will be areas for three age groups: toddlers up to four years, four to seven, and seven to 10 years. Prizes will be given for special eggs.

Pleasant Valley Homeowners Assn. will have an egg hunt also at 10 a.m. at the end of Center Road, according to Donald McGillis, chairman. There will be two age groups, three to six and seven to 10 years old. Prizes will be given for special eggs.

San Marin Homeowners Assn. has an egg hunt scheduled for 2 p.m. on the north end of San Mateo Drive. The hunt is for smaller children in San Marin, with prizes for those finding plastic eggs. Boy Scout Troop 81 is helping with coloring and hiding the eggs.

Highway Patrol Job Deadline April 15

Applications for jobs as California highway patrolmen must be filed by April 15, at midnight, according to Capt. Theodore F. Parnow, commander for the Marin area. The civil service examination for the post will be held May 14.

Applicants must be between 21 and 31 years old, high school graduates in good health and between 5 feet, 9 inches and 6 feet, 6 inches tall. Application forms are available at the highway patrol office at 6120 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera.

Group To Sponsor Half-Century Fete

Directors of the Village Square Assn. of Corte Madera yesterday agreed to spend $500 to sponsor the opening of the three-day celebration of Corte Madera's 50th anniversary June 10, 11 and 12.

The money will go to decorate the Village Square area and provide a barber shop quartet and a band for street dancing in the square Friday night, June 10.

Busy Time For Restaurants; Pandora's Decor Luxurious

One of the two busiest days of the year for restaurants is the day after tomorrow - Easter.

I've had assurances from a number that they will be open, and most of them earlier than usual - Peter Alioto's Arbordale in Sausalito at 1 p.m., MacArthur's in San Anselmo, open at 2 and serving from 2:45; Rubini's in Fairfax; Bill and Adolph's West End Villa, San Rafael; Franchini's Chateau and on down the line. The fact is, just about any restaurant that's open regularly on Sunday won't miss this one. Some are serving special menus.

Whatever place you choose, I'd strongly recommend that you phone for a reservation. Easter could be a record day this year.

Red velvet in the drapes and the same texture in the red and gold wallpaper. Crystal chandeliers.

One view window in the lounge would be an interesting picture of downtown San Anselmo and the Ross Valley if the parapet on the building below could be removed. Along with this, some sort of decorative finish to the roof (used for parking cars) would enhance the foreground and remove its drabness. Owners John Napoli, Ron Mettam and Pierre Bitterer are hoping to have this accomplished.

The sight of a chef in a black hat is still an oddity to most people. Actually it's a mark of identification for a group of international chefs known as La Societe des Amis d'Escoffier, which has set high professional standards for its members. The latter are so few (about 30 in the world) that you may run across only one of them in your entire lifetime.

Chef Pierre Bitterer at Pandora wears his black chapeau with distinction and if there is any doubt as to its connotations —one sample of his fare is the most convincing test. I like his way of seasoning, which is ever so subtle. And prior to tasting his crepes au four last Friday night I had thought there was only one man whose crepes could make me sit up and take notice. (If this doesn't bring Eugene Lackenbach back from Las Vegas out of sheer curiousity, I don't know what will.).

I can also recommend Pierre's tournedos Henry IV — and not just because it's the most expensive entree on the menu. That's where it belongs—at the head of the list.

Yes—"dinner on the hill" can be a rewarding experience — even if you go overboard. If the resultant chit seems to bear some relation to Pandora's 30-foot or more elevation above Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, by and large — item for item, prices are about on a par with those of other haut dineries offering mainly service a la carte. No more, no less. And I have to admit there's a warmth to Pandora under the new owners that some of the others lack. Special complete dinners can now be ordered — starting at $6.50.

Easter Sunday, dinners will be served commencing at 3 p.m. But call for a reservation.

THE TIBURON Champagne Dinner Cruise will launch its fourth season of weekly excursions from San Francisco on the last Thursday of this month—that's the 28th. Round trip passage to Tiburon is aboard a Harbor Tours ferryboat.

The voyage to the Marin shore is accompanied by a shipboard champagne party and this year after debarking, passengers can enjoy a de luxe dinner at any one of five Tiburon restaurants: The new Windjammer, which is expected to be open by then, serving steaks and seafoods; Sam's, a perennial favorite of salty-dog yachtsmen and their families; the Dock, older sister of the Windjammer; Tiburon Tommie's Mai Tai with its Polynesian food and exotic drinks; and El Borro, specializing in fare from south of the border.

As before, price per person is $7.50. The cruise leaves Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco at 6:45 p.m., but Marinites can take the ferry from Tiburon to the city at about 6 p.m. and return with the crowd. For details, contact Champagne Dinner Co., 609 Strawberry Town and Country Village, Mill Valley.

I'VE MENTIONED the Tahoe Three-Day Pass a couple of times in this column, and this holiday package at South Shore has now set a cut-off date for the season on May 19. After that it won't be available again until October.

Rather than repeat all the details again, I'd suggest you make it a point to check the ad South Tahoe Tours usually runs in the I-J on Mondays.

SOMETIMES I find myself writing the same thing about a restaurant over and over again. This is because there is always someone new in the county who hasn't heard about it before. Take Deer Park Villa for instance . . .

This is one of the oldest restaurants in continuous operation in Marin and is known to every oldtimer between Raccoon Strait and Chileno Valley. Yet I'll wager many a Marin arrival, say in the last two years, has never eaten here—or in some cases doesn't know where it's located or where Bolinas Road is. I'll go a step farther and say that some new residents don't even know where Fairfax is.

I think in this case if the horse were led to water there would be no trouble getting him to drink — and eat. Just let him smell the aromas trickling out of Deer Park's kitchen and he won't be able to help himself. You were interested in Italian food? Well, here it is. Or if you like a steak, the meat is well aged. And Deer Park has a well-trimmed "petite New York steak" for dainty eaters.

Friday nights, crab cioppino is on the menu with other seafoods, and next week Doris Gurley will start playing Friday as well as Saturday, making it another "party night."

Deer Park can take some groups on week nights. But on Wednesday, the day of closing, you'll need a substantial number to justify an opening for business.

Easter dinners will start at 3 p.m. instead of 4 on Sunday. You'll enjoy it here—but make a reservation.

APRIL SPECIAL of the Gold Nugget on the San Rafael Miracle Mile is a free dinner for youngsters provided they bring along at least one adult apiece. The adult, of course, has to pay his own way.

ORGANIST AND PIANIST Vivian Mason, who's been in Southern California for quite a spell, is back in Marin and playing piano and singing six nights a week (Tuesdays through Sundays) at Sally Stanford's Valhalla in Sausalito. Vivian has a repertoire of old-time songs that goes well with Sally's gay 90s atmosphere.

IT'S A CUSTOM of many restaurants to observe the birthdays of their patrons with a lighted candle brought to the table to the strains of "Happy Birthday to You."

Now it occurs to me that not once have I seen or heard this ritual reversed. Restaurants do have birthdays, you know—and usually after the first one is celebrated the fanfare dies down.

This month La Petite Auberge in San Rafael is celebrating its seventh (last Sunday was the official day). So if it happens that you are an April visitor, and appreciate the value of this place as so many people tell me they do — you might do something different by flagging Al Stone and his accordion who have accompanied many a birthday chant — and turn the tables. Or if you want to be specific, ring in the name of Paul Devaux, who was the original principal in the restaurant. It's really his anniversary.

A lot of French wine (and California wine, too) has been poured in La Petite's glasses since those early days and its patrons have multiplied. The restaurant stopped serving lunches a few years ago, to the unhappiness of many, but the long schedule was too much for Paul, Pierre Grigaut and Roger Poli. La Petite is still available for lunch for groups if there are enough members attending to justify an opening (minimum of 40.)

I've noticed that over the years, the turnover rate in the staff has been low and that's a good recommendation. Familiar faces also make for a comfortable evening.

If you decide to have your Easter dinner here. I'll tell you right now — it's a good choice. But be warned that many others will feel the same way — and you'll need a reservation to get anywhere near a table.

The food? I wouldn't know what to do if I had to select a prize winner. Order anything — you can't go wrong.

EASTER BUNNIES AT FRANCHINI'S

Brian Franchini and Myra Scofield, helped by "Missy," new addition to the restaurant's menagerie, will see that youthful visitors receive their fair share of Easter eggs Sunday. Eventually Missy, who is soon to become a mother, will trundle youngsters in her pony cart around the Franchini grounds. (Independent-Journal photo)

High School Journalists To Hear Red China Visitor

Author-reporter Lisa Hobbs, who recently visited Red China, will be guest speaker at the fourth annual Tamalpais High School District journalism awards banquet on May 12.

The banquet, held to honor newspaper staffs of Tamalpais, Sir Francis Drake and Redwood High Schools, will be in San Francisco Theological Seminary's Alexander Hall in San Anselmo.

Mrs. Hobbs will give a "Red China Report."

As in the past, plaques will be presented for the best news story, feature, sports story and editorial published in the district's papers, and for the best newspaper in the district.

This year the Independent-Journal has added a sixth plaque, one for the best news bureau.

In addition to presentation of awards, each journalism adviser will announce next year's editors and staff members.

RINGSIDE SEATS FOR A BIG FIRE

School was out, so it was natural that San Geronimo children showed up in strength yesterday when a house started to burn at San Geronimo Valley and Creamery roads. The children found they were on hand for an especially good show, for the house was being burned under control by the Marin County Fire Department. The unoccupied home, owned by Irene Phillips, had partially burned in a $10,000 fire last December. It was left a hazard, and condemned when the owner refused to rebuild it. Commission Continues Lucas Green Proposal

Two controversial issues were continued by the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night, one after very little discussion and the other after long debate.

The proposed Lucas Green annexation to San Rafael was tabled soon after attorney Leland H. Jordan said that his clients were still trying to solve some problems.

The commission said the matter would be taken off table whenever the developers requested it. At issue is whether the commission will give the proposed annexation at the southwest corner of Lucas Valley Road and Highway 101 another hearing. The commission voted against the annexation at the first hearing in February.

Proposed detachment of 85 acres from the Muir Beach Community Services District was discussed at length before it was put over until May 5.

Commission executive officer John F. Barrows recommended against the detachment, saying the whole district should eventually be annexed to the Marin Municipal Water District. This proposal is already under study, Barrows said.

However, attorney John L. Rockwell, an officer of Miwok Corp., which has asked the detachment, said it will be some time before annexation to the municipal district can come to pass. In the meantime, directors of the CSD have said they cannot serve Miwok's proposed seascape subdivision with water.

Rockwell said the corporation formed a mutual company and has developed a water supply. An offer to turn this system over to the CSD at half the development cost was turned down by directors.

Jack H. Harris, a CSD director, told the commission the decision not to accept the mutual system came after tests of the mutual well showed it was inadequate to serve Seascape and the Muir Beach community, as claimed by Miwok.

Rockwell said the mutual system is being built to meet Marin Municipal Water District standards with the belief that annexation to the big district will eventually happen. Meanwhile, Miwok wants out of the CSD to avoid "taxation not only without representation but without service as well."

Commissioners urged that the corporation and the CSD board make further efforts at an agreement prior to the next commission meeting, May 5. At that meeting, the commission also hopes to have a report from representatives of Marin Municipal Water District on the future of Muir Beach water service.

Lawmaker Hits Train Cutbacks

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The nation's railroads are "deliberately scuttling their passenger service" and are "functioning in the spirit of the robber barons of the past," a state legislator has charged.

Assemblyman Tom Carrell, D-San Fernando, further charged that the railroads are maintaining a "public be damned attitude."

Carrell is chairman of the Assembly's Transportation Committee.

His remarks were read into the record yesterday during Public Utilities Commission hearings into Southern Pacific's request to discontinue service of the Los Angeles to San Francisco overnight passenger train, "The Lark."

Negotiators Set Plumber Strike Session

Negotiators for Plumbers Union Local 38 were scheduled to meet at noon today with negotiators for contractors associations from Marin and three other counties, in the first meeting of the union and associated contractors since the union contract expired last Friday.

Some contractors with whom the union has separate contracts were still being struck today, for the fifth day.

The union at first refused to negotiate with the contractors associations until the contractors began putting 50 cents an hour into escrow. But the union reported today it has dropped all pre-negotiation demands.

Ransom Grows In Kidnap Plot

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The kidnaper of Daniel Goldman could now collect $45,000 for the boy's safe return.

The youth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Goldman, say they have the $25,000 ransom money ready, friends have raised $15,000 and the Miami Herald has offered $5,000 for his safe return.

Goldman, 18, was kidnaped from his parents' home in the exclusive suburb of Surfside March 28.

Police say the kidnaper has failed to make contact with the family.

Two Of Three Annexations To San Anselmo Approved

Two of three proposed annexations to the City of San Anselmo were approved last night by the Locan Agency Formation Commission.

Denied, however, was the city's request to annex 24.3 acres along The Alameda in the Oak Crest area. Commissioners received a petition with 35 signatures opposing the annexation.

The same area was annexed last July, over the city's objections, to the Sleepy Hollow Fire District, which contracts with the city for fire protection. In addition to the petitions, the commission heard three residents of the area protest the annexation to the city. They urged that it would offer them no advantage.

No representative of the city was present.

Commissioners approved annexation of 11.7 acres of the Short Ranch west of San Francisco Boulevard along the city's northern boundary, and 2.5 acres of the Sorich Dairy land in the same vicinity.

They also approved annexation of 13 uninhabited acres along Alameda del Prado, east of Loma Verde, to the city of Novato. Vote was 4-0, with Commissioner J. Wayne Womack, a Novato city councilman, abstaining.

County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker was absent, so Supervisor Thomas T. Storer sat in as his alternate.

Work Shoes Missing

Two cases of brown workshoes, with 10 pairs to a case, bound for San Quentin Prison, were reported missing yesterday from a Pacific Motor Transport van parked at 35 Jordan Street, San Rafael, according to San Rafael police.

Video-Stereo Console Taken

A $1,000 television-stereo console was stolen last night from the home of Michael Farley, 240 Scenic Road, Fairfax, according to Fairfax police.

Farley discovered the burglary when he returned home at 1:30 a.m. today. The burglars apparently entered through an unlocked living room window between 8:30 p.m. and 1:30 a.m., police said.

Baby Is Victim Of Tug-Of-War

REDONDO BEACH (AP)—A nine and one-half month - old baby, the center of a dispute between her natural mother and her foster parents, is dead today and her foster parents are booked on suspicion of murder.

Police say Richard and Beverly Everhart of Redondo Beach, were arrested yesterday after a relative found them and little Susan Louise in the couple's car with the engine running.

The baby died, apparently of carbon monoxide poisoning, officers said.

Detectives said the Everharts apparently were depressed because the child was to have been returned to her natural mother today. They said Mrs. Everhart's niece found a note telling of a suicide plot.

Lights Taken

Corte Madera police last night discovered that vandals have stolen four lights and ripped out two plants from a planter box at Neil Cummins School. Someone also broke a small window of a door, they reported.

Easter Should Be A Time For Revival Of Compassion

This weekend, Marin will join the world in greeting Easter with sunrise services, pretty finery and Easter egg hunts for the youngsters.

Along with the gaiety of eager-eyed children scrambling to fill their baskets and of grownups parading their newest fashions will be a solemn reflection on the resurrection of Christ, and the Peace and Love for which He stands.

The need for Peace and Love strikes closer to home this year, as the list of casualties continues to mount in Southeast Asia.

Attempts by one group or nation to dominate the lives and will of others, men with no personal animosity toward other men killing and maiming each other and taking the lives of the innocent in the process — these are daily recorded in the nation's press, radio and television.

On the occasion of His resurrection, we hope that all mankind will re-dedicate itself to the task—hopeless as it sometimes may seem—of promoting love and brotherhood and ridding the world of hate and destruction.

The forces that determine the actions of nations may be beyond the control of one individual or a group of individuals meeting on a hillside in Marin County.

But each of us has it within his power to help ease the pain of a neighbor, aid the helpless and the needy, and to respect the rights and dignity of every other individual, regardless of color or creed.

Children, too, can be instilled with the spirit of love and consideration for all creatures, including feathered and furred pets they may receive for Easter.

Easter is a time of laughter and solemnity. While enjoying the pleasures of Easter, we can pray that the spirit of He who arose again will some day rule this world.

The Sweet Smell Of Success

We have heard much of the "sweet smell of success" lately. It's the name of a Broadway play, we believe. But in the more colloquial setting of Marin County, we wondered what it might be.

After a little consideration, we decided that to a Marinite the sweet smell of success might well be the fragrance of fruit blossoms from trees he had planted on his own real estate.

"We advocated them for Sausalito years ago—to keep out the San Francisco element."

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION

The nation's newsboys, numbering 700,000, deliver an estimated 50 million newspapers to people's homes every day.

Records show that the first newsboy was hired in 1833 in response to the following ad that appeared in the New York Sun:

"To the unemployed—a number of steady men can find employment by vending this paper. A liberal discount is allowed to those who buy to sell again."

Among the famous persons who learned initiative delivering newspapers were Presidents Hoover, Truman and Eisenhower. Others became business and labor figures, religious leaders, sports stars and entertainment personalities.

Help youth to learn early that they can begin now to use their God-given talents in a responsible manner.

By habits of thrift, industry and a desire to contribute to the benefit of others, they will start on the road to achievement.

(Hebrews 10:24)

Let me inspire young people, O Holy Spirit, cheerfully to take responsibilities.

San Quentin Relocation Survey Seems To Move Mighty Slowly

By WAT TAKESHITA

Takeshita

Processes of state government move slowly to be sure.

But sometimes the process comes to a dead standstill. We refer in particular to a study on the feasibility of relocating San Quentin Prison, which was requested by the state Legislature last year.

A sum of $10,000 was allocated for the study, and the office of architecture and construction in the Department of Finance was assigned to the job. That was last summer.

So on Feb. 1 this year, we go plodding in to Sacramento to get the report. Glen Brunson, construction analyst in the Department of Finance, said the report would be completed that week.

FOR TWO MONTHS now, the only things that have been forthcoming are further promises that the report would be ready "tomorrow," "this week" or "next week."

Sen. John F. McCarthy has asked for the report and so has the legislative analyst. But still no action. The only information we've been able to squeeze out is hearsay—to the effect that San Quentin land is worth five million dollars, and the cost of three new prisons to replace San Quentin would be somewhere between $40 and $60 million.

Seems to us that for a $10,000 allocation, they ought to be able to come up with something more specific than that, and in far quicker time.

PHIL DRATH, the longtime worker for peace and civil rights, now appears to be in serious contention for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

When he first launched his campaign, his primary interest seemed to be to get his message across. But now he's apparently out to beat Supervisor Tom Storer for the nomination and take on Congressman Don Clausen.

Drath says he's confident he can get widespread financial support, from organizations working for peace throughout the country.

STORER, on the other hand, can't count on outside financial backing. "If finances run out, I'll have to run on shoe leather," says a determined Storer.

Did you know that Drath was formerly a professional boxer and football player? He used to box at 165 pounds (middleweight) about 30 years ago. His weight today: 165 pounds. Apparently, the rigors of campaigning in the First District (Marin to Del Norte) really keep a man trim.

SEN. FRANK S. Petersen of Ukiah, who pulled out of the congressional race to seek a judgeship, has been appointed First Congressional District chairman of the Committee to Re-Elect Governor Brown.

MRS. LEE Sherry of Fairfax is chairman of the California Republican League endorsing convention, which will be held at Sir Francis Drake Hotel in San Francisco April 15-17.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

A Foster Parent Gives Other Side

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I would like to reply to Mrs. Gonzalez, Mrs. Parlette, and Mrs. Theiss and their letter in the I-J on April 2, regarding monetary remuneration to foster parents.

. . . An incomplete, and therefore inaccurate, picture of the foster care program in Marin has been presented . . . As a foster mother, I would like to add to the information presented in the letter . . .

What does the foster family, in contrast to an institution, have to offer? In addition to physical care and supervision, a home. A home and family, and all that it means: love, guidance, affection, and a sense of being wanted and of belonging. These things can only be given! They are not saleable items; they can not be bought . . . foster parents realize this before agreeing to assume that responsibility.

For the physical necessities that can be bought foster parents are granted amounts as determined by the child's age. . . . Total grants paid are: Infant through 6 years — $84 per month; 7 through 12 — $94; girl 13 through 17 — $105; boy 13 through 17 — $112.

. . . All medical and dental expenses are covered by other than the above grants. . . . The amounts of the grants are sufficient to adequately meet basic requirements . . .

IF gratitude is necessary it can't be expressed through money . . . It can't take the place of the "richness" our foster children have given to our family. No, it is not material "richness." . . . Something quite different; a warmth and pride in our children, something much more important and certainly more enduring than the payment of a few extra dollars each month.

I believe very strongly that an added inducement in the form of additional dollars in the grant is not necessary to attract these persons interested in foster care because of their concern and fondness for children. It might attract those concerned with something other than the needs of the children, however.

My husband and I believe we are NOT underpaid as foster parents. Our children offer enough of what we feel is important. No more is necessary.

Statements Are Defended

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Richard Berger asked, in his letter of March 31, why only two candidates for San Anselmo City Council sent out statements of qualification with the sample ballots mailed to all voters.

I suppose the answer is that only Mr. Little and myself were willing to use scanty campaign funds to get this information to the voters. According to the city clerk, the cost will be about $50.00, but I have not yet been billed. At this time, I would like to thank all the friends and supporters whose financial contributions make possible the printed information or advertising the voters will see about me.

The greastest problem for any candidate for any office is to make his views known to the voters. Perhaps Mr. Berger will agree with me that statements by all candidates should be sent free, as a public service, with the sample ballots.

Mr. Berger also asked why we were able to add "lengthy statements" of our "political policies" and questioned the legality of such statements. I followed the instructions of the city clerk and the directions on the printed form supplied by the state, which limited the statements to a maximum of 150 words.

Surely, the policies proposed by any candidate are of the greatest importance to inquiring voters. If the candidates do not state what they stand for, the voters would cast their ballots blindly.

Hospital's Finances Still Bring Question

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In answer to the Auditor-Controller's letter printed in the I-J March 24, 1966, there was one I-J typographical error in Hospital district's (Novato) 1964-1965 taxes (the $86 should have been $.86).

It was in the Public Information Pamphlet No. 6 that I verified Mr. Murphy's figures. Perhaps I am dense and in error, but the Auditor-Controller has not yet made it clear to me the pamphlet's figures quoting the Hospital district's 1965-1966 tax increase of $2.30 over the 1964-1965 taxes. I would appreciate an explanation before I apologize and confess my ignorance.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

THERE WAS a wild night in a saloon in the frontier town of Mingusville, South Dakota, way back in 1885. A Bad Lands drunk had just shot up the premises and sent the bartender to cover behind the counter when he spied a bespectacled tenderfoot minding his own business at a rear table. The drunk announced boldly, "Four Eyes will now set up drinks for the house."

Four Eyes turned slowly, and after two shots from the drunk went wild, knocked him senseless with a single punch to the solar plexus.

After that Tenderfoot Theodore Roosevelt was affectionately known in those parts as "Old Four Eyes."

THE VERY first beauty contest to attract wide attention, points out a solemn scribe in the Journal of the American Medical Assn., took place in Athens and had as finalists three pretty snazzy goddesses: Hera, Athena, and Aphrodite. "Even in those days," adds the scribe, 'the successful candidate required a combination of 'pluriglandular efficiency, unblemished epidermia, and a suitably distributed subcutaeneous fat.'" The scribe's name is not signed to the article, but here's betting he's related to TV Moderator John Charles Daly!

Scientist's Disbelief In UFO Increases Need Of Real Study

WASHINGTON—There is a case to be made for a thorough and objective investigation of the large body of conflicting evidence concerning the reality—or myth—of the "flying saucers."

ONE OF the best arguments for the value of such an inquiry comes from Dr. J. Allen Hynek, the noted astrophysicist and Air Force investigator of unidentified flying objects. At a press conference he dismissed the latest Michigan sightings as just will-o'-the-wisps of swamp gas. Then he added this honest disclaimer:

"Scientists in the year 2066 may think us very naive in our denials."

Dr. Hynek expressed the judgment of a capable scientist that the UFOs are either imagined or explainable by natural phenomena. But his instinct is to make his present judgment subject to reversal by suggesting that future scientists may find today's skepticism faulty.

AND WHY NOT? History is littered with examples of the most eminent scientists who were dead certain that things couldn't be done, that they would never come to pass—and wrote with great displays of scientific evidence to prove that they couldn't be wrong.

But they were. British author Arthur C. Clarke, one of the greatest of the modern science writers and the first to predict today's communications satellites such as Early Bird and Telstar, cites a long list of scientists who with certitude were confident of the impossibility of every scientific breakthrough that is now almost routine.

American astronomer Simon Newcomb proved to his satisfaction that man would never fly.

Canadian astronomer J. W. Campbell showed, as he thought, as late as 1938, that it would take 1 million tons of take-off weight to carry 1 pound of payload on a round trip to the moon. It has proved to require only one ton per pound and that ratio is getting constantly lower.

In 1956 British astronomer Richard Van der Riet Wooley calmly called all talk about space travel—not swamp gas, but "utter bilge."

IF YOU WANT more examples of unfounded skepticism, you will find them all in Clarke's book, "Profiles of the Future."

When we come to weighing the evidence as to whether the "flying saucers" are imaginary or real or, indeed, whether it is possible or ridiculous to envisage extraterrestrials paying fleeting visits to this small planet, Mr. Clarke offers this practical rule-of-thumb advice from the examples of recent history:

"When a scientist states something is possible, he is almost certainly right. When he states that something is impossible, he is very probably wrong."

I am not arguing that the unidentified flying objects reported to be seen by many people in all parts of the world cannot possibly be explained away. I am saying that the scientific assurances that they are either illusionary or natural are also unproved. I simply submit that it is unscientific and unwise to assume that they are "utter bilge."

WE NEED more objective investigation than we have been getting. The scientific unbelievers may be right—but they could be totally wrong. They have been before.

Rusk Handed Reins Over FBI Activities

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Secretary Dean Rusk is moving to strengthen and expand State Department control over all U. S. political, security, intelligence and foreign aid operations abroad.

With President Lyndon B. Johnson's evident approval, Rusk is using the newly established Senior Inter-Departmental Group, which he heads, to assemble full details regarding such government agencies operating abroad, including the number of their personnel and what they do.

This unannounced survey by SIG, as the new high-level policy group is known, reputedly is aimed primarily at tightening control over the activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Central Intelligence Agency.

ONE OF THE MOST sensitive but necessary of these operations — checking on the activities of certain Americans while traveling abroad—was recently leaked to newsmen by State Department partisans of Abba Schwartz, resigned head of the Bureau of Security & Consular Affairs.

Secretary Rusk reacted to these published revelations by barring further State Department participation in making these checks, and asking At. Gen. Nicholas B. Katzenbach to furnish SIG details on other FBI security activities abroad, including those in a leading capital where the FBI has highly secret probes underway.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover holds that under the national security laws his agency is required to maintain surveillance of individuals deemed possible security risks both at home and abroad.

IT HAS LONG been FBI policy that when an individual of questionable security leaves the country, the State Department and Central Intelligence Agencies are informed of that. At the same time, the FBI requests that any information that may come to their attention regarding the individual be reported.

Members of a House Appropriations Subcommittee, which is scrutinizing the State Department's new policy curbing cooperation with the FBI, have been told that this was originally recommended by Schwartz and then his deputy, Philip B. Heymann, now acting head of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs.

A State Department memorandum in the hands of the House groups discloses that Heymann summoned Passport Director Frances Knight, who has cooperated with the FBI, and directed her to halt that.

THE MEMORANDUM also indicates that despite Schwartz' departure, the practice of permitting U. S. Communists to travel abroad would not be changed. States the memo:

"Heymann then went on to say that the denial of passports to U. S. communists was no deterrent to their meetings and to the exchange of instructions or policies. . . . He said he saw no harm in the free travel of communists."

With Secretary Rusk approving both the curb on cooperating with the FBI and "free travel" for communists, the appropriations committeemen are concerned that his "sudden interest" in other overseas activities of the FBI will lead to further curbs on its foreign operations.

Under the White House directive setting up the Senior Inter-Departmental Group, Rusk was empowered to "assume responsibility in full extent permitted by law for the overall direction, coordination and supervision of inter-departmental activities of U.S. government overseas."

The State Department head reportedly interprets this language as bringing under his jurisdiction all FBI and CIA operations overseas.

The Country Parson

"Good manners are what a man can afford if he doesn't have to buy at bargain counters."

War On Inflation Puts Patriotic Squeeze On The White House

WASHINGTON—Last Thursday, President Johnson asked the American people to stop spending so much money on themselves. He said that if we continued spending at the rate we were, we would be inviting inflation. To dramatize his leadership in this fight he told a group of mayors and urban leaders: "I asked Mrs. Johnson this morning, (sic) even as she has changed cooks, is she exercising all the care in her buying that she did in times that weren't so prosperous.

"I REMEMBER a lot of times when I had a different kind of meat. Sometimes it was meat of a kind I didn't like. It was a cheaper cut... I just wonder if the women of this country couldn't get out their lead pencil and put on their glasses and look at some of those price lists and see where these shortages are occurring and see where these prices are advancing and say 'goodbye to those products going up.' Just say 'I don't have to have that. I will just substitute.'"

The scene, of course, is the White House. The President is dining with Lady Bird alone.

"Lady Bird, this tastes like a pretty good piece of meat to me. You getting extravagant again?"

"Now Lyndon. We've been eating the leftovers from Madame Gandhi's dinner for two weeks and I thought it was about time we had a change."

"I GUESS you're right. By the way did you know A&P is having a sale on pork rib ends?"

"Lyndon, you hate pork rib ends."

"I know I do. But my country comes first. Please pass the lower-priced spread."

"Lyndon, the President of Costa Rica is coming next week and the new chef wanted to know if you're serious about serving meat loaf for the main course."

"I've been giving it a lot of thought, Lady Bird. I just read where Safeway Stores got in a shipment of neckbones. Ask the chef what he can do with those."

"Oh, for heaven's sake, Lyndon, the chef almost quit the other night when you made him prepare Vienna sausages for the House and Senate Democratic Leaders' dinner. Please don't ask him to cook neckbones."

"ALL RIGHT, we'll stick with the meat loaf and cut out the salad. By the way this bread tastes awfully fresh."

"It was baked today, Lyndon. They ran out of day-old bread at the bakery."

"I'll bet they just told you that so they could sell you fresh bread. Well, take out your lead pencil and put on your glasses and let's say goodbye to a few products that are going up in price."

"Lyndon, we've eliminated practically everything."

"You can always find more. I think we better eliminate stewed tomatoes, okra, and broccoli for awhile."

"Luci loves okra."

"WELL, the kids today have to make a few sacrifices. When I was her age I only had okra once a month, if we were lucky."

"All right, Lyndon. What should we have instead?"

"Orville Freeman tells me I can get a good buy on turnip greens.'

"Lyndon, there's something I wanted to bring up at this time. It's Luci's wedding cake. Do you still insist it be made with powdered eggs?"

"WELL, if she really feels strongly about it, I guess we can use fresh eggs. After all, your daughter only gets married once."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

It's A Dog's Life When They Even Start Tampering With Fire Plugs

It was the week of the square plug in Mill Valley.

It was the week the cat retired from pub business in Sausalito and the week that the Stinson Beach Triumverate started on haunts of hoot and kern to look for flowers in the wild. (The Wild Flower Show is May 7-8.)

IN THIS extremely fast-changing world, one thing one must hold onto is humor, according to Charles Borden of Muir Beach.

Jerry Montizambert not only holds onto it. He makes it work for him. In Meier's Bakery Montizambert ordered a cold hot cross bun and then told the waitress, Ruby, to take the cross off because I'm a Moslem." He was joking, of course.

I-J photog Jim Kean came upon fireman Roy Bernard painting a newly-installed square fire plug in Mill Valley and the first thing he could think of for a picture was a dog. Then, along came Reggie, a long-eared Basset hound.

Having plenty of experience taking dog pictures, Kean said he quickly bought some sustenance. He gave the dog a piece of a candy bar. "Just a piece," said Kean. "If he likes it, then you put the whole large chunk of candy next to where you want to take the picture." Reggie doesn't like Mars bars. Then it was cheese crackers. The dog would have none of it. Then Kean dashed to the grocery and got some fancy bologna.

THIS WAS the Basset's dish. And the picture was taken.

"I remember once," said the lively photographer, "I gave a dog my whole lunch to get a picture. Then, just as I was about to snap it, he finished the lunch and walked away."

Lt. Cmdr. Joe Penders, now serving in the carrier Kearsage, reports that, while flying over the Gulf of Mexico recently, he saw the tanker Mission San Rafael.

The ship was built in Sausalito and Joe's dad, also Joe, worked on it in Marinship during World War II.

NEKO-CHAN, longtime employee at the Seven Seas in Sausalito, has retired from the pub business. He now sleeps upstairs in a split level cathouse at the home of his master, Paul de Moss, in Almonte. His spouse, Miye-Chan, sleeps on the other level. Neko-Chan got tired of high living and, besides, the law does not permit Neko-Chan in a restaurant.

Bill Robinson of Mill Valley, an expatriate in Europe for the past four years, returned to home redwoods from Paris recently and, asked if he suffered cultural shock, said no.

An editor-translator on the African desk for Agence France Presse in Paris, Robinson said this about the City of Lights:

"I don't like the people. I don't like their nationalism. And chauvinism. I like the wine. Their food and popular songs are the best in the world. The songs are much more broad-minded than American songs. I like Paris. It is the most beautiful city in the world. It hasn't changed. More girls. (Bill is single), that's all. Paris still has no parking meters."

Robinson, who went to Tamalpais and eight years to Park School, said, "Paris at its best is something you will never find anywhere else in the world. But I don't like the weather."

He spoke of being "out on the town or sitting in a sidewalk cafe watching the girls go by. The trouble is, it doesn't last. Nothing good lasts forever. You catch this now and then, the old feeling from Hemingway's novel, The Sun Also Rises. The feeling he expresses in this novel, you can still find it. Sometimes."

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Handwriting Analysis Claimed Hint To Administrator's Ideas

FUSSELMAN

Some years ago I purchased a volume on character analysis written by some scientists. It was sort of a documented treatise—a fascinating thing to read, the section on handwriting particularly. They showed it to be a reliable measure of a person's attitude of mind in general and specifically.

Well, recently a friend showed me a letter the administrator had sent to the board of supervisors, with photostats to a number of people and groups interested in a project under discussion. In his letter he tried to ding the whole program. The committee, of which my friend was a member, was composed of some competent men, who knew far more about the subject than he did and had worked very hard indeed to bring the matter to fruition. The administrator's signature startled me by its size.

I HAD a photo copy made for my files. What a comparison with the signature on the letter he wrote to me in 1960.

There was every indication of quite a growth in self assurance, I can tell you. And it was finished with a magnificent sweep of the pen. Now you may wonder what this has to do with "the price of wheat."

Question: Did you read his comments on the Marin City situation in the Sunday paper? And did you read the stories in the I-J about his intent to set up more bureaucracy by creating a new department to master-mind some six or seven other departments and agencies?

A nice tight little package to be channeled through to his "ivory tower."

And did you read the front page article on Tuesday about the indignation of the "Human Rights Group?"

They said he "appeared to be absolutely ignorant" of the subject matter in which they were involved. I don't think you have heard anything yet. The folks up and down the street are plenty mad and disgusted, no mistake. The telephones have been really hot.

Luckily it is not to be taken up by the board until June. Watch it.

THE SUPERVISOR from Ross Valley, apparently trying for headlines, has been shooting from the hips again. His clamor about saving $100,000 to $300,000 a year in retirement benefits to widows of deceased retired county employees shows two things—a disregard of the humanities and a failure to comprehend the total financial picture. He wants to eliminate the 60 per cent of the pension to the survivor.

I served on the Retirement Board from the beginning until this year. Believe me, there have been some extremely competent citizens serving who really knew what the score was. They all had a most sincere respect for the taxpayers' dollars together with understanding of the total retirement problem, including the human element involved.

I had intended to devote the entire column this week to this matter. However, this further grab for more power by the administrator and the immediate reaction by the public caused me to depart from the plan. It will be done next week.

THE BOARD of supervisors certainly showed good judgment, in my opinion, when they re-appointed Niels Schultz to the planning commission. He was my appointee in the beginning and I have never been sorry. He has ability and experience in big measures.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Queen Of Club's Hateful Ways Really Are A Complete Illusion

One of my friends suffers from the delusion that the queen of clubs has it in for him.

He uses the hand shown today as proof of his belief, but all it proves is that my friend belongs in the loony bin.

Opening lead — ♠ Q

West led the queen of spades, and South counted tricks, noting that he needed all five club tricks.

He took the king of spades and and king of clubs and then led the jack of clubs from dummy for a finesse.

KEEP IT SECRET

The finesse lost, and South eventually went down. "For anybody else the finesse would work," South complained. "It's no use. That queen is an enemy of mine."

If you agree with South, keep it a secret. The loony bins are already too crowded.

OTHER CHANCE

South's play was reasonable if the missing clubs were sure to be divided 3-3.

If somebody had to have Q-x-x of clubs, that somebody was just as likely to be East as West.

South forgot to consider the possibility of a 4-2 break in clubs.

There was no chance for five club tricks if either opponent had Q-x-x-x of clubs, but there was a chance if somebody had Q-x of clubs.

The doubleton queen does not help if East has it.

West will then have a club stopper with his four clubs.

But if West has the doubleton queen, South can make the contract.

South should lead a heart to his hand at the second trick and return a low club to finesse with dummy's jack.

This will bring in the contract if West has either Q-x-x or Q-x of clubs — a better chance than playing East for only Q-x-x of clubs.

Guilty Plea In Burglary Charge

Kirk Kneedler Taylor, 28, of 482 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to second degree burglary.

Judge Peter Allen Smith certified the case to Marin Superior Court for judgment. Taylor, a machinist, entered a building occupied by Neil Martin at 211 Shoreline Highway, Tamalpais Valley, on March 11.

Taylor originally was scheduled for preliminary hearing on the charge yesterday.

NEW RAMBLER INTRODUCED

American Motors has introduced this Rambler American Typhoon hardtop with a 290-cubic inch V-8 engine for the sports-minded. The V-8 will be standard on the Rogue and optional equipment on all other models in the American line. It develops 200 horsepower. A four-barrel version with 225 horsepower will be available later. The Rogue is shown at Larry Brink Motors, Mill Valley.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Three Levels Of Reaching Agreement On Payment

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, C.P.A.

If you receive a notice from the Internal Revenue Service that your return is being examined, it does not necessarily mean that you owe more tax. It may result in a refund for you, or it may result in no change in your taxes.

P. J. Wikel

There are three levels, within the Internal Revenue Service, at which an agreement may be reached. The first is the audit by a revenue agent, the second is an informal conference with a conferee, and the third is the Apellate Division.

If you cannot come to an agreement, then you are entitled to a hearing before the Tax Court before you must pay additional tax.

An office audit is generally handled by correspondence, although if you are located near the office you may be asked to come in.

Field audits are made by agents who visit you in person. The agent always carries identification.

The revenue agent's audit is the first level and when he has finished he will discuss with you any adjustments he proposes to make. If you are satisfied you should sign the waiver which will show the increase or decrease in your tax liability.

If you do not agree with all of the revenue agent's proposed adjustments, you should not sign the waiver. Instead, tell him you want an "informal conference". The agent will prepare and mail to you a form showing the adjustments proposed by him. This form will show the name, address and phone number of the person with whom an informal conference can be requested. You should contact that person and arrange for a conference.

You do not have to accept the findings of the auditor, or the conferee, or the Apellate Division, although you should exhaust these possibilities before going to the tax court.

At any time you can have your attorney or accountant represent you and because the rules are so complex and the amount of tax is usually substantial in relation to your income, you are usually better off to call in your attorney or accountant immediately after you receive the first notice that you are being audited.

Remember that if you fail to respond to an audit at any of the three stages, that is, if you don't reply to letters requesting your appearance, the agent's proposals will result in an assessment of the tax against you, and you will have to pay it in spite of how good your case might have been.

After paying any such tax, however, you may file a claim for refund and start the whole process over again.

Monterey, County seat of Monterey County, was named by Sebastian Vizcaino, in honor of Gaspar de Zuniga, Count of Monterey and Viceroy of Mexico. Formerly spelled Monterrey and Monte Rey.

BATMAN'S HELPING

Easter Sales Zoom To National Records

By SALLY RYAN
Associated Press Writer

Easter sales, buoyed by bright print dresses, shorter skirts, permanent-pressed pants, pink luggage and Batman, are soaring throughout the nation.

In a spot survey of stores in many states, The Associated Press found merchants reporting sales up 2 to 45 per cent over 1965.

The National Retail Merchants Assn. said department store sales this year are running 11 per cent ahead of 1965 —a record year.

A government report noted a 23 per cent gain in department store sales to $435 million the week ended March 19.

"The economy is healthier," said George W. Dowdy, executive vice president of adepartment store in Charlotte, N.C. (Blek Brothers Co.). "There is more money in circulation."

But at the same time "the average price is higher," said Bill Foster, sales manager of an Austin, Tex., store (Sage Discount Store).

In New Orleans, La., where a hurricane struck last fall, it's a case of 'tis an ill wind that blows no good.

"There is no such thing as unemployment in New Orleans because of the reconstruction work," said Charles LaBiche, a merchandise manager (LaBiche's). "This has resulted in a tremendous flow of money. The general economy of New Orleans is fantastic."

In Boston, taxes may be a contributing factor to sales increases.

Robert G. Hoye, vice president of a downtown department store (Jordan Marsh), said sales of appliances, television sets, furniture and rugs were up, apparently as a result of consumers trying to beat a 3 per cent state sales tax going into effect today.

In Ohio, stores in Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati report sales up 18 to 30 per cent.

Irvin J. Water, president of a (Nevilles Inc.) at Lakewood, Ohio, said sales were up 28 per cent. He credited the increase to unseasonably warm weather.

Sales are up 25 to 45 per cent, estimated Gordon Bovey, assistant store manager for stores in St. Louis (Spartan's Discount Department Stores).

"The reason is abetter grade of merchandise and the people seem to have more money this spring," Bovey said.

"There is more money available and, I find, a lot of people catching up on their indebtedness and willing to buy more," said Harry Feldman, owner of a discount store in Chattanooga, Tenn. (Manufacturers Outlet Inc.).

The money is going for bright turquoise, lemon, melon and ice blue print dresses in Detroit, bellbottom capris in San Diego, Calif., dresses with sleeves in Tampa, Fla., iridescent suits in Boise, Idaho, strapped shoes in Philadelphia, short skirts in Charleston, W. Va. —and anything with Batman on it.

A Baltimore, Md., discount store sold 24 dozen, 99-cent costumes and 60 dozen hats and masks in one day.

"Put Batman on a shirt or anything and it flies out of the store," said the merchandise manager of a suburban Washington discount store.

Stores report heavy demand for permanent-pressed slacks and shirts and easy-care knit dresses, along with sheaths and shifts.

Brushed denim, the new fad of teen-agers, is one of the most popular items.

"This washed-out blue slack will probably replace dungarees," said Patrick P O'Reagan, manager of a store (Zayres) on Maine.

Eastern Firm's Earnings Higher

PITTSBURGH — Rockwell-Standard Corp. today reported earnings of $10,021,000, or 84 cents per share, on sale of $158,121,000 for the three months ended March 31.

This was a record quarter in both sales and earnings—a 45 per cent increase in sales and earnings over last year. Earnings for the same period in 1965 were $6,915,000, or 58 cents per share, on sales of $108,683,000.

The company also reported that sales for March were $57,354,000—the largest single month in the company's history.

Autos Multiply Faster Than Folks

SAN FRANCISCO — This nation is going to add more autos than adults to its "population" over the next five years, the security analysts of San Francisco were informed today.

The motoring public are expected to increase by 11 million to a total of 143 million, Victor Holt, president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., explained.

But in this same period, auto registrations are expected to rise 14 million units to a 1970 total of 89 million cars.

Steel Boom Hikes Import Demands

By JACK LEFLER

NEW YORK (AP)—American steel mills may be hard pressed to meet the demand for steel, spurred by a booming economy and the Viet Nam war.

As a result, the door would be opened to greater imports of foreign steel.

New orders at major mills last week ran well above maximum shipping rates. Industry officials said shipments would rise from 6.7 million tons in February to 8 million tons for March and 8.5 million tons in April and May.

The weekly production index —the 1957-59 index equals 100— has risen from 117.3 in the week ended last Jan. 1 to 147.3 in the week ended April 2.

Steel executives have agreed to defer their push for curbs on imports for the time being. Tightening of the domestic supply was one reason for the new attitude.

Kurt Orban, president of the American Institute for Imported Steel, said in a statement: "Unprecedented demand for steel throughout the country makes steel imports necessary to prevent critical shortages that would affect both the private sector of the economy and the war effort in Viet Nam."

He warned that shortages may develop when defense buying hits the market hard during the next two months at the peak of civilian demand.

Orban pointed out that domestic delivery schedules already have lengthened despite the availability of imports to help fill the gap.

"If steel imports suddenly stopped, the effect would be devastating," he said. "Yet, domestic steel interests have been lobbying for some time to shut out imports."

Steel imports have been rising steadily because the foreign producers can underprice domestic makers.

Imports have grown from 3.1 million tons in 1961 to 4.1 million tons in 1962, 5.4 million tons in 1963, 6.4 million tons in 1964 and 10.3 million tons in 1965. The reason for the big jump in 1965 was that users were building up inventories as a hedge against a possible strike.

STOCK MARKET CLOSED TODAY

Because today is Good Friday the New York Stock Market is closed. There are no quotations today and no Dow-Jones averages. The stock market will be open again Monday.

South American Flights Planned

NEW YORK — The first U.S. flag through plane flights linking the west coasts of North and South America will begin April 25, according to Juan T. Trippe, chairman of the board of Pan American Airways, and Andrew B. Shea, president of Panagra.

Previously all such services required a change of plane in Panama.

Initial service will operate every Monday, using Pan Am Boeing 707 jet clippers. In June the schedule will increase to twice weekly, when a Panagra DC-8 jet will operate the same service on Saturdays.

The flight will originate in San Francisco at 8 a.m. Elapsed time, San Francisco to Lima, Peru, will be 12 hours, 55 minutes.

Top Campaigns To Be Displayed

SAN FRANCISCO — The best western industrial advertising campaigns of 1965 will be on exhibition in San Francisco next Thursday and Friday.

Sample ads from more than 200 campaigns appearing in business publications and entered in the 1966 crafts competition sponsored by the Advertising Assn. of the West and American Business Press will be shown in the Garden Room of the John Hancock Building, 255 California Street.

Exhibit will be open to all with an interest in marketing business goods and services and the general public from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day.

Assessor Says Citizens Ired By Tax Bites

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Taxpayers are growing restless, an assessor declared yesterday. And he gave some reasons.

Speaking before a Chamber of Commerce meeting was Philip Watson, Los Angeles assessor, who said that by the year 2,000 property taxes may be so high that only the rich can live in cities.

Basing his forecast on a University of Southern California survey, he said that if present trends are not checked, property tax rates will rocket to $22 per $100 assessed valuation in 14 years.

"Obviously, between now and that impossible $22 tax rate projected for 1980, we must not merely talk about overhauling out tax structure — and that means overhauling our (government) spending structure, too—we must do something," he said.

Things he suggested doing were:

Putting a property tax ceiling of 2 per cent on the market value.

Limiting property tax revenues to property-related services expenditures.

Limiting income tax revenues to general services expenses.

Limiting sales tax revenues to school expenses.

Taxpayers, he said, "have a growing conviction that we're pouring good dollars after bad into programs that not only do not solve our problems but frequently magnify them." He did not elaborate.

Placerville was originally known as "Old Dry Diggings" and later as "Hangtown." Placer is perhaps derived from "plaza de oro," Spanish phrase meaning a place where gold is found.

Tax Consultant Testifies He Paid Fees To Wolden

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Assessor Russell L. Wolden's Bribery-conspiracy trial in San Francisco was in recess today until Monday following testimony yesterday that Wolden was paid thousands of dollars in tax consultant fees.

Attorney Albert F. Skelly, a prosecution witness, testified he paid Wolden $42,255 in 1961 as a tax consultant fee split. He said the money came from $71,000 Skelley was paid by National Dairy Products Corp. and from $6,600 in miscellaneous fees.

The attorney said the $71,000 was paid him for winning a State Franchise Board case for the firm. He said the matter did not concern Wolden's tax assessor's office.

Skelly also said General Foods paid him $22,500 of which he gave $18,250 to Wolden and in another case, Skelly received $22,200 from the Glidden Co. and passed $17,500 of it to Wolden.

Assistant Dist. Atty. Francis W. Mayer asked Skelley if he or Wolden did most of the work in the Glidden tax case.

"I did," Skelly answered.

He said Wolden looked up laws, but did not sign any legal papers. Skelly said Wolden's share was based on his legal help and for introducing Skelly to Glidden's tax man.

Missing Heiress Gets Fond Welcome Back

SAN DIEGO (UP) — Missing department store heiress Edith Deedee Jenkins, 15, and her mother held a tearful reunion today under a drenching shower in juvenile hall within hours of the surrender of the girl and her boyfriend, authorities reported.

"I am sorry I did it," sobbed the girl, who is due to inherit $2 million from the J. C. Penney store fortune and other sources in three years. "I wouldn't do it again. But I had a good time."

The dramatic reunion occurred after Miss Jenkins and Donald Collins, 19, Cardiff, Calif., surrendered to police here.

The girl, missing from her palatial Del Mar, Calif., seacoast home since March 24, told sheriff's deputies a sad tale of teen-aged love and its resulting two-week odyssey in a truck purchased for about $50.

"I want to marry Don," the girl told deputies, "however, I think now we are going to try and wait until after he finishes his Air Force training."

About dawn, the girl was released from juvenile hall into the custody of her mother on the promise she would appear before a probation officer here next Wednesday at 6 p.m., EST.

Deputies had lodged her in the county facility as a runaway. Collins was booked on suspicion of statutory rape after he assertedly admitted having intimate relations with the heiress, deputies said.

The girl's mother said she would like to talk with Collins. She also said she and the girl planned to go into seclusion.

The heiress, who said she hadn't taken a bath since she left home, was taking a shower in juvenile hall when her mother arrived after being notified that the girl had been located.

Busy Weekend For The Easter Bunny

By MOLLY MARIN

A host of Easter festivities are planned this weekend in the county both at the various clubs and in homes. At the Meadow Club the traditional Easter egg hunt for the children will be held at 3:30 p.m. Highlight of the festivities will be the appearance of Cheeta the Chimp. A buffet dinner will follow the hunt. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ela are chairmen.

TWO EASTER egg hunts are planned at the Marin Golf and Country Club at Ignacio. The first will take place at 11:30 a.m., and the second, at 1:30 p.m. An Easter brunch will be served from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. A brunch from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. is planned at Peacock Gap Country Club.

SEARCHING FOR a golden egg will add interest to the San Francisco Yacht Club's Easter egg hunt for club youngsters six years old and younger at 11:30 a.m. Sunday. A giant Easter bunny will come to the Belvedere clubhouse to distribute gifts to the tots. The children will see a movie cartoon before the big egg hunt. Brunch will be served for members and guests from 8 a.m. to noon on Easter. A mother-daughter team, Mrs. William Fisher of Belvedere and Mrs. James McGuiness of Mill Valley are co-chairmen of the children's party.

TWO EASTER events in Sausalito will be a brunch arranged by club manager Bob Tierney from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the clubhouse and an Easter egg hunt at the Sausalito Cruising Club. Mrs. Roy Schwartz, president of the Sausalito Cruising Club auxiliary, is planning the hunt for children and grandchildren of members. It will be held outside the clubhouse, weather permitting. It will start at 1 p.m. and will feature as entertainment a magic act by Jim Ladley. Saturday evening Mrs. Alfred Lawson and her committee will color the eggs at the clubhouse.

VISITING Mr. and Mrs. R. Harold Hartsough Jr. of Tiburon is Mrs. Hartsough's sister, Mrs. Colin Nickelsen of Hawaii. A family gathering on Easter will honor the guest.

MR. AND MRS. Earl Thompson of Sausalito will have a family brunch for some six relatives in the East Bay. Staying with them during her Easter vacation from San Francisco State College is Gisela Contreras, the young girl from Chile who has been making remarkable progress and is now in her senior year despite being nearly blind.

THE TRADITIONAL Easter brunch which Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Mahon have hosted for more than 25 years has been postponed until May this year.

LOCALE OF the Easter party which Justice and Mrs. Richard M. Sims Jr. usually give at their home in Rolling Hills has been moved to Sonoma, where they will have a large family gathering.

THIRTEENTH annual bullship race will find 75 tiny El Toro class sailboats leaving Sausalito at 8 a.m. April 16 heading across the Bay to St. Francis Yacht Harbor. At the end of the voyage trophies and warming Irish coffee are always distributed to contestants and race assistants. Accompanying the fleet of cockleshells will be a group of larger guardian yachts, called for the purpose of this race "Cowships." James Wilhite is permanent vice admiral of this fleet. Jim and Betty Wilhite have recently moved from San Francisco to Belvedere.

A BIG Easter gathering in Mill Valley will be the egg hunt at the home of the William Kellys. Some 20 families both from the neighborhood and various places in Northern California have been invited.

THIS WILL also be the first opportunity many friends have had to see the Kellys' third daughter, who will be three months old on April 19. She has been named Teresa Jean.

THE BRYAN McCARTHYS of San Rafael will have Easter dinner at West End Villa with their children, Susan, a freshman at Davis, and Mark, a senior at Marin Catholic High School. Their daughter, Jeanie, a senior at the University of California, will be missing as she was invited on an archeological expedition during the Easter holidays near Santa Fe, New Mexico. Also in the group on Sunday will be Bryan's mother, Mrs. Geraldine DeHaven.

PATTY CARPENTER.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter of Novato, has just been announced as the comic lead in the San Bernardino Light Opera production, "Carrie." Patty, now living in Hollywood, will play the part of an Irish colleen in the new musical comedy, opening on May 5.

ANOTHER EASTER egg hunt is planned by Dr. and Mrs. John Goerke of Mill Valley, which will be the first one experienced by Vicki Guzman, the exchange student from Bogota, Colombia, who lives with them.

JOINING THE Goerkes and Vicki and the three children will be Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Fudenberg of Mill Valley and their four children, Dr. and Mrs. Fraser Muirhead of Greenbrae and their four children and Dr. and Mrs. Don Tierney of Terra Linda and their two children.

DR. AND MRS. Pieter de Vries of Mill Valley have invited Mr. and Mrs. Scott Simmonds and their family to be their guests for brunch at the San Francisco Yacht Club on Easter.

GUESTS of the John Buckleys of Mill Valley for Easter dinner will be her sisters, Mrs. Reginald Bracamonte of Hillsborough and Mrs. J. M. Webster of San Francisco.

EASTER BONNETS

Dye Eggs To Match Your Easter Bonnet

NEW YORK (UPI) — Be an egghead when you join the Easter parade. Dye the eggs and wear them attached to a very special bonnet.

Why not? Nothing says "Happy Easter" quite so appropriately. Dyed eggs, blown-out, can be a light, airy and very pretty trim for a bright straw bonnet.

Go all out, following your imagination, when trimming a hat with dyed eggs. Hang the things in a cascade down one side. The best hat shape for this treatment: a small cloche-type.

IF YOU USE eggshells all dyed one color, or in varying shades of one color, to match the straw hat frame, you'll have a chic, pretty hat that doesn't look at bit like an Easter basket.

Choose a straw hat frame in a shade and color that is the most attractive for you and completes your Easter costume. Then dye your blown-out eggshells to complement the color.

Dyeing the eggshells in just the right colors is easy with a modern egg-dyeing kit. The makers of Rit dyes, who suggest an egg-bonnet for Easter, say you can mix the basic six colors to make endless other colors.

Before setting out, be sure to buy ribbons and perhaps wire to use with the eggs. You may want to add a few feathers, too, to complete your hat design. For the total look, these should be in the same color as the straw and eggs.

THE CASCADE effect is achieved easily by running ribbons through the eggs and then glueing the eggs in place on the ribbon. Tiny bows can be added above each egg.

The ribbons can be sewn to the egg and the eggs arranged prettily on the straw. Lightly glue the eggs to the straw so they won't dangle.

For a spray effect, insert a ribbon-covered piece of wire into each egg and glue the egg in place on the ribbon. Add bows or delicate color-matched maribou feathers to the top of each egg.

'APRIL SHOWERS'

Working on springtime decorations for the "April Showers" dinner dance to be given on April 16 by the Baywood Unit of Marin Foundation are, from left, Mesdames Max Johansen, John Duckett and Keith Bauard. Mrs. Leo Gorman is chairman for the event to be held from 9 p.m. at Carpenters Hall, San Rafael. Funds will go to the Marin Foundation Home for Teen-age Girls. Mesdames Duckett and Michael Pennings are reservations chairmen. (Independent-Journal photo)

Dinner Dance Will Have Paris Theme

"April in Paris" is the theme chosen by Mrs. Gordon Goodliffe for the annual spring dance to be sponsored by Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parent-Teacher Group in Mill Valley on April 16.

It will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley. Music for dancing will be provided by a dance trio, and refreshments will be served by the men of the Knights of Columbus.

A midnight smorgasbord has been planned by Mrs. John Preisinger, and decorations under the direction of Mrs. Robert Gaskill will be in keeping with the Parisian theme.

Marinites To Meet With Ikebana Club

Many Marinites will attend the April 15 meeting of the San Francisco Chapter of Ikebana International featuring Hakushu Tsujii, headmaster of the Saga School of flower arrangement of Kyoto, Japan.

Attending the 1 p.m. meeting at the Hall of Flowers in Golden Gate Park are Mesdames Russell Bjorn, Elmer Beasley, Howard Newson, Wallace Granger, Esther McConald and J. Robert Womer.

Better Cities Are Needed To Preserve Civilization

By MAGGIE BELLOWS
United Press Internatonal

There was no civilization until there were cities, places where the artist, philosopher, teacher, writer, scientist, statesmen could gather and exchange ideas.

Yet, today, says Dr. Margaret Mead, if man does not build better cities he will be in danger of destroying much of his civilization. And in the next decade he will build more homes than in all the history of all the human race .

Dr. Mead, 65, the slight, peppy curator of ethnology (a branch of anthropology dealing with the characteristics, distribution and culture of people) at the American Museum of Natural History, is one of the world's foremost scholars in anthropology and sociology and author and teacher.

"The whole concept of cities has changed in the last two centuries," she says.

"Once they were walled, to keep out the wild—the bandits, bears, beasts. Now we put a wall around the natural world to keep the human beings out and protect the wild.

"People who are starving, physically and intellectually, in rural areas, crowd into the cities to find work and, hopefully, a better life for their children. The rural areas are drained of talent, the best people leave for more opportunities and stimulation of the cities.

"THE RESULT? The slums of Harlem, favellos of Rio and Bogota, the dreadful concentration of refugees in Hong Kong.

"Children, bereft of nature and endangered by crime, dirt and lack of safety, grow up to learn how not to live."

Yet Miss Mead believes slums do serve one purpose.

"This is the only way we can bring the plight of the hopeless poor to the attention of the powerful. The improverished peoples of the world thrust themselves to the attention of the great. They make the world's 'conscience' aware as it was not when 90 per cent of the world's people lived in starvation, disease, illiteracy, resigned to death."

The horrors of slum living, however, are totally unnecessary, she says. "We can build the best of all possible worlds, where people can have the best of education, job opportunities, medical care, stimulation of other people, and still bring up their children safely and in touch with nature and other people, teach boys how to become men and girls how to become women."

HOW MISS MEAD suggests vertical cities.

"High rise buildings where each floor is a small city of its own, with policed corridors (instead of streets), open places where mothers can meet with their baby carriages within sound of their children's voices. The corner drugstore, park benches, sunlight on every floor, fountains, even grass.

"We don't have to lock people in cells, jam 10 people in a brownstone living room. We have space for playgrounds. We can make small towns within our cities; we can build gardens and still provide roofs for people's heads."

The entire world is urbanizing. Even the poor little rich boy has a hard time finding a lake to swim in, so mothers buy plastic pools. Why not bring the country into the city? Hong Kong, perhaps the most crowded city in the world, is experimenting with such a project.

MISS MEAD sees "tomorrow" this way. A city should have, as its best to offer, diversity of people, in class, age, ethnic background, intellect. People should live close enough to their work so they can get there without spending hours. There should be enough "going" both in work and recreation, to make it stimulating. Clean water, air, the wonders of nature.

"We can have cities that include the whole of human life. Raise children who know not only stability and a good relationship with the natural world, with room to play, but the excitement and challenge of the best of civilization."

MISS MEAD'S most fascinating example of "instant civilization" is the Manus Tribe in New Guinea. She has watched it since 1929, when she first saw the tribesmen as savages. The war brought people there, and today she is writing her third book on the impact. "In my lifetime, I've seen a group go from people living out of the sea to a city with all the problems of the modern world—juvenile delinquency, education, care of the aged, morality.

"Man's best hope for survival is in family life," she says. "It is the universal struggle of all humanity; to cherish the living, remember those who have gone before, and prepare for those who are not yet born."

Dance Soloist Will Speak At Guild's Spring Luncheon

Betty Jones, soloist in the Jose Limon Dance Company and faculty member of the Juilliard School of Music, New York, will be in Mill Valley Wednesday to speak at the spring luncheon of the Pacific Dance Guild.

Meeting at the Dick Ford Dance Studio on Miller Avenue will be presidents and coordinators from the 14 Bay Area branches of the guild.

Miss Jones is in the Bay Area under the auspices of the guild to conduct a special series of modern dance classes for intermediate and advanced students.

The luncheon will be given by the Mill Valley branch of the Pacific Dance Guild, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Alfred Stone. Assisting her will be Mesdames T. E. Theiss, James Leonard, John Jardine, Gary Faulk, Jacques Charton, Weld Wilkie, Robert Jenkins, Harry Smith, Donald Fleenor, Anton Victor and F. B. Larkins.

Those interested in attending the classes taught by Betty Jones and attending a concert she will give on April 17 in the College of San Mateo little theater may secure information from Marin County coordinator of classes for the guild, Mrs. Weld Wilkie of Mill Valley.

Camp Fire Girls Plan Egg Hunt

An Easter egg hunt and party for some 40 children in the Marin County Recreation for the Handicapped program will be given at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Terra Linda Recreation Center.

It is being provided by three groups of Camp Fire Girls, Mrs. Davison Johnson's A-Wi-Ye-Ya group from Marin City, Mrs. Thurmond Jean's O-Ki-Nah group from Tamalpais Valley and Mrs. Eugene Butler's Ki-Yu-Gan group from Mill Valley.

They are providing for each child a bean bag prize, which they have made themselves.

The girls are coloring 18 dozen eggs at their own Easter party this afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. Andrew Church in Marin City. The party will have a Mexican theme, complete with pinata.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

Easter will be very much in the forefront in tomorrow's Marin Magazine. In the holiday issue you will find the magazine's traditional Easter message from a Marin clergyman, a prized Easter recipe from Ross General Hospital's dietary supervisor, a story on 1966 Easter bonnet fashions and a Marin milliner who mokes them, reminiscences of an old-timer on Easter in Marin in the early 1900s, and a report on a most worthwhile Easter Seal Society project.

You'll need your Marin Magazine, too, to tell you about the special holiday programs to be seen this weekend on your television set. The new, expanded weekly TV log in the I-J's weekend supplement will provide you with the fullest coverage of Northern California's programming. Eight channels in all are covered now. Color programs are so designated. And movie casts are listed in full. You'll want to keep the log as your guide for viewing through the week.

THE MADGRIGAL SINGERS of Dominican College, directed by Winifred Baker, right, will present a program of Elizabethan madrigals and accompanied songs for the Thursday Musical Club program April 21.

Madrigal Singers To Give Thursday Musical Program

The Madrigal Singers of Dominican College will be featured on the program of the Thursday Musical Club at the home of Mrs. John Wolfes in Kent Woodlands, on April 21 at 2:30 p.m.

The Madrigal Singers were organized over 30 years ago by Sister M. Dominic, O.P. (Not the current Sister Dominic, the well-known pianist). The first group consisted of six girls and soon became an integral part of the college's musical life.

During the past 10 years the Madrigal Singers have been directed by Winifred Baker, during this time some of the daughters of the original six members have been in the group.

For the program for the Thursday Musical Club, the group will sing some accompanied songs as well as Elizabethan madrigals. Instrumental numbers will also be included in the program.

Mrs. Richard Hughes will, as program chairman, introduce the artists.

A tea, under the supervision of Mesdames Angus Clark and John Anton, assisted by Mesdames Ralph Dewey, George Geramoni, Leland S. Jordan, and E. C. Sargent will follow the program. At the tea table will be Mesdames Ernest Kirschner and John Lesoine.

Joan L. Patterson Will Be Fall Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Patterson of Novato are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Joan Louise, to Kenneth Joseph Butterfield of Novato.

Joan was graduated from Novato High School and attended Santa Rosa Junior College for two years. She is a past worthy advisor of Novato Assembly, International Order of Rainbow for Girls. She is employed with Western Telephone Co.

Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eugene Butterfield III of Novato. He is the brother of Mrs. Jay A. Adams Jr. of Monterey, Albert Eugene Butterfield IV and Pamela Jil Butterfield of Novato.

The future bridegroom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kemp of San Francisco. He was graduated from Armijo High School in Fairfield and is also employed with Western California Telephone Co.

The couple plan to be married in September.

By HELEN BOTTEL

Fussy Man Causes Bitter Incident, Once-Burned Raps 'Peace Dupes'

DEAR HELEN:

I am so mad at Lee, A Bachelor (and I thank heaven for women who have more sense than to marry him!) that I must tell you my experience with a fussy man and a "chipped" car door.

My physically handicapped child had gone shopping with me and I parked as near the entrance of the supermarket as possible. She was dying and we knew. I had to open the car door wide for her to get out, and she needed my support. Her handicap was obvious.

The man parked next to us made a point of walking back and examining how my door was resting on his chrome. Observing the struggle our child had getting out of the car, he said something nasty about my not being careful, and women like me are what ruin cars. My daughter started crying, "I never should have come with you." That was the last time she ever went shopping.

It won't help my daughter and certainly not me, but I will resent until the day I die that man and his healthy son who could run to him when he called, "Come on."

AILEEN

DEAR AILEEN:

Don't waste precious moments on bitterness. This man has to live with himself—and that's punishment enough!

H.

DEAR HELEN:

In reply to "Patriot and Friend," this person should find a large bucket, push his head in three times and pull it up twice.

Your reasons for not publishing the names of fellows in Viet Nam are most sound. I am sure that "P and F" would be the first to send over propaganda to our men who have enough problems as it is. These pamphlets from so-called peace movements can be very harmful to morale and even lower a high morale (and is it ever really high when you're fighting a deadly war?) These organizations are nothing more than fronts for communists who dupe stupid people. I know! At one time before I learned better I belonged to some of them. Then I found out what they were really all about. I suggest "Patriot" take time off from picketing and burning his draft card to see what he's doing to our country. He's no "Patriot and Friend."

AMERICAN MAN IN UNIFORM AND PROUD OF IT

DEAR HELEN:

You chose the dumbest letter possible to prove your point. I wrote a good letter about how I didn't want any more war and so I was a peace marcher so that we could end all this senseless killing, but you wouldn't print it.

TEEN

DEAR TEEN:

It was a good letter, honey, — filled with high ideals about why we should live in peace . . . but you didn't say how.

No one in America or the Free World wants senseless killing. But if we don't contain it where it breaks out, that killing may spread until even the peace marchers wake up and realize it's too late.

Miss Foster Is Bride Of T.R. Culiver

The Rev. John Tierney officiated at the afternoon wedding on March 19 of Claudia M. Foster of San Rafael and Troyer R. Culiver of San Francisco at St. Sylvester's Church, San Rafael.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Foster of San Rafael, was escorted to the altar by her father in the double ring ceremony. She wore a full length gown of white organza and lace with pearl crown.

Her maid of honor, Joyce Welch of San Jose, wore an empire gown of blue organza. Bridesmaid Mrs. James Petty of San Francisco and junior bridesmaid Cathy Welch of San Jose were similarly dressed. Teresa Welch was flower girl and Ronald Petty of San Francisco was ringbearer.

Ralph E. Schwenkey of Ukiah acted as best man and Rickie Harrison of Suisun ushered. Following a reception at Carpenters Hall in San Rafael the couple travelled to Carmel and San Luis Obispo. They are making their home in San Francisco.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Zelma Finn and Alonzo T. Culiver of San Francisco. He was reared by his aunt, Mrs. Melba Murfin, and grandmother, Mrs. Stella Culiver, both of Suisun.

Claudia attended San Francisco State College and is employed at Princess Wig Salon in San Francisco. Edward Foster of San Francisco is her brother and Mrs. May Lee of San Rafael, her grandmother.

Troyer was graduated from San Francisco State College and is employed with Bechtel Corp. in San Francisco. Marleen and Larry Culiver of San Francisco are his sister and brother.

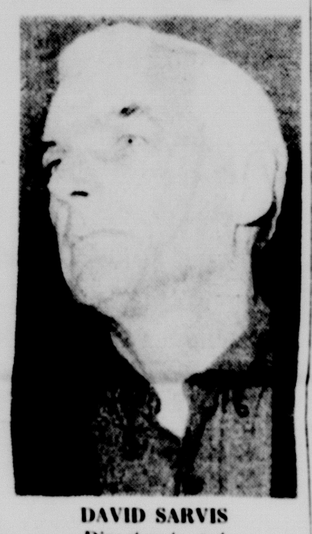
MARIN ACTOR REHEARSES

Mike Hall, Sonoma State College freshman from Mill Valley, runs through a scene from Tennessee Williams' play "The Glass Menagerie," with another Sonoma State student, Mary Tavernetti of San Francisco. The play will be presented by the Sonoma State College Drama Workshop at Rohnert Park High School auditorium April 15 and 16 at 8 p.m. Hall will play the role of the son.

Valley Troupe Director Will Turn To Acting

Director David Sarvis of Homestead Valley will make his acting debut in the Homestead Players' production of "The Obscene Temple" by Lester Cole at Brown's Hall, Mill Valley, which opens at 8:30 p.m. May 6 with a benefit performance for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

Sarvis, who has directed productions of the Actor's Workshop, San Francisco Labor Theater and the Interplayers, will play the part of Dr. Roger Ballard.



DAVID SARVIS
Director to act

A native of China, Sarvis received a graduate degree in drama from Yale University and taught theater courses at the University of New Mexico.

"The Obscene Temple" tells the story of one family's involvement in the slave trade and underground railroad in the years before the Civil War, and brings into focus the role of the self-professed liberal.

There will be performances May 7, 13, 14, 20 and 21, at 8:30 p.m. at Brown's Hall.

Tomales Bay Annexation To Water Area Approved

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night unanimously approved annexation of 10.4 square miles along the east shore of Tomales Bay to the North Marin County Water District.

At the same time, commissioners urged that the water district develop adequate sanitary facilities at the same time that water services are developed.

Commissioners expressed fear that water might spur development which would not have adequate sanitary facilities, and thereby contribute to pollution of Tomales Bay.

The 10.4 square mile are proposed for annexation is a reduced version of an earlier proposal to annex 44 square miles in the area.

The proposed annexation is mainly east and south of Marshall and extending inland to the Bolinas Ridge. It is south of Tomales and north of Point Reyes Station. It contains only 50 dwelling units, with a population of 150 persons.

Jerome B. Gilbert, water district manager, said 82 per cent of the landowners in the area favor annexation. The original proposal was pared down to an area where there was "maximum acceptance," he reported.

If the area is annexed, the first step would be engineering studies financed by an improvement district or an agreement with developers, he said.

"I believe the area is large enough to sustain a water system," Gilbert said. "The district also has considered undertaking a sewer study."

There are three possible sources of water for the area proposed for annexation, Gilbert said. It could be served from wells in Walker Creek Basin, local springs, or surplus water piped from Inverness.

Long-range water development for the area could include a dam on Walker Creek, he said.

The commission received a letter of protest from Robert J. Evans, who lives south of Marshall, claiming the annexation would be contrary to the goals of the West Marin Plan for cluster development, open space and preservation of farm lands.

Pluto, the farthest planet from the sun, was discovered in 1930.

Young Artists' Works In Mill Valley Show

Young artists will be featured in a showing at the Spanish Door art gallery from noon to 5 p.m., Sunday. The gallery is in Brown's Hall, 390 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

In the show will be painting and sculpture by Dickens Bascom of Larkspur; sculpture by Carl Burrows of Sausalito and Tony Secchitano Jr. of Mill Valley and photography by Floyd Kahn and Peter Risely, both of Mill Valley. Refreshments will be served.

Easter Seal Campaign In Final Week

The 1966 Easter Seal campaign entered its final week with mail returns totaling $13,559 toward a mail drive goal of $22,000, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, chairman, reported.

"It is hoped that those who have not yet responded to the drive will return their Easter Seal envelopes by Sunday," Sheriff Mountanos said.

The majority of returns are coming from previous contributors, he said. "New contributions are lagging at an alarming rate compared to last year."

The Easter Seal Society is preparing to release applications for summer resident camp for handicapped children and young adults, as well as for cleft palate speech therapy camp, Sheriff Mountanos said.

"In addition to increased operating costs of summer camp and other direct service programs, the number of handicapped people who need Easter Seal help is increasing as Marin County continues to grow in population," he said. "The society must reach or exceed its quota to keep up with the expanding need."

Hearing Set On Formation Of District

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission agreed last night to have a public hearing on a proposal to form a Tamalpais Valley Community Services District, that would cover both Tamalpais and Tennessee valley watersheds extend westward to the Pacific Ocean.

The hearing was set for the commission's next meeting, May 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the Civic Center.

The proposal for a community service district was proposed by the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club and backed by petitions bearing 209 signatures.

John F. Barrows, commission executive officer, said the proposed district would replace the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District, and could provide additional services.

Guilty Pleas In Military Parts Thefts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two Southern California men have pleaded guilty to charges of receiving and selling part of $175,000 in stolen Viet Nam war materials from the Alameda Naval Air Station.

Harold S. Grey, 34, of North Hollywood, and Don J. Nastali, 30, of Burbank pleaded guilty Thursday to charges of conspiracy to receive, conceal and sell the parts. They were ordered to appear in Federal Court for sentencing June 15.

A trial date of May 2 was set for 12 other defendants in connection with the case.

A Federal Grand Jury indictment said the 14 defendants received and sold airplane motor parts and other materials scheduled for shipment to Viet Nam over a seven month period last year.

If convicted, the defendants could receive maximum penalties of 15 years and $20,000.

Artist Will Be Host To Student Art Club

Dickens Bascom, a young artist who believes in art for its own sake will speak at Sir Francis Drake High School's annual Art Club Spring pot-luck supper April 13 on the school campus in San Anselmo.

Club members and their guests will then tour Bascom's studio in Larkspur.

MARIN FILM FARE

'Singing Nun' On Tam Screen; 'Thunderball' Is 'Round Again

By LES DARD

The film Marin area fare this weekend is as varied as it is interesting. Let's take a peek:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Now on screen is the story of "The Singing Nun," with Debbie Reynolds in the title role. It's a bill everyone can fall in love with.

Miss Reynolds plays Soeur Sourire, a Belgian nun who seeks happiness only with God. The first hint of what's to come is at a community sing where the little nun, guitar in hand, finds herself singing alone to the acclaim of all present. So, to oblige them, she records "Dominique" and it sells a million copies.

There are numerous and fascinating side-plots. Agnes Moorehead plays a nun who is suspicious of liberalization and regards the guitar as "a material possession." Richardo Monalban plays a priest, the convent's spiritual advisor, and Greer Garson is the Mother Superior. There are also performances by Ed Sullivan, Chad Everett and Katherine Ross.

NOVATO THEATER

Now playing is "Thunderball," latest filming of the adventures of Secret Agent 007, James Bond.

Bond is out to stop Emilio Largo, a SPECTRE agent who takes two nuclear bombs off a NATO bomber and plans to extort a king's ransom from the free world to prevent you-know-what.

No need to tell you that Bond heads Largo off at the pass in truly marvelous fashion, and in the process picks up a companion in Largo's best girl, Claudine Auger.

Much of the film is shot underwater, which affords a new dimension in Bondian contrivances.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

MOTOR MOVIES

SEQUOIA THEATER

All manner of crazy situations pop up in Walt Disney's latest "The Ugly Dachshund," a comedy ready-made for all ages.

Briefly, the story concerns a Great Dane who thinks he's a dachshund—like all the other puppies in the little family of Dean Jones and Susanne Pleshette.

Co-featured is "Winnie the Pooh."

101 DRIVE-IN

"The Ghost in the Invisible Bikini," a lively new comedy entry for the younger set, is now showing. It features Tommy Kirk, Deborah Walley, and, of all people, Basil Rathbone.

LARK THEATER

Held over is that all-out-super-spoof "The Loved One," billed as "the motion picture with something to offend everyone."

The big target is the elaborate American funeral syndrome, centered on "Whispering Glades Memorial Park." Its founder is The Blessed Reverend, played by Jonathan Winters. In another role, Winters plays The Blessed Reverend's brother, who runs an insanely inept pet cemetery.

Great escapism.

FAIRFAX THEATER

An all-star cast includes Stuart Whitman, Terry-Thomas, Gert Frobe, Sarah Miles and Jean-Pierre, Cassel. They are ably assisted by a fleet of revived vintage planes with names like Curtiss, Bleriot, Ornithopter and Avro Triplane.

RAFAEL THEATER

Also held over is Walt Disney's well remembered feature-length cartoon, "Bambi," a perfect Easter bill for the whole family.

It's been quite a number of years since the public has been treated to the delightful cast of animal characters.

Co-featured is "The Tattooed Police Horse."

Guitar Classes Set At Tiburon School

Guitar classes will begin Monda and Tuesday at the Del Mar School, Tiburon, and continue with weekly sessions for six weeks, sponsored by the Reed School District Parent-Teacher Club.

Class for beginners will start at 7:30 p.m. Mondays, and for intermediate students at 8:30 p.m. the same day. Advanced class will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays.

On Sub Voyage

Barbecue Set

The San Rafael Sea Explorers are sponsoring a barbecue for their families and friends April 17 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Peacock Gap Swimming and Tennis Club in San Rafael.

New Officers Picked By Stanford Alumni

Robert W. Derryberry, Mill Valley, has been chosen by members of the Stanford Club of Marin as president for 1966-67.

Other new officers are Douglas Ballinger, Greenbrae, vice president; Mrs. Donald Collins, San Rafael, secretary, and James Scatena Jr., Mill Valley, treasurer.

Newly elected directors are James W. Barnett, Kentfield; Mrs. Richard G. Burns, Mill Valley; Michael B. Dufficy and Mrs. Byron W. Leydecker, San Rafael. Honorary director is Robert Setrakian, member of the Stanford Alumni executive board.

SPAN DIRECTORS WORRY OVER 1971

Board Wants An Answer On Whether District Can Continue Beyond Then

Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District directors today asked Attorney Jerome White for a clear-cut answer on whether the district can continue beyond 1971.

Director Stephen S. Leonoudakis of San Francisco wondered whether the district should make commitments beyond 1971 if it must be dissolved at that time. That is the year when the original bonds to build the bridge will be paid off.

General Mgr. James Adams and attorney White will make a report on their findings.

The directors voted to deposit $150,000 with Crocker-Citizens National Bank at four and seven-eighths per cent interest. Leonoudakis asked the directors to consider making the deposit in other banks that pay five per cent interest, but was overruled.

William D. Hadeler, director from San Francisco, said deposits are made in large banks like Crocker-Citizens to create good will because larger banks will help when the district needs to sell bonds.

Alvin F. Derre of San Francisco, did not vote on the decision to make the deposit because he is an executive with Crocker-Citizens.

The directors decided to pay $2,531 to a Negro painter, James Haugabook, for pay lost while he was laid off the job. Haugabook filed discrimination charges with the Fair Employment Practices Commission and was re-hired on March 8.

Publication Not Set On History Volume

Directors of the Marin Historical Society yesterday decided to notify contributors for a history of Marin that a publication date for the book has not yet been set.

Airman's Head Injured As Auto Flips

A Hamilton Air Force Base airman suffered head injuries last night when his northbound car flipped over twice on a curve on Highway 101 near the Terra Linda interchange.

Highway Patrol Officer David R. Arnold said witnesses estimated Eaton was driving about 80 miles per hour. He said Eaton's car hit the center divider, spun, hit the divider again, then rolled over twice as it crossed to the opposite side of the highway.

Eaton was cited for speeding and for not having a valid driver's license in his possession.

Mother Charged In Child-Beating

A 23-year-old Strawberry mother was booked in county jail last night on a felony complaint charging the beating of her 2-year-old son.

Mrs. Clara Leigh Baker, 45 Reed Boulevard, was released on $1,100 bail. Arraignment in Marin Municipal Court is scheduled at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Sheriff's officers said the woman's husband, John Anthony Baker, reported he returned to their home March 27 from an errand and discovered Mrs. Baker had struck the son, John Christopher Baker, on the right side of the head.

Officers said Baker, who told them his wife said the son provoked her and she struck him for discipline, took the youth to Mill Valley police where photographs were taken of face and neck bruises from the blow or blows.

Wildflower Lecture Will Be Illustrated

John Thomas Howell, curator of botany of the California Academy of Sciences in San Francisco, will lecture on Tiburon Peninsula wildflowers Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Reed School auditorium, Tiburon.

The lecture will be sponsored by the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society. Color slides taken by Tiburon photographer Anna-Jean Cole will accompany the talk.

Check Passer To Get Psychiatric Checkup

William Albert Murphy, 30, who earlier pleaded guilty to two counts of passing worthless checks, was ordered by judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court yesterday to 90 days observation at California Medical Facility, Vacaville.

Murphy, of San Francisco, would then be returned for judgment. He passed the checks at Village Pharmacy, Town and Country Village, Strawberry, last August.

Bully Hands Beating To Would-Be Rescuer

Richard S. Savelli, 18, of Strawberry woke up in Marin General Hospital today with facial fractures and a cut right eyelid because, he told Corte Madera police, he tried to protect a boy from a bully at a carnival in the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

Savelli, who lives at 111 Reed Boulevard, was reported in fair condition at the hospital.

He said he saw a younger boy being bullied about at the carnival about 12:30 a.m. and went to his assistance. The bully, he said, turned on him, kicking him in the groin and beating him about the face.

Savelli lost consciousness and did not awaken until he was at the hospital, police said.

He said he knew his assailant but would not press charges.

The carnival is being operated by West Coast Shows under a permit issued to the Corte Madera Lions Club. It is to raise funds for the Lions Club's recreation program. It opened Wednesday and is to run through Sunday.

According to Savelli, the bully was not a carnival employee.

Chamber Slate Set For Ballot For Novato

A 10-candidate slate for five openings on the Novato Chamber of Commerce board of directors was presented to the board yesterday by the nominating committee.

Ballots will be mailed to members on April 29, to be returned by May 9 and counted on May 12.

Those nominated were: Mrs. Elsie Andersen, owner of Andersen Motors, Inc.; Sgt. Otto Haiungs, of the Novato Police Department; Eldon Hasstedt, Standard service station owner; Jack Kinney, manager of Novato Manor convalescent home; Harold McAfee, owner of McAfee's department store; F. James Picchi, owner of Mission Realty; Ross Tankersley, owner of Tankersley's Realty; Leo Wasset, regional director of Commercial State Life Insurance Co.; Lee Wise, Novato manager for Pacific Gas and Electric Co., and David Young, owner of Young Brothers furniture store.

The Novato Chamber of Commerce board also:

1. Asked for a study of the loss of parking places on the realignment of the east side of Highway 101 south of Grant Avenue.

2. Asked all service clubs to participate in the May 19 Armed Forces Day luncheon at Nave Lanes.

3. Set for May 26 an all-day tour of the Richmond refinery and new San Francisco offices of Standard Oil Co. of California.

4. Approved the Chamber of Commerce being host to a 9:30 a.m. breakfast April 16 for all persons who will participate in Novato's citywide cleanup campaign.

County Official Prepares New Fire Safety Provisions

Marin County's chief building inspector, Hans Berge, said today he will recommend changes in the building code to slow down spread of fire in such blazes as that which took the life of a 7-year-old Lucas Valley girl March 22.

Berge, asked by county supervisors to study possible changes in the code, said he will recommend an incombustible backing where certain thicknesses of plywood are used for partitions.

He has gathered information from the National Board of Fire Underwriters and other sources and will work out details of his recommendation soon. He said his recommendations will probably go to the board of supervisors April 19.

"We've got to slow down the spread of fire," Berge said.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom reported he is still awaiting reports from the board of fire underwriters laboratory that might lead to the cause of the fire in the Lawrence K. Fong home at 9 Mount Rainier Drive. Rebecca Ellen Fong died in the fire.

Berge earlier declared the fire was not caused by a faulty 220-volt electrical panel. It was wiring in this panel to melt and the heat of the fire which caused arc, Berge explained.

Four Months Given In Stealing

James F. Young, 40., formerly of Mill Valley, was sentenced to four months in Sonoma County Jail and five years probation Tuesday for stealing $10,345 worth of insurance premiums paid him by the city of Petaluma in 1964.

Young pleaded guilty in February to pocketing a check paid by the city as its premium for a three-year insurance county.

Superior Court Judge Lincoln F. Mahan ordered him to make any restitution demanded by the Travelers Insurance Co., which absorbed the city's loss.

He was an agent for the company until the theft was discovered late in 1964. He and his family disappeared after that, and he was arrested last September in Roanoke, Va., by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Meeting Scheduled To Restart Troop

Persons interested in reactivating Sausalito Boy Scout Troop 8 will meet at 7:30 p.m., April 19, at the Sausalito Presbyterian Church. At that time a scoutmaster is expected to be selected and a committee will inevstigate getting the troop officially registered.

A meeting to reactivate the group was held Tuesday night at which it was decided the Presbyterian Church would be sponsor, reported Woodrow W. Smith, Redwood District scout executive.

Cyclist Cited After Accidents

Two young motorcyclists from San Francisco were injured at 11 a.m. yesterday on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near White's Hill when one couldn't negotiate a dip in the road and the other went off the road trying to help him.

Richard K. Benjamin, 17, was thrown from his cycle when it hit the dip going downhill. Paul Stearns, 18, who was following him, tried to stop to help Benjamin. His cycle hit the same dip and went off the road.

Both were treated for multiple cuts and bruises at Marin General Hospital. Both were cited by the California Highway Patrol for unsafe speed.

Two Egg Hunts Due Tomorrow

There will be an Easter egg hunt at the Marinwood Community Center at 10 a.m. and one at the Terra Linda Recreation Center 11 a.m. tomorrow.

The Marinwood hunt, sponsored by the Marinwood Community Services District, will also feature a live bunny rabbit and Jo Jo the Clown. The Funsters, the Marinwood senior citizen group, will help stage the hunt. It will be for children 4 years old and up.

The Terra Linda egg hunt is sponsored by the Terra Linda Recreation and Parks District. Children ages 3 through 9 years may participate. Also in the hunt will be youngsters in the handicapped recreation program at the Terra Linda Center.

If you thought courteous automobile salesmen had vanished . . .

We know where they went

HERE!

Did you every wonder what happened to the car salesman who didn't try to push you into an automobile the minute you walked into the door? Well, here at Marin Chrysler-Plymouth, the old-fashioned courteous, friendly salesman found a home. And our customers have found a dealership where it's a pleasure to shop for a new or used car, without feeling 'pressured. And after the sales, Marin Chrysler-Plymouth follows-up with quick and thorough service on all cars sold. We call our Special service . . . CUSTOMER CARE . . . and it means just that. We do care about our customers long after the sale. Our best customers are those that will come back for a second and third car in the years to come. So if you're ready for the good old-fashioned friendly automobile dealership, stop in this week at Marin Chrysler-Plymouth. We're open weekdays from 8:00 A.M. to 9 P.M., and on Saturdays and Sundays from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.

111—Used Imported & Spts. Cars for Sale

A USED CAR GUARANTEE WITHOUT ANY "YOU PAY HALF, WE PAY HALF" NONSENSE
★ ★ ★ ★

MOST used car dealers sell their cars with 50-50 guarantees. YOU know the deal; if anything goes WRONG, YOU PAY HALF the cost of parts & labor. And THEY do the same.

Well, WE don't sell used cars THAT WAY. WE GUARANTEE the REPAIR or REPLACEMENT of ALL major mechanical parts* for 30 DAYS or 1,000 MILES. There is NO CHARGE for PARTS, LABOR, ANYTHING.

WE FIXED the things that needed fixing BEFORE we put THESE used cars up for sale.

They have ALL passed a tough 16-POINT SAFETY & PERFORMANCE TEST. They're reconditioned & ready to roll.

IN SHORT: A car with a 100% GUARANTEE costs no more in the beginning. And WON'T drive you to the Poor House in the end.

*Engine, Transmission, Rear Axle, Front Axle Assemblies, Brake System, Electrical System.

No. 513 Mar. 18, 25, Apr. 1, 8, 1966

NOTICE OF DATE FIXED FOR SUBMITTING ARGUMENTS ON SCHOOL DISTRICT MEASURES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that at an election to be held in LAGUNITAS SCHOOL DISTRICT of Marin County, California, on June 7, 1966, there will be submitted to the voters the following measures:

1. Shall the Lagunitas School District incur a bonded indebtedness in the sum of $200,000.00 for the purpose of raising money for the following purposes (which are hereby united and shall be voted upon as one single proposition) to-wit:
   (a) The purchasing of school lots.
   (b) The building or purchasing of school buildings.
   (c) The making of alterations or additions to the school building or buildings other than such as may be necessary for current maintenance, operation or repairs.
   (d) The repairing, restoring or rebuilding of any school building damaged, injured or destroyed by fire or other public calamity.
   (e) The supplying of school buildings and grounds with furniture, equipment or necessary apparatus of a permanent nature.
   (f) The permanent improvement of the school grounds.
   (g) The carrying out of the projects or purposes authorized in Section 15-811 of the Education Code?
2. Shall the governing board of the Lagunitas School District be authorized (1) to accept and expend an apportionment from the State of California under and subject to the provisions of Chapter 10 of Division 14 of the Education Code, which amount is subject to repayment as provided by said chapter, or (2) to enter into an agreement or agreements with the State pursuant to Section 19579.1 of the Education Code, which will at the time of such agreement or agreements (or at the time of any subsequent act of the governing board, or for which it is responsible, contemplated or permitted thereby) commit the district to a total expenditure in connection with all such agreements of not more than $400,000.00, or both?

Arguments for or against said measures may be submitted to the County Superintendent of Schools at his office at the Civic Center, San Rafael, California, not later than April 21, 1966, which has been determined by the County Superintendent of Schools under the authority of Section 1462 of the Education Code to be a reasonable date based upon the time reasonably necessary to prepare and submit the arguments. No argument shall exceed 300 words in length. Arguments may be submitted by the governing board of the district or a member or members authorized by it, any individual voter, any bona fide association of citizens or any combination of such voters and citizens.

Pursuant to Sections 1461 to 1463 of the Education Code, one argument for and one argument against each measure will be selected for printing and distribution to the voters with the card notice of election. Preference and priority in selection will be given to arguments of the following, in the order named:

(1) A member or members authorized by the governing board.
(2) Bona fide associations of citizens.
(3) Individual voters.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that at an election to be held in FAIRFAX SCHOOL DISTRICT of Marin County, California, on June 7, 1966, there will be submitted to the voters the following measure:

Shall the proposed increase in the maximum tax rate from $2.05 to $2.70, such rate to be in effect in the FAIRFAX SCHOOL DISTRICT for an indefinite period, be authorized? If said maximum tax rate is not increased, a maximum tax rate of $2.05 will be in effect for an indefinite period.

Arguments for or against said measure may be submitted to the County Superintendent of Schools at his office at the Civic Center, San Rafael, California, not later than April 21, 1966, which has been determined by the County Superintendent of Schools under the authority of Section 1462 of the Education Code to be a reasonable date based upon the time reasonably necessary to prepare and submit the arguments. No argument shall exceed 300 words in length. Arguments may be submitted by the governing board of the district or a member or members authorized by it, any individual voter, any bona fide association of citizens or any combination of such voters and citizens.

Pursuant to Sections 1461 to 1463 of the Education Code, one argument for and one argument against each measure will be selected for printing and distribution to the voters with the card notice of election. Preference and priority in selection will be given to arguments of the following, in the order named:

(1) A member or members authorized by the governing board.
(2) Bona fide associations of citizens.
(3) Individual voters.

Dated: April 1, 1966.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS
BID NO. 247

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education, governing body of the San Rafael City School District, State of California, will receive bids for the construction of roadway improvements and related work at Main Drive adjacent to the Glenwood Elementary School in the City of San Rafael, California. Each bid or proposal to be in accordance with plans, drawings, specifications, and other contract documents now on file in the Office of the Superintendent of Schools, for said school district, in the Administration Building, "E" Street at Third Street, San Rafael, Marin County, California, where they may be examined, and with Whitlow, Hoffman & Albritton, 29 Mary Street, San Rafael, California, and copies of same may be obtained by General Contractors from said engineer upon payment of ten dollars ($10.00) per set.

Bidders are hereby further notified that pursuant to the Statutes of State of California or local laws thereto applicable, it shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom the contract is awarded to pay not less than the general prevailing hourly wage rate, per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which the work is to be performed.

A schedule of the prevailing rates has been approved by the Board of Education of the said school district, and is filed with the Secretary of said Board in the offices of the San Rafael City Schools District, and said schedule is hereby referred to and by such reference incorporated herein and made a part hereof as fully as though set forth in length.

Each bid shall be made out on a form to be obtained at the office of said engineer at the address hereinabove set forth; shall be accompanied by a certified, or cashier's check or bid bond for not less than ten (10) percent of the amount bid, made payable to the order of the said San Rafael City Schools District, shall be sealed and filed with the said Superintendent of Schools, at his office on or before ten o'clock a.m. Friday, April 15, 1966, and will be opened and publicly read aloud on Friday, April 15, 1966, at or about 3:30 p.m. in the office of said Superintendent.

The above mentioned check or bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into the contract if awarded to him, and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into said contract after being requested to do so by the said school board.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a Faithful Performance Bond in the amount of one hundred percent (100%) of the contract price, and a Labor and Materials Bond in the amount of fifty percent (50%) of the contract price; said bonds to be secured from a surety company satisfactory to the school board.

The school board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to waive any informality in a bid, or to award a contract on the basis of the proposal which serves the best interest of the school district.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty (30) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

Date bids will be received: Friday, April 15, 1966.

Signed: /s/ Bert C. Corona
Clerk of the Board of Education

The funds realized from the proceeds of sale of said bonds shall be expended for the purpose set forth above in the following manner:

$2,000,000.00 thereof will be expended within the corporate limits of cities for the purposes set forth in said measure in accordance with the provisions of applicable law, including Government Code Section 29901.5 and or Government Code Sections 25550, et seq.

$1,800,000.00 thereof will be expended solely for the acquisition of land and interests therein, open areas, easements and rights-of-way, located within the unincorporated areas of the County, for recreational, park and beach purposes.

$300,000.00 thereof will be expended within the Gallinas Village Community Services District, Marin City Community Services District, Marinwood Community Services District, Strawberry Recreation District, and Terra Linda Parks-Recreation District, for the purposes set forth in said measure.

The remainder of said funds will be expended within the unincorporated areas of the county for the purposes set forth in said measure.

Section 2. (a) This Board of Supervisors does hereby submit to the qualified electors of said county at said special county bond election said measure for the issuance of said bonds, and hereby designates and refers to said measure in the form hereinabove set forth as the measure to be set forth on the ballots hereinafter prescribed for use at said special county bond election.

(b) Said special county bond election shall be held and conducted, and the votes thereat received and canvassed, and the returns thereof made and the result thereof ascertained and determined as herein provided, and in all particulars not prescribed by this resolution and order said election shall be held as nearly as practicable in conformity with the election laws of the State of California and only qualified voters of said county may vote thereat.

(c) Said special county bond election hereby called shall be and is hereby consolidated with the State of California Direct Primary Election to be held throughout said County on Tuesday, June 7, 1966, all as required by and pursuant to law; and the election precincts, polling places and voting booths shall in every case be the same and there shall be only one set of election officers in each of such precincts. The election precincts, polling places and officers of election for said special county bond election shall be the same as those designated in the notice designating the precincts, polling places and election officers in said county for said Direct Primary Election to be published by the County Clerk of said county as required by law, to which notice reference is hereby specifically made for a designation of the precincts, polling places and election officers for said special county bond election. The polls for said Direct Primary Election and for said special county bond election hereby consolidated therewith shall be opened at 7:00 o'clock A.M. (Cal. D.S.T.) on the date of said elections and shall be kept open until 8:00 o'clock P.M. (Cal. D.S.T.) of said day, when the polls shall be closed, except as provided in Elections Code Section 14436.

(d) Only one form of ballot and ballot card shall be used at said State of California Direct Primary Election and said special county bond election hereby consolidated therewith, which in addition to all other matters required by law to be printed thereon, shall state the measure set forth in section 1 hereof. To vote in favor of said measure hereby submitted and to authorize the incurring of the indebtedness in said measure set forth, each elector shall punch the ballot card in the hole after the words "BONDS-YES" on the ballot to the right of said measure. To vote against said measure hereby submitted and against the incurring of the indebtedness in said measure set forth, each elector shall punch the ballot card in the hole after the words "BONDS-NO" on the ballot to the right of said measure.

(e) The County Clerk shall supply ballots, ballot cards and stationery and all other things necessary for the conduct of said elections to the proper officers of election.

(f) The returns of said Direct Primary Election and said special county bond election hereby consolidated therewith shall be made out and signed by the election officers and shall be by them deposited with the County Clerk together with the ballot cards cast at said elections, and this Board of Supervisors shall cause said returns to be canvassed by the County Clerk and shall declare the results of said elections at the time and in the manner provided by law.

Section 3. (a) The amount of bonds proposed to be issued by Marin County, in the event that said Measure (A) shall carry at said election is $4,300,000. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding six per cent per annum, paybale semi-annually (except that interest for the first year after the date of said bonds may be made payable at the end of said year).

(b) If at said special county bond election said Measure shall receive the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the electors of said county voting on such measure at said special county bond election, then bonds of Marin County in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding the amount specified in said measure may be issued for the purpose therein set forth.

Section 4. Notice of said special county bond election herein provided for shall be given by publication of this resolution and order in the following newspaper, to wit: the Independent-Journal (which this Board hereby finds and declares to be a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in Marin County), once a week for at least four (4) weeks prior to the holding of said special county bond election, and the Clerk of this Board is hereby ordered and directed to cause this resolution and order to be so published. No other notice of the election hereby called need be given.

SECTION 5. This resolution and order shall take effect immediately.

The foregoing resolution and order was passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Marin County, State of California, on Tuesday, the 1st day of March, 1966, by the following vote:

AYES: SUPERVISORS William A. Gnoss, Ernest N. Kettenhofen, Byron W. Leydecker

NOES: None

ABSENT: SUPERVISORS Peter H. Behr, Thomas T. Storer

U.S. Warriors Require Many Backup Men

By DONALD ZYLSTRA
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — For every man assigned to a U.S. combat division in Viet Nam at least two other men are needed in direct support outfits to keep him supplied and fighting. When support troops at permanent bases in the United States are included, the ratio rises to 3 to 1.

The typical United States Army infantry division of 15,000 men grows to 18,000 when assigned to Viet Nam. The total division force—the combat division plus the units supporting it—numbers about 52,000 for each division in southeast Asia, compared with 45,000 in Europe.

Roughly half the men in an infantry division are assigned to fight with its seven to 10 infantry battalions. The rest of the division's troops are in aviation, engineering, signal and light artillery battalions. Normal battalion strength is 880 men.

Many of the Army forces in the United States and Europe perform their tasks independent of any division organization, accounting for the 3 to 1 ratio.

The Army furnishes forces for U.S. air defense, support for the Air Force, and large groups of officers and men to train recruits and manage reserve units.

In Europe, the Army furnishes men for NATO air defense, to garrison Berlin, keep custody of U.S. nuclear weapons, guard NATO bases and even to provide fire support for German and Italian divisions lacking their own support troops to carry out NATO assignments. Many units are organized to support military assistance programs overseas in foreign countries.

The large number of support troops needed to keep American combat soldiers fighting is often compared unfavorably with the armies of Russia, Communist China or other nations.

For instance, present estimates place the total strength of the Soviet Army at about 2 million men. This number includes 140 divisions, according to Russian figures. Even if all the troops were distributed in these divisions, each Soviet division with its support forces could number only 15,000 men—less than a third of the 52,000 needed for each American division in Viet Nam.

But fewer than half of the Soviet divisions even approach full strength. Many others lack even a graction of their planned forces.

Best estimates show that a Soviet division of 10,000 or more men is backed by 26,000 support forces. Many of these support forces are reserve units, available to the Soviet Army on short notice.

Not only does the smaller Soviet Army division need less support, it usually fights with much shorter supply lines than its U.S. counterpart.

Unlike the Soviet Union or Communist China, the United States, with its ocean frontiers, must equip its forces and support them for duty thousands of miles overseas. To date, the leading Communist states have equipped their forces to fight only short distances beyond their borders.

Drive Shaft Stolen

When Colin H. Sparks of 111 Clayton Street, Apt. B, San Rafael, stepped on the gasoline pedal in his car yesterday, he thought the motor was going to take off, he told police. Looking under the 1956 station wagon, he discovered someone had removed the drive shaft, worth about $25.

Condition Fair

Anita Giorgi, 76, of 38 Taylor Drive, Fairfax, was listed in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital after Fairfax firemen were called to her home at 2:15 a.m. today when she complained of difficulty in breathing. Hospital officials said she had a history of heart ailment.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Working Usually Is Possible After Coronary Thrombosis

VAN DELLEN

Can a man work after recovering from a coronary thrombosis? Yes, depending upon the severity of his heart attack and whether working leads to chest pain, shortness of breath, or an irregularity of the beat. Those doing heavy manual work and those whose job involves considerable mental stress may need to make adjustments.

Statistics vary on the percentage of men returning to work after surviving one heart attack. In a recent survey among 212 London workers under age 60, 55 per cent were back at work within three months and 82 per cent within six months. At one year only seven were still off work. One in seven changed jobs and this is understandable because most of them did heavy labor before the attack. There was no evidence that working was harmful to the heart regardless of occupation.

Some of these persons died and others had a recurrence in the three years following the initial attack but again, there was no evidence that returning to work had any adverse effect. There were many other factors having a greater influence on the outcome than work.

Fatigue should be avoided. These individuals can do an honest day's work but should use discretion about extramural activities. Cigarette smoking is related to coronary disease and should be avoided.

Weight reduction is important in the obese. In addition, avoid foods with a high content of fat and cholesterol. The outcome is worse among those with coexisting high blood pressure, but this is nullified by drugs that lower the tension.

WHAT ABOUT retirement? Those nearing the age of retirement may have good reason to do so early, but a heart attack need not be a cause if the persons wants to continue working.

In an American report involving 415 persons of both sexes, ranging in age from 30 to 89, the over-all rate of return to work after the first attack was 59 per cent. In another report, 82 per cent of 184 employees, aged 25 to 64 resumed work. All agreed that it provides a psychological boost and minimizes the chance of becoming a cardiac neurotic. Those who continue to have symptoms may consider the possibility of corrective surgery.

ECZEMA AND ASTHMA

REPLY

A certain number of youngsters with eczema develop asthma, but the possibility can be minimized by eliminating or avoiding the offending agents. Common allergens include house dust, animal dander, wool, and certain foods.

UNFEELING THROAT

Mrs. H. W. writes: Why is it that I have lost the sense of feeling in my throat when I eat food or drink liquids?

REPLY

CHOCOLATE MILK

Mrs. B. C. writes: Does adding chocolate to milk destroy its food value?

REPLY

No. Chocolate increases the caloric content of the drink because of the added carbohydrate and fat.

CAUSE OF DEATH

M. J. writes: What do people mostly die from?

REPLY

Heart disease and allied cardiovascular disorders.

SMOKING, ASTHMA

M. V. writes: Does smoking make asthma worse?

REPLY

Yes, because it has an irritating effect on the mucous membranes of the bronchi.

BURDENSOME

S. J. writes: Is it safe to marry a man who has been told he has schizophrenia?

REPLY

It is safe, but at this time it may not be wise. Marriage increases responsibilities and his condition might be aggravated by this added burden.

VITAMINS

G. M. writes: Will taking vitamins help nervousness?

REPLY

No, because nervousness is not brought on by a vitamin deficiency. On the other hand, if nervousness results from lack of energy and pep, improvement may follow when vitamins have a tonic effect.

FALLING HAIR

Mrs. W. writes: Soon after the birth of my baby my hair started falling out in bunches. What would cause this loss?

REPLY

The cause is not known, but there is a good chance that the hair will return. There may be some maladjustment of hormone balance after pregnancy that could be responsible for falling hair. However, a somewhat similar phenomenon occurs after a high temperature, surgery, or nervous shock.

Marriage Has Legal Problems

Only among the very well off, as a rule, do the bride and bridegroom say before they marry: "Let's see a lawyer first."

Agreements made before marriage cover much ground that could otherwise cause disputes, for example, the faith in which the children will grow up, or the ownership or distribution of the couple's property in the event of a divorce or death, particularly when it is not the first marriage for one or both parties.

The law calls for all such prenuptial contracts to be in writing. As a rule, it is likely to prevent legal headaches.

Even without written agreements, many legal results flow from a marriage. There is, of course, the man's and wife's rights and the duties toward each other in such things as support.

Like large firms, the family "business" may call for contracts, credit, buying and selling of land, injuries to others, injuries to the family, rights and duties toward children, and questions of taxes, inheritance, estates, and property acquired during marriage.

Quite an order!

The state has a stake in any marriage contract. Hence, no couple can marry except as the state says. If the man and woman are single and otherwise qualified, the county clerk will issue them a license. Then they may have their marriage formalized, usually in a civil or religious ceremony.

One does not need the consent of one's parents, if the man is 21 years old, and girl, 18. Men over 18 and girls over 16 may marry if one or both parents, or a guardian consents. One can marry even younger. Besides parental written consent the young man or woman needs permission from a superior court judge.

The courts may annul a marriage if the couple gained parental consent by fraud. One young man under 18, for example, told his parents that he was about to become the father of his fiancee's child. For this reason, the father gave his consent to the marriage. Later he found that the girl had actually been pregnant before his son met her. He then successfully sued to [illegible] the court annul the marri[illegible]

JAPAN'S BULLET TRAIN

In America the idea of a high speed train is still a dream on the drawing board. In Japan it's a reality.

Japanese "Bullet Trains" average 103 miles per hour on the 342 mile run from Tokyo to Osaka. In straight stretches they cruise along at speeds as high as 130 miles per hour. As scheduling and track beds are improved, the average speed of the run is still rising.

A speedometer on the wall of the train's modern buffet car and the flashing view through the train's large windows are the only indications of speed. Passengers ride in secure comfort in plush reclining seats.

The fastest scheduled train today on the 226.6 mile run from New York to Washington, D.C., takes three hours and 35 minutes to make the trip. Japan's "Bullet Train" covers the same distance in about two hours and 13 minutes.

'Angels' File To Incorporate

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The Hell's Angel's Motorcycle Club has filed articles of incorporation with Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan, stating the organization's purpose is to engage in "promotion and advancement of motorcycle driving, motorcycle clubs, motorcycle highway safety and all phases of motorcycles and motorcycle driving."

The club stated it would issue 50 shares of stock at $10 a share and listed its directors as Jeremiah Casselman, Robert C. Wreisner and Robert E. Lowenstein, Jr., all of Los Angeles.

The announcement from Jordan's office noted it handled articles of incorporation for any group whose papers indicated its purpose were legal and proper.

Work-Furlough Plan Expanded

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Riverside county has become the second in the state to sign a contract with the state providing for placement of selected prison inmates in county jails for the purpose of work furloughs.

Under the contract, 15 state prisoners — all check offenders — will be housed in the Riverside county jail. They will be permitted to leave the jail during working hours in order to hold jobs.

San Joaquin county signed a similar agreement last month. State and local officials now are screening inmate applications for placement under the San Joaquin pact. No violent offenders are considered for the program.

Earnings of inmates who receive work furloughs are applied to jail costs, family support, and a man's additional obligations in the community. The program permits gradual transition from prison to normal community living.

Forgery Suspect Turns Self In

Richard A. Harris, 47, of 215 Bayview Street, San Rafael, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on six felony counts of forgery.

Judge Peter Allen Smith scheduled plea entry for 1:30 p.m. next Friday. Bail is $1,100.

Harris, who surrendered himself voluntarily to the sheriff's office for booking yesterday afternoon, allegedly forged checks with various signatures with intent to defraud Hoagy's Bar, 711 Fourth Street, San Rafael, with Crocker-Citizens National Bank, San Rafael, from June 23 to Jan. 19.

Human Rights Group Passes Up Meeting

The Marin County Human Rights Commission, which is in process of reorganization, did not meet last night, its regularly scheduled meeting date.

Last month commissioners approved a plan for reorganization of the commission that would reduce membership from 22 to seven.

Tiburon Master Plan Points To Be Settled

The Tiburon Planning Commission will meet Monday night to iron out areas of disagreement with the general sketch plan of Williams, Cook and Mocine, planning consultants, Chairman Stephen H. Nash said today.

Nash said the study session at 7:30 p.m. in Del Mar School would probably eliminate the firm's recommendation for a shopping center on Paradise Drive at Trestle Glen Boulevard because "we don't want it." The commission will also designate the "Blackie's pasture" area on Trestle Glen as a future recreation area and not as a civic center recommended by the firm, Nash predicted.

Lobsters Moving To West Coast

And experiments are being made here to adapt the same process to the freezing of the big, succulent Dungeness crab, a native of Pacific waters, with the idea of marketing them nationwide.

The freezing process is a by-product of the space age. It uses the cryogenic material, liquid nitrogen, with a temperature of 320 degrees below zero.

The lobsters, frozen in the shell just as they come from the cold Maine waters, now are going to hotels and restaurants.

Wilbur-Ellis Co. of San Francisco, West Coast distributors, says they should be in supermarkets by summer time.

The idea of flash freezing whole, uncooked lobsters was developed by North Atlantic Lobster Co. of South Portland, Maine. The company's freezing plant at Cape Elizabeth can process 30,000 pounds a day during the limited spring and fall seasons when quality is the highest.

The Dungeness crab, caught in California, Oregon, Washington and Alaska, is one of two commercial types taken in Pacific waters. The other is the Alaska king crab.

Experiments in flash freezing the Dungeness are being made in a machine developed by Liquid Carbonic, a division of General Dynamics, Chicago.

The device, in essence, is a long stainless steel cylinder lying on its side, not unlike a rocket resting horizontally. An endless conveyor belt carries the material to be frozen into the cylinder where it is sprayed with the super-cold liquid nitrogen, then carried to receiving trays at the other end.

Such a machine is in use by Viking Seafoods, Inc., of Boston, which processes between 28,000 and 35,000 pounds of fish fillets daily.

Collegians May Avoid Draft

WASHINGTON (UPI) —A high Army enlistment rate and overloaded training facilities are brightening the chances for college students to avoid the draft.

The Defense Department has set a June draft quota of only 15,000, a sharp drop from May's 34,600. The announcement said the reduction was ordered because heavy enlistments are expected at the end of the school year.

Surprised Selective Service officials said they had been expecting a higher June draft, and the reduced Army requirement improves the chances for avoiding a draft of college students this year.

Motorcycle Suspect Fails To Appear

Warrant for arrest of Thomas Haskell Thompson, 19, following his failure to appear in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for plea to charge of stealing a motorcycle, was issued by Judge Peter Allen Smith.

TELEVISION REVIEW

British 'Secret' Going Off Again

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —All of us who cannot bear to face life without CBS-TV's Saturday night British series, "Secret Agent," are quietly preparing ourselves for the empty days we know will soon confront us.

With the weekly, one-hour English import once again failing to make the schedule of the coming new video season, the best that we can do is hope that the network will continue, as in the past, to keep the show on tap as a future mid-season replacement.

For "Secret Agent" has turned out to be American network television's top reserve entry. Twice in the past two seasons, it has filled in at mid-season or thereabouts, and both times it has been a solid winner and commanded a large and faithful audience.

If the network should have any doubts about this, I can tell you that since it showed up again this season, I have received well over 100 letters from viewers and readers offering unsolicited praise, and now, of course, protesting the impending cancellation again.

This week's mail, for instance, brought a letter from Mrs. Dorothy Stewart of Orange Park, Fla., who vows that "my week isn't complete without my Saturday night excursion" with the British series.

"I am just captivated by the sophistication of this program," she adds. "They make every scene count."

Mrs. Stewart, however, is no more devoted to "Secret Agent" than are many others, among them an enthusiastic fellow named Fred Wilson, of Brooklyn, N.Y., who writes:

"Unfortunately, I understand this truly terrific show is not returning in the fall. Why? What's wrong with CBS? . . ."

"Patrick McGoohan (star of the series) is a most convincing spy and the scripts are quite realistic.

"Could you please put in a good word for all of us who faithfully watch 'Secret Agent' (and even the commercials too!)? . . . ."

There are other letter writers, of course, and some of them are quite helpful. For example, we recently noted that the second weekly episodes of ABC-TV's "Batman" series, which airs Wednesday and Thursdays, get higher ratings than the first on a regular basis.

Mrs. Ronald R. Black of Perry, Ohio, writes convincingly, and with good logic: "It is not a curiosity that the ratings reveal the conclusions are watched more than the beginnings of the 'Batman' stories. The fact is that everyone I know has children (myself included) who watch 'Lost in Space' on another network during part one of 'Batman.'"

Day Nursery Among Topics For Hearings

A clinic, day nursery and marina wil be among proposed developments before Marin County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill at hearings Monday, beginning at 9:30 a.m., at the Civic Center.

Scheduled for 10 a.m. is a hearing on Maurice C. Smith's application for a permit for a clinic at 908 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Kentfield.

At 10:30 a.m., Cordill will hold a hearing on the application of W. F. Reece, who wants to establish a day care nursery at 554 Marin Avenue in Tamalpais Valley.

Transit Board To Weigh Tolls

The Marin Transit District board is expected next Wednesday to take a stand on the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District board's consideration of higher bridge tolls.

The Marin board will meet at 8 p.m. at the Civic Center.

Also on the agenda is ratification of an agreement with consultants Coverdale and Colpitts of New York on a transit bus study for the county.

Foster Homes Needed

More foster homes are needed for placement of children in the county public social services program. Anyone interested in caring for a child, may call Annie Jameson at the Department of Public Social Services at the county Civic Center.

Confidence, Dedication—Nicklaus Hard Man To Catch

By RON SPEER

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus is determined to win the Masters for a boyhood pal killed in a plane crash, and even such feared challengers as Arnold Palmer concede the defending champion will be hard to catch.

"The 68 Jack shot was damn good considering the wind," Palmer said of Nicklaus' opening charge yesterday in the 30th annual golf tournament. "If the wind dies down, it will be tough to catch him.

"If the wind continues like it was in the first round, however, you just never know what will happen. You can't tell how the scores will be."

Nicklaus, trying to become the first to win back-to-back titles, apparently has no doubts how the tournament will go.

"The loss of Bob Barton made me determined to play well for him," Nicklaus said. "I've pretty well made up my mind how I'll play this week.

"He and I started playing golf together, and his death was a great personal loss to me," Nicklaus said of the Columbus, Ohio, friend who died in a plane crash in Tennessee along with Mrs. Barton and another couple, who were flying to Georgia to watch Nicklaus play.

Nicklaus said that he never was able to concentrate strictly on golf during the round. "I have been sick to my stomach ever since I heard about the crash," he said.

However, Nicklaus carved four strokes off par over the long Augusta National layout buffeted by gusty winds, and took a three-stroke lead over the field.

The 26-year-old Golden Bear, who tamed the course with a record 271 a year ago for his second Masters triumph, said he was helped by some lucky breaks en route to his 68.

"Talk about luck," Nicklaus said. "I hooked my tee shot on one and it went into the ninth fairway. I hit a four iron 25 feet from the pin, and sank it for a birdie.

"On 13, I drove into the trees, but the ball went right through into the fairway, and I got another birdie.

Nicklaus, who never had a bogey, shot one stroke above his opening score a year ago, but this year's weather was much worse.

Palmer, a four-time winner who opened with a 74, said, "The wind certainly makes the course play difficult. But I just didn't play well. I got to waving at the ball on the back nine most of the time."

Other top names buried back in the pack with 74s were Ben Hogan, Tony Lema, Doug Sanders, Gay Brewer Jr., and Gary Player, 1961 Masters champion who was helped by what he called "the best golf shot I've ever seen."

On the par 3 12th hole, he lodged his tee shot in the mud of a bunker, then flipped the ball into the hole for a birdie.

"All I was trying to do was move the ball," Player said. "I could hit that shot a million times and never even get the ball on the green."

Player said he was bothered by the wind, which baffled the field of 103 most of the day. Only five players broke par, and Nicklaus was the only golfer without a bogey.

Tied for second were amateur Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City, and veteran pros Don January, Mike Souchak and Billy Casper. All shot 71s, although Coe said he had no hopes of winning the title, which never has been won by an amateur.

"I'm liable to go out and shoot an 85 Friday," said Coe, former National Amateur champion who reluctantly admits he's 42.

Casper's spurt came in his first tournament bid since a trip to Viet Nam, where he played golf and entertained troops. January and Souchak would like nothing better than to keep in the forefront. Neither has won a tournament in the past two years.

The field will be trimmed to the low 44 and ties and anyone within 10 shots of the leader after Friday's round, with the survivors battling another 18 holes Saturday and Sunday, when the final holes will be nationally televised.

Oakland's Al Davis Named AFL Commissioner

JIM MURRAY

Why Big Three Dominates Masters: No Competition

My friends Davey Marr and Arnold Palmer are going to hate me for this.

IT'S TOO bad to put a public links field in this glorious panorama. I know some guys teeing it up at Augusta who couldn't win the low gross at Griffith Park in the Butternut Coffee Convention.

You will notice the truth-seekers of our time, the town-criers of the press-box, are always looking for reasons why the same cast of characters always finish 1-2-3 in this tournament. It used to be Nelson and Hogan. Then Snead and Hogan. Then Palmer and Player. Then Palmer, Player, and Nicklaus.

IT MUST be the course, they say. It's not the course. It's the competition. There ain't any.

Look! How would you like to see an all-star baseball game with the 1934 batting champion batting clean-up? Pay to see Carl Hubbell start the first game of the world Series, would you? Like to see a fight between Jack Sharkey and Cassius Clay? The Humane Society would raid the joint.

OR, PERHAPS you think the top ERA pitcher in American Legion ball could get Willie Mays out? Like hell you do.

The Masters starts out by letting all former winners—provided they are still alive—get in. Then it goes to the U.S. Open champion for 10 years, the PGA champions for 10 years—which is O.K., provided a guy wins it before his 40th birthday. Otherwise, the 1966 winner will be showing up for the 1977 Masters in a wheelchair with a round-the-clock nurse.

YOU GET the entire Walker Cup team. These are a bunch of high-class refugees from a string of polo ponies who play the stock market more than they play golf. The only thing they can play Arnold Palmer even-up is openend investments. And I'm not too sure of that.

The British Walker Cup team are a bunch of beauts. You'd give them two a side at Rancho. A hustler would send home for money.

THE U.S. Amateur champion gets in this thing for 10 years. Robert J. Murphy Jr. makes it till 1976. How's that for a thrill? Do you think Arnold Palmer runs up to check the scoreboard every few shots to see if Robert J. Murphy Jr. is closing in on him?

The Masters doesn't stop there. The first EIGHT finishers in the U.S. Amateur make the field at Augusta. Thomas W. Barnes Jr., Ronald J. Cerrudo, James A. Grant and Cear Senudo get a chance to out-drive Jack Nicklaus.

THESE GUYS are just invited spectators. I leave off the Formosa champions, the Hong Kong four-ball specialists and the player who Jimmy Demaret predicted one year would be "low Mexican" in the field. You get the message. The men are playing against the boys—and there are more of the boys.

IT'S NOT a tournament, it's an exhibition. It's Big Three Golf, live and in color. Those other cats are just dress extras—market analysts, car salesmen, dentists, psychiatrists, members of Parliament. Golfers? No. The Tucson Open offers Arnie, Jack and Gary more intensive competition. They got a hundred case-hardened young pros who make the Big Three look back over their shoulders from time to time and flinch at shots because they have to play 50 guys, not two.

DON'T GET me wrong. I love the Masters. I think it's a touching salute to the past on the part of Bobby Jones and Cliff Roberts. But to pretend that an amateur can compete with a professional on equal terms in this day and age is to believe that the Confederacy will rise again — or the nickel cigar. They should change the name to the "Misters" in honor of the honorary esquires aboard on the fairways down there.

Giant Opener Lineup Set

ANAHEIM (AP) — Hal Lanier apparently will be the new San Francisco Giants lead off hitter when the National League season opens next Tuesday at Candlestick Park.

The Giants took today off because of Good Friday. They then play two more exhibitions before starting the chase toward the pennant that eluded them last year by two games.

Lanier, second baseman who batted a meek .226 in 1965, gets the large responsibility of getting on base as leadoff man so the big boppers later in the order can drive him home.

Lanier got a few batting tips this winter from pitcher Bob Shaw, who hit for less than half Lanier's average. But something must have helped Lanier. He's hitting around the .300 mark this spring and getting the ball more often into left field, instead of pushing it to his off-field.

Shortstop Tito Fuentes, who who was tried last season at leadoff, has taken Lanier's place in the eighth position.

Lanier got two singles yesterday as the Giants beat the Angels 7-3 at Palm Springs.

But it was the hitting of slump-ridden Willie McCovey that put the light in Manager Herman Franks' eyes.

McCovey jumped his average from .275 to .315 with three singles and a 400-foot home run in four trips. The singles were solid screamers that shot through the infield before the Angel defensemen could get up a glove.

Juan Marichal worked six innings and threw 91 pitches. He struck out three, walked three and gave up two runs on four singles and a double.

Bow Shaw hurled the last three innings. He wiped out the first six men he faced, then gave up a run on three singles in the ninth. Shaw walked none and struck out two Angels.

Both victims muttered something about spit as they dragged back to the dugout and here we go again in 1966.

The Giants presented what will probably be the opening day lineup as Lanier led off and played second base, followed by Len Gabrielson, lf; Willie Mays, cf; McCovey, 1b; Jim Hart, 3b; Ollie Brown, rf; Tom Haller, c; Tito Fuentes, ss, and Marichal.

San Francisco	205 000 000—7 13 2

Raiders Select Rauch As Coach

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Al Davis, head coach-general manager of the Oakland Raiders, was named today as American Football League commissioner to succeed Joe Foss.

Foss, commissioner since the league was formed six years ago, resigned yesterday without announcing his future plans.

Davis, 36, recognized throughout pro football for his organizational ability and coaching skill, transformed the Raiders from constant losers to one of the league's most respected teams in three seasons.

Rebuilding a team which had won only nine games in three previous seasons, Davis coached the Raiders to 10-4, 5-7-2 and 5-5-1 seasons, reorganized the front office and helped lead the drive to build a $30 million, 50,000 seat stadium and Coliseum which opens this year.

He joined the coaching staff at Adelphi College in 1950 in New York after his graduation from Syracuse. After a year at Adelphi he went into the Army and was named head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

He joined the staff of the National Football League's Baltimore Colts in 1954 at the age of 24. He served as line coach and recruiter at The Citadel in 1955-56.

He was hired as offensive line coach of the Los Angeles (now San Diego) Chargers in 1960.

When he was named head coach and general manager at Oakland in 1963 he was only 33 years old. He was named the AFL's Coach of the Year his first season at Oakland.

Ralph D. Wilson, president of the league and owner of the Buffalo Bills, announced Davis' selection at a news conference following executive sessions of the owners.

AL DAVIS
New AFL boss

Milt Woodard, secretary-treasurer of the league, automatically became acting commissioner at Foss's resignation, but he let it be known he was not interested in the permanent job.

"Al is endowed with the dynamic qualities and background the executive committee felt are essential to the continued growth of the league," Wilson said.

"Al's background is football—at all levels. Included are the organizational and administrative abilities that has made the Oakland Raiders one of football's finest organizations in just three years."

The Oakland Raiders immediately announced the elevation of assistant coach John

Tars Beat No-Stars, Then Bow To Shasta

College of Marin's baseballers dumped the Golden Valley Conference "no-stars" 13-1 yesterday, but lost 6-4 to Shasta College in a try for third place in the GVC tournament in Marysville.

Marin's opponent for yesterday's first game was composed of players donated by the seven tournament teams. The College of Siskiyous team from Weed couldn't make it to the tourney, so each of the other seven teams picked two men off its roster and the rag-tag team was called the "All-Stars."

But All-Stars they were not, as they got two hits off Marin pitcher Ralph Garner in the first inning and then went hitless through the next eight frames.

While Garner was mowing them down, Bill Brody got a single and double in two at bats. Lorry Galassi got a single and double in three times at the plate, Ray Valconesi got three singles in three trips, and Jerry Daniele and Fred Rodoni each collected two hits.

In the game against Shasta, Marin pitcher Jim Schmidt lost a toughie, as he did the day before against American River of Sacramento. Score in the American River game was 2-1.

Bill Kilcoyne, with two singles, and Brody with a double led the Marin attack in that Shasta game. Dan Herrera, Valconesi and Jim Timmel each had one hit. Schmidt gave up seven safeties.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Thursday's Sports In Brief
By Associated Press

GOLF

AUGUSTA, Ga. — Defending champion Jack Nicklaus, shaken by the loss of a boyhood pal and three other friends in a plane crash, shot a four-under-par 68 for a three-stroke lead in the first round of the Masters Tournament.

FOOTBALL

HOUSTON — Joe Foss resigned as commissioner of the American Football League after serving six years, four months and seven days in the "firm belief that the AFL has achieved the national acceptance we set as our goal when the league was started" in 1960.

BASEBALL

AUTO RACING

HORSE RACING

NEW YORK — Swift Lady, $14.80, closed fast along the rail and won the Tall Irish Purse at Aqueduct by a half length over Ego Twist.

BOWIE, Md. — Turf Talk, $12, hugged the rail while Horn Quarter went wide in the stretch and won the Ladies' Delight Purse at Bowie by a head.

MIAMI, Fla. — Trish M., $5.40, drew out in the stretch and won the feature at Gulfstream Park by a length over Crafty Step.

ALBANY, Calif. — Sea Smacker, $10.40, beat the favored Galvin by 2½ lengths in the Vallejo Purse at Golden Gate Fields.

Koufax, McDowell Favored To Win '66 Mound Honors

NEW YORK (UPI) —The pitching race will go to the swift in 1966 and two of the swiftest in major league baseball history—Sandy Koufax and Sam McDowell—will take home top honors.

That's the consensus of United Press International's board of experts who tabbed southpaws Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers and McDowell of the Cleveland Indians as the top hurlers in their respective leagues.

The two strikeout aces, who are among the fastest pitchers in the game, scored decisive victories in the voting by 24 of the nation's leading baseball writers. Surprisingly, however, it was Koufax who received the stiffest competitition.

Already acknowledged as one of the most brillant pitchers in baseball annals and the holder of numerous records, Koufax received nine votes, three more than San Francisco righthander Juan Marichal in National League balloting. Jim Maloney of Cincinnati, Tony Cloninger of Atlanta and Bob Gibson of St. Louis each received scattered support.

McDowell, remarkably mature for his 23 years, was a runaway choice in the American League. The 6-foot-5 fastballer earned 14 nominations to only four for runnerup Mel Stottlemyre of the Yankees. Votes also went to Jim Grant and Camilo Pascual of the Minnesota Twins, Mickey Lolich of Detroit and Dean Chance of California.

HANLEY

PALM SPRINGS — Bill Rigney watched Willie Mays and said: "I know he had a great year last season, perhaps it was considered his greatest by many, but he gets better with age. This year could be his finest."

Rigney used to say the same things about the great Giant centerfielder when he managed the Giants. "That's true," said Rigney, now manager of the Angels. "Willie has astounded every player and manager who has ever watched him. He does such amazing things you say there isn't anything he can do for an encore."

Chub Feeney, vice president of the Giants, listened to his good friend Rigney extolling Mays and smiled. "Everything you say is, of course, absolutely true," Feeney said. "But it's all been said before. Willie wears out superlatives."

WHAT DID Feeney consider Willie's greatest attribute? The self-discipline Mays imposes on himself in remaining a constant 188 pounds?

"Actually it isn't a rigid disciplining," said Feeneyy, "because Willie loves doing what he does. Anybody who has watched him through the years knows he loves baseball. So it's never a question of Willie having to whip himself into shape by any rigid routine. He just naturally is in top physical condition the year round because of his instinctive activity at golf, walking, basketball or any sport."

THERE NEVER has been any doubt that Mays loves baseball. When he was summoned to the Giants in 1951 from their farm team in Minneapolis where he had been hitting a phenomenal .477, Mays declared in almost poetic language his love of baseball.

"Baseball to me," said Mays, "is like walking through a park on a beautiful day with the birds singing."

THIS WASN'T the kind of language a reporter expected to hear from a 20-year-old young man who was born May 6, 1931, in Westfield, Ala. Yet it was to typify the kind of answers Mays spontaneously made to thousands of questions which would be put to him during the next 15 years of his major league career.

"I would have to say," said Feeney, "that one of Willie's greatest attributes is his innate ability to say the right thing at all times. It's a reflection of his basic honesty."

"BEFORE THE 1966 season is one month old Willie will reach his 35th birthday. Age ultimately is going to exact its toll but that's what everybody has been saying for the past five years ever since Mays turned 30.

"Do you really feel older?" Mays was asked.

"Man, I know I'm a year older," said Willie. "But feeling older? All I know is that I still love baseball. How can you feel old loving your job? If baseball ever got to be work for me, then I might feel different. But for now I just can't wait for the new season to start."

SPRING EXHIBITION ROUNDUP

Looks Like Cincy Made A Bad Trade

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

If Frank Robinson is an old 30, Milt Pappas must be an ancient 26.

In whipping Cincinnati 10-4, the Chicago White Sox battered Pappas for nine runs and seven hits in five innings. The right-hander also walked six and threw two wild pitches.

Pappas and Robinson were the key figures in a four-player winter trade between the Reds and Baltimore. The Reds, feeling Robinson "is not a young 30," sent the slugging outfielder to the Orioles for the 26-year-old Pappas, pitcher Jack Baldschun and outfielder Dick Simpson.

Pappas called the trade "the greatest break I've ever gotten in my life" and added:

"I should win more games with a team able to get a few more runs for me. Robinson will have a harder time hitting in the big Oriole park."

Retorted Robinson:

"Wait until Pappas tries to pitch in Crosley Field. He'll find out. Bet I come out better than he does."

The season still lies ahead, but Robinson is right so far.

While he has hit eight homers, driven in 17 runs and has a .393 batting average, Pappas has been having trouble.

The veteran of eight American League seasons has pitched 34 innings this spring, given up 17 earned runs for a 4.50 earned run average, allowed 26 hits and walked 21.

That's enough to age anyone.

Leading the White Sox attack against Pappas was Tommy Agee, who singled across two runs in the five-run third inning and socked a two- run homer in the four-run fourth.

Baltimore, meanwhile, defeated Minnesota in one of three 7-3 games. The Orioles erupted for five runs in the first inning as Twins' pitcher Camilo Pascual walked four.

Willie McCovey rapped four hits and Juan Marichal scattered five hits in six innings as San Francisco defeated California 7-3, and the New York Yankees stopped Pittsburgh by the same score with Whitey Ford holding the Pirates scoreless for the first six innings.

Bob Gibson turned in six strong innings in St. Louis' 6-4 victory over the New York Mets.

A sacrifice fly by Frank Bolling in the 16th inning sent home the winning run in Atlanta's 3-2 victory over Washington, and a ninth-inning bases-loaded walk to Ozzie Chavvarria gave Kansas City a7-6 verdict over Philadelphia.

Home runs by Jim Gentile and John Bateman carried Houston past Detroit 6-3 and Chuck Hinton hit a bases-loaded home run to power Cleveland to a 7-5 victory over Los Angeles.

Clay's Ex Beams: I'm Greatest

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "Who's the greatest now?" asked Sonji Clay, former wife of the world's heavyweight boxing champion.

She promptly announced: "I am. Me."

She collected $2,750 from her ex-husband Cassius yesterday—and the champ managed to miss a 30-day jail term. He also saved some tax money. And paid out $23,500 in legal fees.

A warrant had been issued for Clay's arrest on a contempt of court charge. Had he failed to provide the money, back alimony, the warrant would have been used.

And his former wife had said she would not sign a joint 1965 tax return without the alimony in hand. This would have upped Clay's tax bill by $78,000, according to Lawrence Huffman, Sonji's attorney.

Clay divorced Sonji in January.

"I'm just not going to get married again, never for 10 years," Sonji said yesterday. "I'm not going to let him slide out of his alimony."

Unidentified friends of the champion provided $26,250. This included alimony for the two months since Clay's divorce at $1,250 a month, legal fees of $22,500 for the divorce case, another $1,000 in legal fees for two hearings Clay didn't attend and another $250 for Sonji's expenses in returning to Miami for court action.

Rauch, 38, has been offensive backfield assistant to Davis the last three years. He previously had 14 years in collegiate and professional competition.

Wilson said the league took no action on expansion, but that additional franchises would be a major item of discussion at the regular summer meetings in June. The site of the June meeting has not been determined.

Foss announced he was resigning his $50,000 a year job as commissioner just hours after denying he planned to do so. His multi-year contract was to have expired Jan. 15, 1968.

In his four-page letter of resignation read to newsmen following a meeting of the owners, Foss gave some indication he may have grown tired of public criticism and opposition from some club owners.

He said his successor should "wear a thick hide, a soft smile and carry a sense of humor."

He also asked club owners to assure his successor of their public support at all times, "keeping within the privacy of the conference room all differences of opinion."

After his resignation, Foss, 51, a former Republican governor of South Dakota, told newsmen he had several job offers but declined to elaborate. He did not completely close the door on reentering politics.

"When I get a little older I might consider politics," he said. Of course, I'll be a little older tomorrow."

He also refused to rule football out of his future.

Antitrust Decision Due This Weekend

MILWAUKEE (AP) — White-haired Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller sealed himself in his court chambers last night as he debated the fate of baseball and the Braves in Wisconsin's anti-trust trial.

An armed deputy sheriff, wearing a sport shirt, stood in front of the judge's chambers.

"He said not even to let his nearest relative in," said the deputy.

Roller has said he hopes to hand down a verdict Saturday or Sunday.

Wisconsin, accusing the National League of violating the state's laws against monopolies, has asked that the Braves be returned from Atlanta or that Milwaukee be given an expansion team. The Braves are scheduled to open the 1966 season in Atlanta next Tuesday.

The 38-day trial ended Wednesday. Judge Roller indicated he might eat and sleep in his chambers until he finishes writing his ruling.

"You can't let this thing go on" he said. "You've got to keep at it until the decision is out."

On the other hand, he refused to commit himself on whether he would remain in his chambers through the night.

"Why don't you come up tonight at 3 a.m. and see if there is a light in the wondow?" the judge said yesterday afternoon.

A lone light showed through the window late Thursday night, but the chambers were dark by 1 a.m. today.

USC Tracksters Invade Bear Lair Tomorrow

Southern California's track and field Trojans invade the University of California tomorrow aiming particularly at ending the Bears' domination of the mile relay.

Since the start of Forrest Beaty's sophomore season at California two years ago, the Bears have won 29 straight mile relay races including two NCAA championships in the event and the team has lowered the California record to 3.07.4.

This year the Bears' best has been 3:10.7 while the Trojans have 3:11.9 with a team of Hutch Gibb, Dave Buck, Dennis Carr and Roger Wolff. This time they'll have Dwight Middleton, whose 440 time of 46.2 is the best in the Pacific Athletic Conference, running a relay leg.

On the basis of comparative meet scores, the Trojans whipped Occidental 113-30. The Bears beat the same team just 74-71.

Tribe Swaps Holdout Terry To Lowly A's

CLEVELAND (AP) — Pitcher Ralph Terry, who was the last major league holdout with the Cleveland Indians, now has to bargain with the Kansas City Athletics for a 1966 contract.

The Indians sold the 30-year-old right-hander to the Athletics yesterday for $25,000 and southpaw John O'Donoghue. Terry had refused to sign for the $31,000 offered by Indians' President Gabe Paul and wanted $38,000.

O'Donoghue, from the A's training camp in Bradenton, Fla., said the trade came as a "big surprise."

Terry was reportedly in Minneapolis on a business trip when the trade was announced and could not be reached for comment. Terry's wife, Tanya, said from their home in Larned, Kan., that she talked to him on the phone and "he seemed happy."

Terry, 11-6 with the Tribe last year, had signed his 1965 contract for $31,000, plus the chance to earn the $7,000 salary cut he took when coming to Cleveland from New York if he won enough games with the Indians.

After a good start last season, Manager Birdie Tebbetts used younger pitchers after Terry slumped and he claimed this move prevented him from getting a chance to earn the extra $7,000.

76ers Come Back To Down Celtics

By LEE LINDER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "Well, we still have the edge," said Boston Celtics' Coach Red Auerbach.

"And we're still the underdog any way you look at it," said Dolph Schayes, coach of the Philadelphia 76ers.

These were almost the hottest post-mortem comments as the two coaches surveyed the results of last night's 111-105 Philadelphia victory, its first in the finals of the National Basketball Assn.'s Eastern Division.

It cut the Celts' lead to 2-1 in the best-of-seven series that will be resumed Sunday in Boston.

That's how it stands also in the NBA's Western Division where the Los Angeles Lakers have the 2-1 edge over St. Louis with the next game Saturday night in St. Louis.

Schayes, whose 76ers beat Boston six out of ten in regular season play, said he feels Philadelphia "finally has come out of its slump, but—" and he paused for emphasis:

"You can't take these Celtics for granted. We've got to fight every game every inch of the way."

Schayes was right about that, especially as he pointed out that his 76ers almost blew a 24-point first half lead — it melted to one point at 100-99 — before Philadelphia's bread-and-butter guys, 7-foot-1 Wilt Chamberlain and outside shooter Hal Greer began swishing them through in the final five minutes.

Chamberlain came through superbly, collecting 31 points and grabbing 27 of Philadelphia's 69 rebounds. Greer's point total of 19 was below his average, but he got nine of them in the last seven minutes. Chamberlain scored five of his points with just four minutes left.

Some of the 10,454 fans were vocally disenchanted with the refereeing — and it was really at the foul line that the Celtics almost came away with the game. They shot 35 for 41, an 86 per cent clip, with Sam Jones hitting 13 for 16.

Seals In Finale On Home Ice

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Many observers around the league feel that the San Francisco Seals can take the Western Hockey League title—that is if they can get into the playoffs.

The fight for fourth place gets tighter and tighter as the WHL action moves into its final weekend.

San Francisco hosts Los Angeles tonight and calls on the Blades Saturday in the season finale. Seattle, which trails the Seals by a point, hosts Victoria tonight, Portland Saturday and must call on the Bucks Sunday in the game Seal fans hope will finish off the Totems.

For the first time, the Seals are playing with a lineup that resembles the powerful club that came out of the training camp at Edmonton in mid-October.

Coach Charlie Burns was out much of the season, but since he has returned to the ice, San Francisco has been 8-2-2. In the last 16 games, they are 11-2-3 and have closed the gap of 13 points that separated them from Seattle March 3.

The Seals were 3-1 on the recent road trip with Burns' anchoring a high-scoring attack and rookie Joe Daley a standout with solid play in the nets.

The Seals will present the Larraburu Trophy and $500 to Wayne Connelly tonight as a reward for leading the team in scoring. Awards also will go to the players named most valuable, most improved and most popular.

Ron Shock is back from Boston to help out the attack and Gerry Brisson, who missed the last road trip, is expected to return for at least limited action. Wayne Maxner, who has been red hot of late, has a pulled thigh muscle and may have to sit out the contest.

Red Hot Redwood Nine Wins Again

Redwood High School's baseball team, fresh from capturing the Pacific High School tournament Wednesday in San Leandro, yesterday downed McClatchy High in Sacramento, 4-2, in a practice game.

Bill Poole, Redwood southpaw, struck out seven, walked four and allowed only three hits in going the distance. McClatchy hurler Pat Fall, showing the Marin boys a blazing fast ball, whiffed 17 batters, gave up only two hits, but had control problems and gave up 8 walks. Those free bases were Fall's fall.

Then in the Redwood sixth, Fall walked the bases loaded. Giant second baseman Jay Capell doubled home two of the runners and first sacker Tom Weirick singled home the other. So all four of Redwood's runs were scored by players who were given free transportation to first base.

Redwood, after playing four games in four days, and winning them all, gets some needed rest before getting back to Marin Athletic League action next Tuesday against Tamalpais, at Redwood.

Trojans Defeat Hogan '9'

Fred Daniele's seventh inning bases loaded single gave Terra Linda Trojans a victory over Hogan of Valleje, 3-2, yesterday in practice action at Albert Field, San Rafael.

Steve Congdon's pinch hit single in the fifth tied the score at 1-1, and Daniele crashed a solo homer in the sixth, putting the Trojans on top by a run; but Hogan scored again in the bottom of the seventh, making it a brand new ball game with half an inning to go. But with three on and no one down in the Trojan half of the seventh, Daniele rapped his single, scoring winning pitcher Cris Calhoon from third base.

Calhoon relieved starter Ed Beckley in the third after the tough Trojan hurler had whiffed 5 and allowed just one run.

Hogan loaded the bigs in the fourth but Calhoon, who fanned but two, came out of the inning unmarked by getting the next man to bunt into a force out at the plate, and striging out the next two batters. The Trojans, with an 8-3 overall mark and a 1-0 Marin Athletic League record, invade Novato for a league game next Tuesday, 4 p.m.

Marin Catholic Blanks Poly, 3-0

Ben Burch and Tom Schalick combined to toss a four-hit shutout as Marin Catholic's baseballers downed Polytechnic of San Francisco, 3-0, yesterday on the winners' diamond in Kentfield.

Burch went the first three innings, allowing just one hit and fanning 3, and Schalick whiffed 8 while yielding but three hits, striking out the side in the fourth and sixth. Schalick was just recently brought up from the J.V. squad.

The Wildcats scored 2 runs in the first inning with Tony Quadros and Bob Lombardi doing the damage, and Rick Denning knocked home the 'Cats final tally in the second.

Joe Adams, the Wildcat second baseman who has yet to make a fielding error in 12 games, collected two hits in three trips to the plate.

The Wildcats now have a 5-6 overall record and a 1-0 Marin Athletic League standing, and will be trying to increase that mark next Tuesday against Drake High, at 4 p.m., on Marin's home field.

Drake Drops A Pair, Including No-Hitter

Joe Martinez, a pitcher who is used primarily in relief, spun a neat no-hitter yesterday against Drake High to give Woodrow Wilson of San Francisco a 7-0 triumph over the Pirates in the first game of a practice doubleheader at Silver Terrace Field, San Francisco.

So swing, swing, swing, miss, miss, was the story for the Pirates in that first game, but it was two costly errors which hurt the Drake team in the second one.

Wilson scored twice in the first inning, but catcher Don Alvarado ripped a two-run single to right field to tie it to 2-2 in the fourth. Then, as oft happens—even to teams as great as the once "unbeatable" New York Yankess—two crucial sixth inning errors put the Pirates two runs down again, and their seventh inning rally fell short of a score.

Bill Grooms notched the win while Ralph Asay did an excellent job for the Pirates against the city boys—who have a 6-0 league mark—giving up just 5 scattered hits through the seven inning game.

Chicago, Montreal Win In Playoffs

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Big Jean Beliveau of the Montreal Canadiens and Bobby Hull, the Chicago Black Hawks' Blond Bomber, were hockey heroes in their hometowns today after sending their teams into the leads in the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup semifinals.

Beliveau, named the outstanding player during Montreal's winning Cup performance last year, scored with 2:12 left to play and gave the Canadiens a 4-3 victory over Toronto in their opening game at the Montreal Forum last night.

Hull, who scored a record-breaking 54 goals the past regular season, produced the pivotal goal in the Hawks' 2-1 triumph over Detroit in their first semifinal game in Chicago Stadium.

Spahn To Sit This One Out—No Offers

HARTSHORNE, Okla. (AP) — For the first time since he bought his Oklahoma ranch in 1948, Warren Spahn has been there to see it green up in the spring.

And the veteran National League pitcher said yesterday he liked what he saw and he had "never worked harder in his life" as he helped with the ranch work.

In other springs the left-handed pitcher has left home by mid-February for a major league training camp. And Spahn wanted to do so this season, but no offers came for the durable hurler who was in the majors 21 seasons and will be 45 years old April 23.

Spahn said he had no deals cooking now with any major league club. Asked if he would grab one if it came, he replied.

"No, I wouldn't say I'd grab it. I would consider all the circumstances before deciding."

Spahn said he had several offers of jobs out of baseball but had made no decision. For the time being, he was enjoying the ranch, situated in the southeastern part of the state.

After 20 seasons with the Boston and Milwaukee Braves, Spahn spent 1965 with the New York Mets and the San Francisco Giants. He won 20 or more games in 13 seasons, the last one in 1963 when he had a 23-7 record. Last year he had a 7-16 record with the Giants and Mets.

His lifetime won-lost record is 363-245. At the end of last season, the Giants gave him an unconditional release.

Grid Stadium Work To Start

SAN DIEGO, Calif (AP) — Three firms have been awarded the contract for construction of the San Diego sports stadium, and work will begin next week.

Firms winning the $15.5 million contract yesterday were the Alex Robertson Co. and W. Daniel Larsen Co., of San Diego, and the Donovan Construction Co., of St. Paul, Minn.

The 50,000-seat, triple-deck stadium, which will serve as the home of the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League, is scheduled to be completed Aug. 15, 1967.

The $27.75 million bond issue has been awarded to Halsey, Stuart Co., of New York and Chicago, at an interest rate of 3.94 per cent for 35 years.

Hot News From Isleton: Spring Run Of Stripers Has Started

STEVENS

The big news has finally come!

The spring run of striped bass has happened in the back country spots. The first report of the year from Ben Shintaku of the 60 Main Bait Shop at Isleton was in my morning mail. It broke open with a bang last Saturday morning and the avid anglers who were on the job early made a cleaning. But alas and alack, the wind took over around 11 o'clock and by mid afternoon it was blowing a young gale. Practically all boats retreated to their various home ports. The action in the morning, however, was brisk enough to make certain the annual spawning runs had begun.

According to Shintaku's report, which can be relied upon at all times, it appears that a majority of the larger bass were taken on artificials.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE due one pair of trollers, "Buck" Buckganini and Floyd Peters, who worked the area in the San Joaquin off the mouth of Three-Mile Slough and unloaded two limits weighing a total of 76 pounds.

I note from Ben's report that my good friend and expert troller, Louie Patrick, and a friend limited with fish to 17 pounds.

I FEEL certain that Patrick (and probably all oldtimers) used the "Stockton Hookup" which consists of a wire leader about six feet long with a spreader at its base thus keeping the two lengths of leaders from becoming tangled. One section consists of a short length (about 18 inches) with a feathered jig attached; on the longer length (four to six feet) a jointed red-head plug is fastened.

Usually the Stockton hookup is used with a very light sinker, or with no sinker at all. This hookup should be trolled from 35 to 60 feet, or until you feel the plug hit the bottom. Always you should fish as close to the bottom as possible without becoming snagged; troll at slow speed, and be ever on the alert to set the hook the moment of contact. You should, however, allow your bass to run a bit after you have heaved up on your rod to set the hook. When it happens that you have lost the redhead plug or failed to have one with you, use two feathered jigs.

SHINTAKU REPORTED that most of the bass he saw or heard about were males, and that the female's roe was quite ripe. That is as it should be. The men of the family come first to prepare the way for the ladies. All of which indicates that still better fishing is in the immediate future.

ONE LAST suggestion: At times you will foul the hooks on the plug with mud or sea weed. An expert can tell when this has happened by the action of his rod tip, the newcomer will do well to reel in occasionally to see that the plug is free of mud or snags.

Roberts To Hurl Houston Opener

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Veteran pitcher Robin Roberts will be Houston's opening day pitcher next Tuesday when the Astros play the Los Angeles Dodgers at Los Angeles.

It will be the 13th opening day assignment for the 39-year-old right-hander, the winningest pitcher now active in the major leagues. His 12 other opening day assignments were with the Philadelphia Phillies. Roberts will be after his 282nd major league victory.
